CATALOG DISCLAIMER

This Student Catalog contains only general guidelines and information. It is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all the possible applications of, or exceptions to, the policies and procedures of Touro. While there has been an attempt to be comprehensive, some of the subjects described in this catalog are covered in greater detail in official policy and procedure documents located in academic program handbooks and posted within Blackboard. Students should refer to these documents for specific information, since this catalog only briefly summarizes some of those policies. For that reason, if students have any questions concerning a particular policy or procedure, they should address specific questions to the Academic Program or Student Affairs administrators. Please note that the terms of the full official policies are controlling in the case of any inconsistency.

This catalog is neither written nor meant to confer any rights or privileges on students or impose any obligations on Touro University California (TUC). No individual or representative of Touro (except the President) has the authority to enter into any agreement or understanding contrary to the above.

This catalog is written for informational purposes only and may contain errors. The policies, procedures and practices described herein may be modified, supplemented or discontinued in whole or in part, at any time with or without notice. However TUC will attempt to inform students of any changes as they occur. However, it is each student’s responsibility to keep current on all university policies, procedures and practices. It is a student’s responsibility to review university policies and procedures in detail and to request any clarification needed from the academic or student affairs administrator in charge of the area in question. Violation of university policies or procedures may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from the academic program and/or university. Action may be taken against a student notwithstanding their failure to appear or otherwise participate in disciplinary or grievance proceeding.

Students are required to investigate for themselves as to whether the program they enroll in meets their personal and career needs. Thus, TUC disclaims any liability for promises, assurances, representations, warranties or other statements made in its marketing or promotional materials, and makes absolutely no promises, assurances, representations, warranties or other statements concerning a student’s academic success. While students expend significant sums associated with higher education, successful completion of a course, program, or degree is dependent on many factors. The payment of tuition entitles a student to register and matriculate in the courses and programs available and offered by the TUC college or program in which the student is enrolled. In order for a degree to be earned, the required grades and grade point averages must be achieved and maintained, and all other requirements of the school and program must be fulfilled.

Registration and matriculation at Touro after the issuance of this catalog is consideration for and constitutes a student’s knowing acceptance of the binding Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”) mechanisms (including binding arbitration) contained herein. Thus, any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or related to your application, registration, matriculation, graduation or other separation from Touro and/or this catalog, which is not resolved through Touro College and University System’s ADR mechanisms shall be resolved exclusively through final and binding expedited arbitration conducted solely before the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), or any successor in interest, in accordance with the AAA Rules then in effect. The location of the arbitration shall be at a convenient office on a Touro campus where the student is (or was last) affiliated.

TOURO UNIVERSITY CALIFORNIA HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT

Touro University California is a Jewish-sponsored independent institution of higher and professional education founded by Bernard Lander, PhD, LHD. Touro University California is part of the TOURO College and University System (TCUS). It derives its name from Judah and Isaac Touro, leaders of colonial America who represented the ideal upon which we base our mission. Touro College was chartered by the State of New York in 1970. The first students enrolled in 1971; the class consisted of 35 liberal arts and science students. Since those early days, the Touro College and University System has experienced substantial growth. Touro College has developed into a major institution of higher education, which includes the following schools: The College of Arts and Sciences (1971); the School of Health Sciences (1972); the School of General Studies (1974), the Graduate School of Jewish Studies (1979); the Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center (1980); the School for Lifelong Education (1989); the New York School of Career and Applied Science (1995), the Graduate School of Education and Psychology (1995); Touro University College of Osteopathic Medicine Vallejo (founded in 1997 as the San Francisco College of Osteopathic Medicine); Touro University International, offering degree programs on the internet in Cypress, California (1999); the Lander College for Men in Kew Garden Hills (2000) created in 2001 through a merger of two previously separate divisions, the School of General Studies (founded in 1974) and the School of Career and Applied Studies (created in 1995); Touro University Nevada (2004); and Touro College, Rome, Italy (2005). Touro opened a branch in Moscow in spring of 1991 and its operations now include the Institute of Jewish Studies (branch campus) and a business program with Moscow University Touro (an independent entity) operated through an inter-institutional agreement.

The branch campus in Jerusalem is home to the Graduate School of Jewish Studies, an undergraduate business program and the Touro Israel Option (year abroad program). In October 2003, Touro opened a small branch campus in Berlin.

The Touro College and University System has long been interested in medical education. In 1983, Touro established the Center for Biomedical Education, a cooperative program leading to an M.D. from the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology, Israel’s premier school of applied sciences. Success in this and other related programs led Touro founder, Dr. Bernard Lander to explore the possibility of establishing a college of osteopathic medicine. Touro University sought incorporation in the State of California, and in 1997 located a campus in the San Francisco Bay Area. The campus was moved to Mare Island, California in 1999. Touro University College of Osteopathic Medicine (TUCOM) is the Founding College of Touro University California. Touro University California is now composed of three colleges: the College of Osteopathic Medicine (grants the Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Degree – D.O. and the Master of Science of Medical Health Science); the College of Pharmacy (founded in 2004 grants the Doctor of Pharmacy and the Master of Science of Medical Health Science - Pharmacy Science); the College of Health Sciences (founded in 2003) and the College of Education (founded in 2004) were combined into the College of Education and Health Sciences in 2012, and grants the Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies-MSPAS; Master of Public Health-MPH; Master’s degree in Teacher Education and provides teacher credentials; and the School of Nursing (founded in 2014) which grants the Masters of Science Nursing.
As Dr. Lander looked to other potential sites for a college of osteopathic medicine, Nevada was chosen as a potential site due to the current physician shortage in Nevada and the rapidly growing population within Las Vegas and the surrounding communities. The Touro University California branch campus, Touro University Nevada, began the College of Osteopathic Medicine and matriculated its first class in fall 2004, providing programs in osteopathic medicine and physician assistant studies. In 2005 Touro University Nevada added the College of Health and Human Services providing graduate programs in nursing, occupational therapy, and education.

DR. BERNARD LANDER – FOUNDER & FORMER PRESIDENT OF TOURO COLLEGE

Dr. Bernard Lander, from his early years as a Rabbi, as a Professor of Psychology, as the first Commissioner of Human Rights in the State of New York, as a life-long educator, and as the founder and President of Touro College and Touro University, embodied the finest concepts of a scientist and a visionary in action. Many presidents dream of starting a new college, constructing a new building, or developing new programs. Our founder opened 29 campuses which now enroll over 30,000 students within a broad spectrum of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. Excerpts from his Commendation from the New York Legislature noted his consultative service to U.S. Presidents, his talents as a compelling orator, his courageous championship for youth and the disenfranchised, and his gift as a visionary who changed the landscape of learning.

CATALOG RIGHTS

The catalog contains policies and requirements which govern academic performance and student conduct. These policies are unique to Touro University California and are designed to promote standards for academic competency, professional discipline and personal responsibility. It represents the parameters of achievement and behavior the faculty expects of its students. It is the responsibility of all students to be knowledgeable about Touro University California policies. These policies will be applied to all aspects of the student’s academic progress and personal conduct for as long as the student is enrolled.

This catalog applies to all currently enrolled students in the College of Osteopathic Medicine, College of Pharmacy and College of Education and Health Sciences; and only where stipulated do policies and requirements apply differently for individual schools or colleges.

Touro University California reserves the right to make changes at any time in this catalog or in the requirements for admission, graduation, tuition, fees, and any rules or regulations. Touro University California maintains the right to refuse to matriculate a student deemed by the faculty to be academically incompetent or otherwise unfit or unsuited for enrollment.

Attendance is defined as enrollment in at least one semester in each calendar year. Once catalog rights are established, absence related to an approved educational leave or for attendance to another accredited institution is not to be considered an interruption, providing the above attendance criteria are met and the absence does not exceed two years.

While catalog rights hold degree requirements, they do not shield students from changes in prerequisites required in a given course. Prerequisite requirements, which all students must follow, are those stated in course descriptions in the current catalog. The only exceptions to this are in cases in which the addition of course prerequisites also increases the number of units required in the major and minor. In these cases, students are encouraged to meet current course prerequisites, but are not required to do so.

The Master of Science Nursing (MSN) degree inaugural class entered in fall 2014.
The Doctor of Nursing Practice/Family Nurse Practitioner (DNP) Program is hosting the evaluation visit for CCNE accreditation in March 2018, with a decision pending October 2018.

Graduate School of Education
The Graduate School of Education (GSOE) is granted the authority to offer Masters of Arts in Education (MAEd) and Masters of Education (MEd) degrees by the WSCUC. The GSOE is granted the authority to recommend and authorize teacher credentials by the California Commission on teacher Credentialing (CCTC). The last CCTC site visit in 2009, fully endorsed Touro University California until spring 2019. California AB 2086 requires that all teacher preparation programs provide a link to the most recent data available about teacher licensure pass rates. That data can be found at:

Eligibility
It is the policy of the university to admit qualified students irrespective of race, age, gender, color, ethnicity, creed, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, or disability (see non-discrimination statement page 21). To be considered for admission to any program offered by the university, a student must possess the academic credentials and professional attributes deemed essential by the respective program’s admissions committee for selection to the program.

All applicants to Touro University California must have earned a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited U.S. institution prior to matriculation excluding the PharmD program in the College of Pharmacy, which requires a minimum of 90 semester units of degree applicable coursework, and the ADN to MSN program in the School of Nursing, which requires an associate degree in Nursing as the entry level degree with a minimum of 90 units of degree applicable coursework. In addition to these requirements each program has specific requirements described later in this catalog. Applicants who have earned a degree from outside of the United States must have that degree and coursework evaluated by World Education Services (WES) and that evaluation must indicate equivalency to a baccalaureate degree, or for the School of Nursing an associate degree in Nursing, from a regionally accredited U.S. institution.

All applicants must be either U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents at the time of application. TUC does not consider applicants with temporary, work, employment or other VISAs. Applicants with DACA (Delayed Action Childhood Arrival) or Asylum status are not eligible for consideration.

All Touro University California colleges maintain minimum GPA and academic (prerequisite) course requirements which vary by program.
Admissions

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Each TUC program requires, at minimum, a primary application for admission, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended or just from the degree granting institution (GSOE only). The number and type of letters required varies by program. For all programs excluding the GSOE official transcripts are required from all prior institutions attended, even if a degree was not earned at that institution. For some programs, unofficial transcripts can be submitted for application processing purposes but all programs require official transcripts to be submitted prior to matriculation or shortly thereafter (dependent upon timing of the offer of acceptance).

APPLICATION TYPES AND SOURCES

TUC employs two different types of applications in the various admissions processes – Primary Applications and Secondary Applications. The first application submitted for any TUC program is considered the Primary Application and can be submitted either through a Centralized Application Service (CAS) or directly to the University, dependent upon program. Some programs, by invitation only, also require a secondary application, designed to collect information that is much more specific to the program. A list of TUC programs and their application source(s) is provided below.

- Pharmacy – Primary application from Pharmacy College Application Service (PharmCAS); Pharmacy College Application Service - http://www.pharmcas.org/
- Joint Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies/Master of Public Health – Primary Application from Centralized Application Service for Physician Assistants (CASPA); Secondary Application by invitation. Central Application Service for Physician Assistant Programs - https://portal.caspaonline.org/
- Public Health – Dependent upon academic option selection, Primary Application either from Schools/Programs of Public Health Application Service (SOPHAS) or Direct Application. Schools and Programs of Public Health Application Service - http://www.sophas.org/
- Master of Science in Medical Health Sciences (COM) – Post Baccalaureate Centralized Application Service.
- Master of Science in Medical Health Sciences (COP) – Pharmacy Graduate Application Service (PharmGRAD).
- Graduate School of Education – Direct Application.
- School of Nursing – Direct Application.
TECHNICAL STANDARDS FOR ADMISSION

The Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy and Physician Assistant Studies programs require a signed Technical Standards for Admission certification. Via this certification, applicants attest that they satisfy the physical, mental, and emotional requirements for completing the programs.

Technical standards for the Osteopathic Medicine program may be found at http://admissions.tu.edu/com/COMtechstand.html.

Technical Standards for the Physician Assistant Studies program may be found at http://admissions.tu.edu/paprogram/PASuppApp2017.doc.

Technical standards for the Pharmacy program may be found at http://cop.tu.edu/studentresources/NEWCOPHANDBOOK22514.pdf on pp. 46-47

Application Deadlines and Entry Points
Both rolling and deadline-based admissions cycles are used at TUC. Deadlines vary for each program. The GSOE allows three entry points each year (spring, summer, fall), the MPH program allows two entry points each year (summer, for dual degree students, and fall for all other students), and the School of Nursing offers two entry points (fall and spring). All other TUC programs offer only a single entry point each fall.

Re-Admission Policy
University students for whom more than 365 days (one calendar year) have elapsed since the last official date of attendance are considered administratively to have withdrawn from their academic program and their student records will be updated accordingly. Such students will, at minimum, be required to submit a new application for admission and must be re-admitted by their academic program before they are permitted to return to classes. Each academic program reserves the right to establish additional requirements for returning students, as noted within their respective Student Handbooks. This policy does not apply to students granted an official Leave of Absence provided they return to classes prior to the expiration of that leave.

Correspondence
Correspondence between applicants and the university is primarily conducted via email, through the Office of Admissions staff. Phone discussions regarding requirements and procedures are generally discouraged. Official communication of admissions decisions is always done in writing, either via the United States Postal Service mail or email to the applicant.

Decisions
During the application process, the Office of Admissions, collectively, acts as an agent of the admissions committees for each program. In this role, admissions staff apply the requirements that have been created by the committees and make professional judgments as to whether or not those requirements have been satisfied. In the event a requirement is not clear, a member of the respective committee is consulted.
Admissions

Recommendations for final admissions decisions (Accept, Waitlist, or Deny) are made by the respective admissions committees, and then approved by the program Dean or Director. Admissions decisions are based on criteria established by the committees, and are made based on file review, interviews and/or other application materials/interactions, as mandated by the specific program. Admissions decisions are final and cannot be appeal.

Advanced Placement Credit
Touro University California accepts advanced placement credit as having met program requirements as long as such credit appears on the undergraduate transcript and indicates either specific subject credit (e.g. General Chemistry - 4 units) or specific course credit (e.g. Chem 101 - 4 units). General advanced placement credit without such specifications is not accepted as meeting program pre-requisites.

Advanced Standing/Credit for Previous Courses
With the exception of the GSOE, Touro University California programs do not grant advanced standing or credit for previously completed coursework.

Background Check Disclosure
Students/Graduates of the Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, Doctor of Pharmacy, and Joint MSPAS/MPH programs are required to pass a background check in order to participate in required pre-clinical and/or elective clinical experiences. Passage of a background check is required in order to obtain professional licensure. At the point of acceptance, each student in the above referenced programs is provided a disclosure statement advising them of the program background check requirements. Further, the disclosure statement advises that background checks, whether for pre-clinical or other clinical experiences or for professional licensure, are between the student and the respective agencies and that failure of a background check may affect the student’s ability to continue in the program and/or become licensed.

GSOE students who are interns or student teachers must provide Touro University California with proof of current negative TB results, LiveScan, and an up-to-date Certificate of Clearance issued by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

By signing the disclosure statement, students acknowledge this information, and in the event they are unable to proceed in the program and/or become licensed, they acknowledge that they still retain a responsibility for tuition and other costs associated with their education and that TUC, its faculty, employees, and agents are held harmless.

Visiting Student Status (formerly Special Status Student)
The Graduate School of Education and Public Health Programs are currently the only academic programs which permits students to enroll in up to twelve (12) units as “Visiting Students.” This is a non-degree seeking enrollment status. An application for admission and an application fee are required, but letters and transcripts are not required. At the end of twelve (12) units, the student must either apply for and be admitted into the Graduate School of Education or Public Health Program (and satisfy all admissions requirements for those programs), or they must withdraw.
Dual Degree Credit
Students within the Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and Doctor of Pharmacy programs may be concurrently or consecutively enrolled in the Master of Public Health program as dual degree students. For Dual Degree Students, the Public Health program grants up to twelve (12) units of credit based upon course completion within the Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine or Doctor of Pharmacy programs, meaning that Dual Degree students are only required to complete thirty (30) units in residence within the Master of Public Health program. The specific courses for which credit is granted have been identified and are tracked by the Public Health program.

APPLICANT RECORDS
Once submitted, all application materials, including, but not limited to, applications, letters of recommendation and transcripts become the property of TUC and are not released back to the applicant. Applicants who wish to review a specific letter of recommendation, whether or not they have waived their “right of review” with the letter writer, are referred back to the letter writer. University faculty and staff may have access to application materials on an as needed basis, in accordance with FERPA regulations. The official admissions file for each applicant, with original documents, is never removed from the Office of Admissions during an admissions cycle. Files for those who matriculate into each program are transferred to the Office of the Registrar only after Admissions has confirmed that all pre-matriculation requirements have been satisfied. Letters of reference/recommendation and interview evaluations do not become part of the students’ academic record. Application materials for all other applicants are destroyed by secure services within three months of the close of the cycle.

Data Integrity
The integrity of student records is critical. Data is automatically uploaded into the SIS from Hobson’s ApplyYourself for all applicants who submit a complete Direct or Supplemental Application. At the point of acceptance, additional data is uploaded into the SIS from the Centralized Application Services (CAS) for applicants to the Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy, Joint PA/MPH, and MPH (Independent Only) programs.

Document Inclusion/Exclusion Policy
Effective November 19, 2013, the Office of Admissions will no longer include within the candidate file a copy of the “Candidates for Class of 20XX” Committee spreadsheets, as those spreadsheets contain Personally Identifiable Information for other candidates. Documents containing Personally Identifiable Information for other candidates will be excluded from the file.
CREDIT AND STUDENT TRANSFER POLICIES
Some Touro University California (TUC) degree programs will consider students who wish to transfer into TUC from another institution and/or will consider accepting credits earned at other degree programs toward completion of a degree at TUC. Policies regarding transfer of credit and student transfers are provided below. Touro University California has no official articulation agreements with any other institution.

Transfer of Credit Policies and Articulation Agreements
The College of Osteopathic Medicine, the Graduate School of Education, and the Master of Public Health program provide a means by which students may transfer from other programs and receive advanced standing. Currently, these are the only TUC programs which consider transfer candidates. Touro University California has no official articulation agreements with any other institution.

College of Osteopathic Medicine Transfer Policy
The Touro University California College of Osteopathic Medicine (TUCOM CA) only considers transfer applications from students who currently attend medical schools/colleges accredited by the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA). Transfer applications from students currently attending medical schools/colleges accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME), or an international medical school/college will not be considered. Transfer applicants who have been dismissed from the prior medical school/college for any reason will not be considered. Transfer applicants who previously applied to TUCOM CA, interviewed and who were subsequently denied admission will not be considered. Applicants assigned to a waitlist who were ultimately not offered acceptance are not included.

Eligible candidates may only transfer into the beginning of the 3rd year and must obtain a passing score on the COMLEX Level 1 exam, on the first attempt, prior to July 1st. Failure to obtain a passing score on the first attempt by the required date may result in rescission of the transfer acceptance, delayed start of the clinical curriculum, and/or postponed graduation date, all at the sole discretion of TUCOM CA. Transfer candidates are strongly encouraged to take the COMLEX Level 1 exam at least four weeks prior to the start of clinical clerkships to avoid a delay in beginning the 3rd year. Transfer students must complete the last two years of instruction at TUC to be granted a DO degree.

College of Osteopathic Medicine Transfer Procedure

Required Documentation
Transfer applicants must provide the following documentation:

1. A letter to the Director of Admissions indicating specifying all compelling reasons for requesting a transfer.
2. A supplemental application and $100.00 application fee.
3. Most recent format of the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT) score.
4. Official copies of transcripts from all post-secondary schools and colleges.
5. Official copy of most current medical school transcript.
6. A letter from the medical school/college in which the applicant is currently enrolled, stating that the applicant is in good academic standing.
7. A letter of recommendation from the Dean of the medical school/college in which the applicant is currently enrolled.
8. A letter of recommendation from an active physician.

With the exception of item numbers 4 and 5 above, which are submitted directly to the Office of Admissions, all other transfer application materials are submitted through the TUC ApplyYourself system. Consideration and acceptance of transfer applications will be dependent upon the applicant’s qualifications, curricular compatibility, and available space. Submission of application materials and, if invited, attendance at an interview do not guarantee acceptance.

Procedure

1. Admissions and Standards Committee review. Once the candidates file is complete, the Admissions Committee will meet and determine admissibility based upon the student’s academic record and compatibility with the mission of the institution. Admissions may reject the applicant at this stage, or if found acceptable, may send the file on for consideration by the Student Promotions Committee.

2. Student Promotions Committee review. The Student Promotions Committee will review the file to determine compatibility with the curriculum and, if appropriate, specify the deficiencies to be addressed. If the candidate’s records are found incompatible with the curriculum, the file will be returned to the Director of Admissions with the recommendation to deny transfer. If the candidate’s records are found acceptable at this stage, the transfer application file will be returned to the Director of Admissions in preparation for the Personal interview.

3. Personal Interview. The Director of Admissions, on the recommendation of both the Admissions and Standards Committee and Student Promotions Committee will invite the transfer candidate to TUCOM to be interviewed by the Admissions and Standards Committee.

4. Final Decision. Following the personal interview, the Admissions and Standards Committee will either charge the Director of Admissions with advising the candidate that the request for transfer has not been approved, or will recommend to the Dean of the College that the request for transfer be granted. The Dean shall finally determine admission status and class standing.

Transfer Deadlines

First Monday in February.................................................... All application materials due by close of business (5:00 pm PDT).

Third Monday in February.................................................... Determination will be made if an invitation to interview will be extended. Candidates will be notified via email.

Third Wednesday in March.................................................. Tentative interview date.

First Wednesday in April.................................................... Tentative final decision date.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION TRANSFER POLICY

Transfer of Coursework
Coursework may be transferred into Touro University California Graduate School of Education programs using the following guidelines:

- A minimum of 2/3rd of the units for a degree or program must be completed at Touro University California in order to be recommended for a degree, certificate, and/or credential.
- In certain circumstances, additional credits may be accepted for transfer toward a Master’s degree upon approval of the Dean of the Graduate School of Education.
- Waiver and substitutions of credits will only be approved upon acceptance into a program of study.
- Coursework is not automatically transferable from another institution of higher learning to Touro University California. Units to be transferred must have been completed within 7 years of admission to the Touro University California GSOE program. A grade of B or higher must have been earned. The transferred course must be equivalent in content to the Touro course being waived. The coursework must be from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning or its equivalent.
- Official transcripts and course descriptions must be provided to the Program Chair prior to acceptance to evaluate transferred courses.

Course Waivers

Students may request a required course to be waived based on university work completed.

Course Substitution

Students may request to substitute coursework taken at another university. Course substitutions do not result in a reduction of the number of units required to complete a program. The process for requesting a course substitution or waiver is outlined below:

- A substitute or waiver form must be completed for each requested course transfer.
- For course substitutions or waivers the student should provide course description from the catalog or the substitutions or waiver the student should provide course description from the catalog or the institution at which the course being used for the substitute was originally taken and a course syllabus if requested.
- The program chair will review the submitted information to determine if the substitution or waiver is justified.
- The Dean of the Graduate School of Education reviews all requests to determine if the course or work is a legitimate substitution/waiver and approves the transfer of credits.

Master of Science in Nursing and Doctor of Nursing Practice

- A minimum of 2/3 of the units required for either degree program must be completed at Touro University California; the programs will currently accept up to 15 units of transfer credit.
- A written request for transfer credit must be submitted with the application for admission.
Admissions

- The request must include the official course number, name, and course description of each course to be transferred.
- Official or unofficial transcripts must be provided for each course. If accepted, official transcripts will be required prior to matriculation.
- Coursework is not automatically transferable from another institution of higher learning to Touro University California
  - Each course must have been completed with a grade of C or better.
  - Transferred coursework must be equivalent in content and level to the Touro coursework being waived
  - Transferred coursework must be from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning
- Upon receipt, the School of Nursing will review the request for transfer credit and transcripts. Approved credit will be recorded on Transfer Credit form, which will be signed by the School of Nursing, the applicant, and the University Registrar.
  - Please note that transfer credit will not be considered official (e.g., added to the student record) until the Transfer Credit form is signed by all parties.

Doctor of Nursing Practice
Transfer Credit for TUC Master of Science in Nursing Students
Three courses in the Doctor of Nursing Practice program are also offered in the Master of Science in Nursing program:

- NRSC 7 - Advanced Physical Assessment (3 units)
- NRSC 8 - Advanced Pathophysiology (3 units)
- NRSC 9 - Advanced Pharmacology (3 units)

Doctor of Nursing Practice program students will be given transfer credit for any of these courses previously completed as part of the TUC Master of Science in Nursing program. Because these transfer credits are counted against the maximum of 15 units of transfer credit, TUC MSN students who continue into the DNP program may only receive up to 6 units of transfer credit from external sources.

Transfer Credit for Clinical/Practicum Hours
The Doctor of Nursing Practice program requires a total of 1,000 clinical hours. Students who previously completed a Master of Science in Nursing degree from a regionally accredited institution may request transfer credit for up to 370 clinical hours by uploading a Request for Clinical Hour Transfer Credit form with the admissions application. Clinical/practicum hours must also be verified by one of the following, which will also be uploaded with the application:

- Un-Official transcript. Clinical/practicum hours must be clearly identified. An official transcript will be required prior to matriculation.
- Syllabi for clinical/practicum courses. Hours must be clearly identified.
- Letter from Program Director or representative, verifying clinical/practicum hours.
PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM TRANSFER POLICY

Transfer Coursework
Students who have completed applicable public health coursework at TUC or other accredited colleges or universities may be eligible to apply that coursework towards the MPH degree. A maximum of 12 semester units from other institutions MAY be applied toward the MPH degree prior to admissions at TUC. Applied coursework from other colleges or universities must have been completed within 5 years of the of the application date and must be approved by the program director.

ADMISSIONS CYCLES

The various programs at Touro University California utilize one of two types of admissions cycles – Rolling Admissions Cycles and Deadline-based Admissions Cycles. It is the applicants’ responsibility to sufficiently document job duties in the CASPA application. Applicants should consider the duties which they performed and use their best judgment to determine which category in the CASPA application it falls into. All health care related experiences should be documented either in the Patient Care Experience or Health Care Experience sections (not the Volunteer section). Health Care Experience includes jobs where you are not directly responsible for a patient’s care, such as with medical clerical work or cleaning patient rooms. Applicants are expected to separate hours for positions that consist of both Patient Care Experience and Health Care Experience accordingly.
Working with or shadowing a Physician Assistant provides an applicant with more in-depth knowledge of the profession, allowing an applicant to make an informed career decision to enter a PA program. Applicants who have worked with Physician Assistants are advised to describe all such interactions under the appropriate job descriptions. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ACCEPTED STUDENTS

PRE-MATRICULATION PHYSICAL EXAM REQUIREMENT
All students are required to have a physical exam after admittance and prior to matriculation. Please see academic program requirements on the program website for specific requirements of the physical exam.

PRE-MATRICULATION IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Touro University requires that all incoming students - except those students in the GSOE, and MPH programs, submit documented proof of immunization against measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria/tetanus/pertussis, oral polio, varicella and hepatitis B prior to matriculating as students.

Immunizations are required for the safety of students as well as those with whom they will come into contact during their time in the program. For this reason, immunization requirements will not be waived. No student will be permitted to attend any clinical experience nor be allowed to sit for any examination if he/she has not provided satisfactory proof of required immunizations.

Additionally, students who do not have current immunizations and titers will be prevented from registering for the next term until the deficiency is corrected. No exceptions will be made. All students must have annual tuberculosis screening unless they have a history of a positive PPD, then a chest x-ray is required. Please see specific college requirements on the Student Health Center webpage.

Important, specific information about ALL the immunization requirements needed prior to matriculation are listed by program below immediately following the statement on medical records and immunization record keeping. If admitted students have questions regarding pre-matriculation immunizations, they may need to ask their academic program director/dean or check with the Student Health Center (SHC) staff. It should be understood that from time to time immunization and health certification requirements may change. For the most current listing of your specific program’s requirements, please consult the following webpage: http://studentservices.tu.edu/studenthealth/immunization.html.

MEDICAL RECORDS AND IMMUNIZATION RECORD

Student medical files are maintained separately from the other student health records and files in the Student Health Center (SHC). The SHC keeps student medical records in accordance with standard HIPAA guidelines. Students may contact the Student Health Services Director to inspect their TUC medical and immunization records. The university keeps student immunization documentation on file in the Student Health Center utilizing the Castle Branch System.

Admissions - Accepted Students

MASTERS OF SCIENCE NURSING
All students in the MSN program are required to provide proof of the following prior to matriculation:

- Hepatitis B (Hep B)
  - Serologic testing that establishes immunity through a positive antibody titer or
  - Proof of previous adequate vaccination (3 doses over 6 months)
- Rubeola (Measles), Mumps, Rubella, Varicella and Zoster (chicken pox) by one of the following:

TRANSCRIPT REQUIREMENTS
Student copies of unofficial transcripts may be submitted with initial application materials provided such copies include the conferral or anticipated conferral date for the baccalaureate degree. An official transcript indicating baccalaureate degree completion (except for the Pharm D and MSN nursing program) and official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended (excluding the GSOE) are required. Whenever possible applicants are encouraged to submit official transcripts with their application materials; however during the application process, unofficial transcripts will be accepted.

If applicants submit unofficial transcripts as part of the application process, they must submit official transcripts to the Office of Admission prior to matriculation. Upon matriculation, all students must be able to provide official transcripts (or official transcript evaluations) from either the degree granting institution (GSOE only) or from all colleges/universities attended (all other TUC programs). At minimum, transcripts must confirm completion of the appropriate degree and/or required coursework, and required units (where applicable). Exceptions on a case-by-case basis may be made to allow an admitted student to matriculate if the student was accepted too close to the start of the academic program to allow sufficient time to request official transcripts. In these cases, the student must provide secondary proof of degree completion such as a copy of diploma, unofficial transcripts showing final grades and/or degree conferral date, letter from the college/university registrar, letter from course professor, etc. In such cases, official transcripts are required within 30 days of matriculation or a registration hold will be placed on the student’s records and the student will not be permitted to register for courses for the next semester.

Students who have attended institutions outside of the United States will need to submit an official transcript evaluation from World Education Services, Inc. (WES). Evaluations from other organizations are not considered.

NEW STUDENT ARRIVAL
Registration
All new students will be required to register online as specified in the admittance letter. Failure to register prior to the start of classes may be grounds for dismissal. Full tuition and fees must be paid in full on or before registration. Current students who have applied and been admitted into a new academic program, but are not new to the university, will continue to utilize the same student ID number. New students receive their Student ID as part of their official admissions information and confirmation. Matriculation for new students and continued promotion are subject to satisfactory completion of all academic requirements and payment of all outstanding debts to the university. Prior to registration, official transcripts must be on file with Admissions (see above section on transcript requirements for more detail on this requirement).

In addition to transcripts, prior to registration and dependent upon program, admitted students must submit documentation and proof of having fulfilled the following requirements: a physical exam, immunizations as outlined by their academic program, and proof of health insurance or documentation that the coverage meets the waiver criteria. Please refer to the Student Health Insurance and Pre-Matriculation Immunizations areas within the New Student section of this catalog to determine the relevant requirements for your degree program.

New Student University and Program Orientations
Attendance during University and Orientations is mandatory for new students. Orientation programs are planned each year by the academic program and Student Affairs to welcome and facilitate the integration of new students into each of the colleges of the university. At orientation, students receive financial aid information, and learn about college services available on campus; students are provided with opportunities to interact socially with peers, meet administration, faculty and staff members. Through orientation, the student will develop a sense of belonging to the university and individual college communities. Orientation dates and times, along with supporting materials, will be made available to new students approximately 45 to 60 days before the start of classes.
Student Safety

Student Identification and Name Badges
Touro University California Facilities Department issues photo-identification (ID) badges to new students during orientation or during the first week of class. This badge must be worn while a student is in any institutional facility or is participating in a clinical rotation at another facility. This ID badge must be displayed in such a manner that it is readily visible. Failure to wear and/or properly display the student identification badge may result in a member of the security staff requesting the student to leave a building on campus, denying the student admission to a building, or referring the student to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs. If a student identification badge is lost or stolen the student is required to inform the Office of Student Affairs and arrange for a replacement badge. The first replacement badge is free. The second badge requires a fee of $15.00 to replace a lost or stolen ID badge.

Student Health Insurance Plan/Health Care
Because the university is concerned for the health and welfare of its students, each student is required to maintain continuous health insurance coverage. The student has exclusive responsibility for his/her own medical bills. The university assumes no responsibility to seek reductions or waivers. Prior to receipt of a diploma from Touro University California, students must be free from any medical financial responsibility with any of the university’s affiliated hospitals or clinics.

To insure each student has health insurance Touro University California has instituted a mandatory insurance program. Students are automatically enrolled at registration in the Touro University California Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP) except for students in the Graduate School of Education and the School of Nursing. A waiver program is in effect for student who can document coverage that meets the minimum requirements of the plan. If a student’s waiver application is accepted they will be waived from inclusion in the Touro sponsored plan for one (1) academic year. Each student wishing continued waiver from participation must reapply every academic year during the waiver period. The waiver period generally begins in early May of each year, to be effective with the beginning of the next academic year. Students are notified via their tu.edu email when the waiver application period begins.

Drug Free Workplace
A Drug and Controlled Substances Policy and Procedure have been established for Touro University California in order to appropriately serve the needs of faculty, staff and students. This policy has been established to implement a drug-free work place and academic environment consistent with federal and California state law, including the terms and conditions whereby employees, students, volunteers, faculty, physicians, and other professionals may be disciplined for violation of these policies and tested for suspected use of an illegal drug or alcohol.

All students of Touro University California, prior to beginning a clinical affiliation, will be required to be drug screened. The university reserves the right to have any student evaluated by the Student Health Service if he/she appears to be under the influence of illegal drugs/substance and/or alcohol which results in a diminished or impaired ability to perform usual tasks. Any student who attends a class or a clinical rotation under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs/substances is subject to either immediate suspension or possible expulsion in accordance with this policy.

Each student will be required to submit to a background check and drug screen prior to or during their enrollment at Touro University California. The cost of the first background check and drug screen will be borne by Touro University California. The student should be aware that facts uncovered as a result of the background check and/or drug screen which may preclude licensure or practice in your profession or interfere with Touro University California’s ability to procure internships/clerkships/rotation sites may impact your ability to begin or continue your education at Touro University California or to obtain licensure to practice your profession.

Drug Screening Procedures

TUC Students enrolled in the Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy, PA/MPH and Nursing programs must meet a variety of institutional and third party standards in order to participate in their clinical rotations. TUC establishes the academic standards and experiential educational standards for all educational experiences, such as for clinical rotations. Clinical rotation standards and policies are stated in full detail in each program’s student handbook. However, since the clinical rotation experience is common to several academic programs, the university drug screening procedures apply to all academic programs requiring clinical rotations.

Clearance Monitoring and Release of Records TUC

Student Health Center (SHC) facilitates the gathering, collating and validation of the required health clearance data for student rotations through the CastleBranch System for all programs except the Nursing program. In addition to health screening, immunization, and titer requirements, students are required to pass a drug screen analysis in order to participate in any clinical activity. While the specific thresholds and drug clearance requirements vary among clinical sites, almost all of the clinical sites require that students pass a drug screen prior to the first day of rotations. SHC obtains a signed release of information that includes the student’s approval for the TUC SHC to share the student’s drug screen results with the student’s clinical rotation sites. Additionally it is acknowledged that the clinical sites may keep copies of the student’s drug screen results for up to three years after discontinuation of the rotation in order to comply with the clinical site’s specific accreditation requirements.

Payment

The first required drug screen test is paid for through the university collected student health fee. TUC will arrange for the third party vendor to offer the initial screening on campus at the university’s expense. All students who are required to have a drug screen are encouraged to utilize the services provided. Students failing to attend an on campus drug screening event sponsored by SHC may be required to obtain screening on their own and pay the costs. Students obtaining a drug screen on their own must request the vendor to provide a copy of those results to SHC staff. The university pays for the initial drug screen test (when obtained during SHC arranged on campus events) and may pay for some that are required to be conducted within 30 days of the start of a rotation. All elective rotations and student requested rotations requiring additional screening shall be completed at the student’s expense. Students may be responsible for payment for initial and/or subsequent drug screen tests for other reasons, including, but not limited to student noncompliance and retesting as the result of positive results.

Screening

TUC contracts with an independent third party to conduct the laboratory analysis and TUC has no control over the results of the screening. The results are submitted by the third party vendor to the SHC staff who will record, maintain and report the results to the student’s program and when needed, to clinical sites.

Notice

Students will be given notice a minimum of seven calendar days prior to the initial drug screening test. Special circumstances that prevent the student from participating in the scheduled drug screen test must be discussed with the appropriate academic program administrator prior to the test in order to receive an “excused absence.” The SHC will send each academic program a roster of the students who participated in the screening. The vendor will send to the College of Nursing a participant. Students who do not participate are reported as “no show” for the initial testing to their academic program administrators and will be required to pay for their initial drug screen test and may be subject to professionalism charges and/or university student conduct code violations. Students with an excused absence from the announced drug screen test day will still be given an opportunity to have the test paid for by the university at an agreed upon date. The “make-up” test must be completed within seven calendar days of the missed event. Again, the student who is “making-up” the drug screen test, must request that the vendor provide a copy of the test results to the SHC or to the Nursing Program administrator.

Reporting of Medication Usage
Students using prescription(s) or OTC medications that may impact the drug screen are not required to provide that information prior to urine drug screening. Any student who’s test results returns as a positive is contacted by the vendor’s MRO. The student is then asked to provide the documentation of prescribed drug.

Results
Students shall be provided two attempts to successfully pass the drug screen test.

First Failure
The student’s academic program will be notified. The student shall retest at their own expense within three to five calendar days after receipt of notification of the initial failure. SHC and the academic program will make arrangements for the testing to be completed. The student should realize that delay may have a serious impact on their ability to complete their scheduled clinical rotations and that this retaking of the drug screen test will mean that their rotation space may be given to another student. Furthermore, such delays may result in delayed graduation and additional tuition and/or fees. Students are referred to their academic programs for information regarding any additional programmatic disciplinary consequences.

Second Failure
Students who fail the second drug screen test will not be given a third opportunity to pass the drug test and their academic program administration will be notified of the second failure. Students may face program dismissal, professionalism charges and/or university student conduct charges for a failed second drug screen test. Please see university Student Code of Conduct and the university Drug and Controlled Substances policy as well as academic program specific student handbooks for more information on what impact this may have on student enrollment status in a program. Students who fail the drug test are recommended to seek appropriate drug and alcohol counseling/remediation intervention.

Crime Awareness & Campus Security Act (Clery Act Information)
As required by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics (Clery Act) federal law, Touro University makes available to students and prospective students and families information about policies and procedures on how to report criminal actions on campus, current policies concerning security and access to facilities on campus, and information on campus law enforcement and statistics concerning incidents of campus crime. Each fall by October 1st Touro University California publishes this information in the Annual Security Report (ASR) that is located on the university website under the Campus Security tab located at the bottom of the tu.edu home page or at the following website:  http://facilities.tu.edu/safety.  Paper copies of the ASR may be obtained by contacting the appropriate university administrators. Current and prospective students and employees can request a paper copy of this report by contacting Mr. Patrick Donahue, Associate Vice President of Administration (707) 638-5800 or Dr. Jim Binkerd, Associate Dean of Student Affairs (707) 638-5935.

TUC encourages victims and witnesses of crime to report crime and other serious incidents as soon as possible to Campus Security or university administrators. The ASR has specific information on how to and to whom to report crimes. Additionally, the ASR contains information on several important policy and resource issues related to Title IX and other emergency and security issues.

Students are notified at least annually via their tu.eu email of how to access the most current ASR. Students are strongly encouraged to review the policies and materials made available to them in the ASR.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Emergency Alert System
During an emergency, the university will use multiple mediums to reach as many people as possible with accurate and timely information. This is especially important in the first hours and days of an emergency or a crisis. In addition to emails and the TUC webpage, the university uses RAVE Alert emergency notification system to notify the campus community of a significant emergency or dangerous situation affecting the university community.

Touro University California tests this emergency notification system at least once per academic year and uses the system as part of the emergency drills. Test results are used to measure the effectiveness of the system and to provide important information as the university seeks to enhance and upgrade the emergency notification tools and procedures.

Updating Emergency Alert Information
All faculty, staff and students are annually enrolled in the RAVE Alert emergency notification system via their official tu.edu email. Informational campaigns are conducted at the start of each semester to encourage students to provide multiple contact paths and to update the system with any changes to their primary contact information by visiting: http://www.rave.net. TUC community members will receive the latest official campus information regarding natural disasters, campus closures or other emergency situations via a text or phone call from the RAVE alert system.

Individuals who are already registered can check their contact information at the RAVE website (www.rave.net) by entering the member ID and password emailed along with the registration information.

Links for member ID and password reminders can also be requested by clicking on the appropriate links at www.everbridge.net.

Fire Drills, Building Coordinators & Safety Week
Fire evacuation plans are posted in all of the occupied buildings located on the Mare Island campus. Fire drills are conducted every few months. The fire drills encompass all of the occupied buildings located on the campus with each building having a fire drill at least once a year.

Each building has a faculty, staff or administrator named as building coordinators who serve as a local contact for each building to assist with emergency protocols for evacuation, lock down, or other required emergency response. The building coordinators assist with informing building occupants of proper procedures for building emergency and evacuations in preparation for an actual emergency.

All building occupants, including students in labs, are required to evacuate the building during a drill and to stay clear of the building until the staff or faculty building captain(s) give the all clear signal to return to the building. It is critical that everyone adhere to the practices of evacuation during the drills. Students failing to leave the building or to comply with directions issued by the building captains, coordinators or uniformed emergency responders may face student conduct and professionalism charges. During the fire drills, observers note infractions and make suggestions for improvement. Results of the fire drill are forwarded to the campus community via the official tu.edu email system. Reports are maintained with the chairperson of the safety committee.

A complete copy of the Campus Fire Safety Policy is Appendix N (Campus Fire Safety Policy - Appendix N). Staff and faculty receive safety training opportunities for CPR, First Aid and proper use of fire extinguishers. Students receive safety information at the University new student orientation.

Emergency Management & Campus Emergency Telephones

The university’s ASR lists policy and procedure information regarding the university’s emergency management activities. For all non-urgent questions concerning safety and security issues, please contact the Facilities department administrator. The campus does have an active shooter policy that is posted on Blackboard. (Appendix O)

For emergencies call 911 or 9-911 from all campus telephones.

Blue light emergency telephones are located in the parking lots near Lander Hall, the Library building, the Farragut Inn and Wilderman Hall as well as near foot paths such as the Harter Way stairs. These special emergency telephones contact the Touro campus security

Statement on Academic Integrity

Touro College and University System is a community of scholars and learners committed to maintaining the highest standards of personal integrity in all aspects of our professional and academic lives. Because intellectual integrity is a hallmark of scholarly and scientific inquiry as well as a core value of the Jewish tradition, students and faculty are expected to share a mutual respect for teaching, learning and the development of knowledge. They are expected to adhere to the highest standards of honesty, fairness, professional conduct of academic work and respect for all community members.

Academic dishonesty undermines our shared intellectual culture and our ability to trust one another. Faculty and administration bear a major responsibility for promoting a climate of integrity, both in the clarity with which they state their expectations and in the vigilance with which they monitor students. Students must avoid all acts of dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating on examinations, fabrication, tampering, lying and plagiarizing, as well as facilitating or tolerating the dishonesty of others. Academic dishonesty lowers scholastic quality and defrauds those who will eventually depend on the knowledge and integrity of our graduates.

The Touro College and University System views violations of academic integrity with the utmost gravity. Such violations will lead to appropriate sanctions, up to and including expulsion from the college. community. We commit ourselves to the shared vision of academic excellence that can only flourish in a climate of integrity.

The Touro College and University System’s policy on academic integrity, which is outlined in (Appendix K) is designed to guide students as they prepare assignments, take exams, and perform the work necessary to complete their degree requirements, and to provide a framework for faculty in fostering an intellectual environment based on the principles of academic integrity. It is presented in the catalog in its entirety in order to educate the faculty on the enforcement of the policy.

The International Center for Academic Integrity (ICAI), of which the Touro College and University System is a member, identifies five fundamental values of academic integrity that must be present if the academic life of an institution is to flourish: Honesty, Trust, Fairness, Respect, and Responsibility. To sustain these values, the TCUS Academic Integrity Policy, \(^1\) requires that a student or researcher:

- Properly acknowledge all contributors to any piece of work;
- Obtain all data or results using ethical means;
- Report researched data without concealing any results inconsistent with student’s conclusions;
- Treat fellow students in an ethical manner; respecting the integrity of others and the right to pursue educational goals without interference. Students may neither facilitate another student’s academic dishonesty, nor obstruct another student’s academic progress;
- Uphold ethical principles and the code of the profession for which the student is preparing;
- Properly acknowledge and cite all ideas, results, or words originally produced by others:
Registrar office hours are generally Mondays through Thursdays 8:00AM – 5:00PM; Fridays 8:00AM – 3:00PM. There may be some evening hours during the academic term; see website for specific dates and times. Students are advised to pay attention to the university holiday schedule as the Registrar’s office may be closed during those times.

Academic Record Privacy/FERPA

As noted above, the Registrar is responsible for maintaining the official student academic records. Any questions and/or requests regarding student academic records should be made in writing and addressed to the Registrar. The Registrar staff complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA provides for students’ right to be informed about where student academic records are located, to review personal academic records, to request corrections, to grieve alleged violations of privacy, to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information and to file complaints with the U.S. Department of Education. Touro University has designated student names, email address, term of attendance, major fields of study and certificates earned as public directory information. This means that this information about students will be shared with the Touro University California community and the public unless the student requests a privacy hold be placed on their records, via TouroOne or signed request to Registrar.

Matriculation and Registration Process

Students are enrolled in a variety of ways depending on their discipline and year. The following chart defines what type(s) of registration are utilized for each group. Block registration means that the Registrar staff enroll the students as directed by the department. Flexible, or Self-Registration means that students must enroll themselves via TouroOne.

Academic Regulations & Policies

All students are required to register and/or check the accuracy of their registration online via TouroOne by their specified academic program registration deadline. Students are encouraged to be active in their review of their TouroOne accounts to view registration, student account and other critical administrative information related to their student academic records. Please see the college calendar posted on the registrar website for current registration and other important deadlines. Failure to register by the deadline posted will exclude the student from attending classes. Students who register late will be charged a late registration penalty. Full tuition and fees and any prior debts must be paid in full on or before registration day each academic term. Students who fail to register during a semester, or whose efforts to register fail to conform with university and academic program regulations, may not at the end of such semester receive credit for courses or parts of courses completed.

Students registering for electives must complete a paper registration form with required instructor(s) signature(s) and approval of the Bursar prior to processing. See catalog section on adding classes for more detail on this process.

The university has both semester and trimester terms and students may begin their didactic portion of their degree during one type of academic calendar term and switch to the other term basis midway through their academic program. In general, there are three registration sessions, fall, spring and summer. Matriculation and promotion are subject to satisfactory completion of all academic requirements and payment of all outstanding debts to the university. For new students the following items are required (see catalog section Additional Admission Requirements for details):
- a physical exam,
- immunizations as outlined on the physical examination form,
- proof of health insurance and documentation that the insurance meets or exceeds the requirements to be granted a waiver.

Attendance during orientation is mandatory for new students. For subsequent sessions/years students receive registration forms from the Registrar approximately 2-3 weeks prior to the beginning of the new Academic year.

Late Registration
A student registering after classes have begun, must obtain the written permission of the Dean of the School in which the student is enrolled. Permission of the instructor in each course is also required in all such cases. A late registration fee of $50.00 will be assessed against all late registrants.

Continuous Enrollment
Students must register for a minimum of 3 credit hours each semester to maintain active student status. Students with fewer than six graduate units are not eligible for Financial Aid, but are considered an active student. Students who are progressing in the completion of their thesis or dissertation are required to register for a continuation course each semester until the thesis or dissertation is completed and is given final approval. Students who do not register as required and for whom more than 365 days have elapsed since the date of last attendance may be administratively separated from the university and would then be required to reapply for admission should they wish to continue. Exceptions to this would be a request for a leave of absence. Leave of absences are made only with the approval of the academic program and university registrar; see Leave of Absence section of this catalog for a more complete explanation.

Enrollment Verifications
Student enrollment verifications for insurance and other purposes are available through the registrar’s office. Students may request verification of current and past enrollment status and/or, completion of the conferred degree at Touro University California. The letter of verification includes the following information:

- College/Academic Program
- Date of original matriculation
- Enrollment Status (Full-time vs. Part-Time)
- Expected/Actual Graduation Date

To request an enrollment verification letter, students must complete a verification request form. The form may be faxed to 707 638-5267 or emailed to tucaregistrar@tu.edu. Forms are available online at http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/forms.html

National Student Clearinghouse
The Registrar reports the current enrollment status of students on a monthly basis to the National Student Clearing House. A student enrollment is defined as follows:

- Currently enrolled full time (F) = enrolled in 9 or more units
- Currently enrolled half time (H) = enrolled in 6 or more units but less than 9 units
- Currently enrolled less than half time (LH) = enrolled in fewer than 6 units
- Withdrew (W)
- Dismissed (A)
- On a leave of absence (LOA)
- Graduated (G)
- Deceased (D)

The Department of Education and various lenders of student loans, utilize the NSCH for verification of student's status. If a student is reported as less than halftime, withdrawn on leave of absence or graduate their student financial aid loan grace period will begin in six months. See Financial Aid for more information on grace periods.

CHANGES IN ENROLLMENT
ADDING/DROPPING/REPEATING CLASSES

Changes in enrollment are controlled by deadlines specific to each discipline and class year. Look to the registrars page (http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/calendar.html) for specific dates and become familiar with the following deadlines:

Start of Registration-this is the date that students can access their record for a specific term to begin to add/drop. In the case of students who are block registered, this is the first date that they can actually see the enrollments entered by the Registrar staff.

End of Registration - this is the date by which time students have finalized their term schedule. Please note that adding and dropping course may impact a student’s financial aid and their tuition and fee charges. Having registration finalized by this time assists in processing of financial aid or VA benefits.

The Last day to add/drop is an important deadline by which time any and all additions to your enrollment should have been complete. Dropping is still allowed after this date but will result in a “W” grade appearing on the student’s transcript.

The last day to drop with a “W” is an equally important deadline in that drops after this time will result in the actual earned grade for the class posted on the transcript. This is set as the 51% point of the term and is specific to the students program.

Students can drop classes according to these dates BUT cannot drop all classes. If the student wishes to drop all classes, withdrawing from the University entirely, they must seek assistance through the Registrars or program coordinator. Such action may require a leave of absence request.

Repeating Classes
Repeating a course or a term of coursework is only done with specific permission of the academic program and direction to the student. When a student repeats a TUC course, the original grade will remain on the transcript but not be included in the computation of the grade point average. The repeated course grade will also appear and it will be computed into the final GPA. Rarely if ever a course may be repeated more than once, in that case then only the most recent course grade will be used when computing the grade point average. All grades will remain on the student’s transcript with suitable notation to ensure an accurate academic record. Credit will be allowed only once for successful completion of the course. There may be special tuition rates that will apply to repeated course work or a repeated term of classes and students must confer with the Bursar staff to review their particular circumstances.

Remediation
In the event of a failed course(s), every effort will be made to give students an opportunity to demonstrate competency in each area of the academic program. However, remediation is to be regarded as a privilege which must be earned by a student through active participation in the educational program as demonstrated by regular attendance, individual initiative and utilization of resources available to him/her. Decisions regarding remediation by the Student Promotion or Academic Standards Committee will be made on an individual basis after considering all pertinent circumstances in each case. Students who do not meet the standards specified for satisfactory academic progress may be given an opportunity to correct their deficiencies in the form of an academic remediation plan as recommended by the Student Promotion or Academic Standards Committee and Program Director or appropriate Associate Dean. The committees make recommendations; final decisions regarding a student’s academic progress will be made by written notification to the student by the academic program dean or designee.

Remediation is an earned opportunity for a student to rectify unsuccessful completion of course work.
An example of a remediation might be the following: In the COM, the student achieves a grade of Pass or higher in the course, but fails one or more subdiscipline(s). When the student successfully remediates, the F/P score will replace the F score in the failed subdiscipline(s) and the original course grade is the course grade. Example two: if the same student in the same college receives a Fail for the course grade, and is allowed to remediate, upon successful completion “F/P” scores will be placed in the successfully remediated subdiscipline(s) and the “F/P” will be the course grade. In order to earn the F/P grade, the remediation has to be completed prior to promotion to the next term.

Elective Courses

An elective course is an institutionally approved series of instructional sessions that are developed outside of the required curriculum and offered by college faculty to currently enrolled students in addition to prescribed courses. Students officially registered in elective courses receive credit commensurate with contact hours, which is included on the student’s permanent record. Student performance is evaluated on a pass/fail basis. Students interested in registering for an elective course should first contact the appropriate academic department offering the course. Procedures for registering for elective courses can be obtained from the Registrar office staff.

Audited Courses

Students who are matriculated in an academic program and would like or are recommended to audit a course(s) (including lectures, labs or other course related activities) must make prior arrangements with the course coordinator and/or academic program administrator. The ability to participate in exams or other assessment activities is at the discretion of the course instructor and is not guaranteed. Certain lecture and lab activities might be designated as not available to unregistered students, and the student may be asked to cease attending the course, at the discretion of the course coordinator. The course coordinator may ask the student to leave from the course for nonattendance or when the presence of unregistered students may disrupt the space or flow of classes and related activities for registered students.

An audited course is defined as the participation of a student in a course for which the student receives no credit or grade. Students interested in auditing a course should first contact the appropriate academic program offering the course. Auditing a course does not qualify the student for federal financial aid.

Time Limit for Completion of Degree

In general the programs adhere to the Department of Education (DOE) timelines which require degree completion within a 150% timeframe from matriculation to degree completion. See specific Academic Program Student Handbooks for detailed information.

Class Attendance Requirements

Students must be currently registered in courses in order to attend classes. A student may not participate as official student representative of Touro University California or attend classes unless they are officially registered for classes. All instructors/professors are responsible for monitoring student’s attendance and reporting all absences to the appropriate Program Director or Dean and the Registrar office staff.

It is expected that students will attend all lectures in the required curriculum, laboratory activities, clinical rotations, elective, and audited courses. Colleges, departments and/or individual courses may establish more specific attendance requirements. Students who must miss laboratory or clerkship sessions should notify the instructor or preceptor as soon as possible prior to the session to allow for any necessary academic accommodations. Failure to attend elective or audited courses and/or laboratories may result in the removal of the elective credit or audit from the student’s record. Absence from any instructional session for any reason does not relieve the student from responsibility for covered material. Chronic unexcused absences may be viewed as violations of the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students, Appendix C. In the case of an excused absence, illness or extenuating circumstance, see the appropriate academic program Student Handbook for specific requirements regarding exam make-up.

For students who do not maintain continuous enrollment or have not attempted to register for a class in the current term, the program will contact/communicate with the student within the first month of the beginning of the semester to determine student status and report that student status to the Registrar.

Jury Duty Summons
From time to time students enrolled in TUC doctoral and master degree programs will receive a summons to serve on Jury Duty. As being called to appear for selection and serving on a jury can have a substantial impact on the academic progress of TUC students, the university wishes to support and assist students to mitigate the impact of this required civic duty. Service on jury duty is a required duty of every citizen in the United States. As such, it is not possible to exempt anyone (including Touro University California students) from jury service; however, it may be possible to delay and schedule service to a more convenient and less impactful time.

Ultimately, it is the responsibility of the student to manage his or her jury duty obligations and academic requirements.

Procedure
1. Any student receiving a jury summons must bring that summons to the Office of the Registrar as soon as they have received the summons.
2. Should any TUC faculty or administrator be approached by a student requesting assistance or excuse for jury service, that faculty member or administrator is to refer the student to the Office of the Registrar.
3. The Registrar, when presented with the original jury summons of any currently enrolled student will provide that student with a written Verification of Enrollment. Students are encouraged to return their jury summons to the court along with the Verification of Enrollment provided by the Registrar and request a hardship deferral. The student will likely be required by the court to provide alternative dates when the student will be available for service, usually within six calendar months. Students are then encouraged to contact the jury coordinator via the telephone number on the jury summons to explain their situation.
4. If requested, the Office of the Registrar or the offices of the Dean or Associate Dean of Student Affairs will assist the student with this process.

Should a student be selected and required to serve on a jury, the university will assist the student with any reasonable academic adjustments or assistance needed to mitigate the effects of such mandatory service. Assistance may include but is not necessarily limited to tutoring ability where possible to postpone assignments and examinations, or, assistance in requesting a Leave of Absence. If the student is seated as a jury member for a lengthy trial, that student may need to request an official Leave of Absence.
from the university. To receive assistance in the event Jury Duty service impacts the student’s academic progress, the student must contact the Associate Dean of Student Affairs to request special assistance.

Transcripts

An official TUC transcript may be ordered by students and alumni electronically through a service called parchment; the link to this service is found on the Registrar’s webpage (http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/index.html). There is a $10.00 fee for each official transcript requested. The transcript is official only when it bears the signature of the Registrar and the seal of the university. Official transcript requests are normally processed within 7-10 business days. Processing time may take longer during peak periods such as near the time of graduation audits and clinical application periods; students are encouraged to allow for adequate time frame for delivery of official transcripts. Students should check with the registrar staff if they have specific needs.

Transcripts may be withheld from students who are delinquent in their financial obligations to the university, or any of its affiliated hospitals or clinics. If the university has knowledge that a student or graduate is in default on any federal, state, outside agency institutional loan or service obligation, the university will withhold all official transcripts, verification of training, and letters of recommendations.

Unofficial copies of student transcripts are available electronically through the TouroOne System. Students need to have their student ID number and password to access their TouroOne account.

Name Change

The university utilizes only the student legal name on official student records and will only adjust its records appropriately if a student legally changes his/her name. A student who has a legal change of name must submit, to the Registrar, a completed Request for Changes to Personal Information form and the legal documents (court order, marriage license, etc.) related to the change. All permanent records are changed to conform to the student’s legal name.

Permanent, Local Address, Emergency Contact Information

The Registrar maintains the official permanent address for all enrolled students of Touro University California. Each student has the responsibility to provide the Registrar staff with a permanent mailing address, local mailing address, emergency contact information, personal email address, and telephone number. Students also are expected to furnish the Registrar with their local address and telephone number. Students are required to notify the Registrar staff of any change of address, email address, and/or telephone number within five (5) business days of the change. Complete and submit a contact information update form to the Registrar staff. The form can be downloaded from http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/forms.html. All official university communication with the student is
LEAVE OF ABSENCES

Approved Leave of Absence (LOA)
A Leave Of Absence (LOA) is defined as when a student is officially separated from the institution for a short, defined period of time of more than a semester, but not to exceed a year.

An approved LOA means that the student enrollment will end and will not earn credit for the term therefore the student is no longer eligible for Financial Aid for the time period the student is on leave.

A student may initiate a request for a LOA for a health or other personal issue or may be asked to take a LOA by their academic program through the appropriate professional standing committee.

Regardless of whether the LOA request is self-initiated or the student is asked to initiate a LOA by the academic program, a student must submit a completed LOA request petition to the university registrar staff in order to be considered on an approved separation from the university. The student may petition for a LOA prior to the first day of the next term, or within a term; however, the student must complete the LOA request petition prior to the final week of classes or prior to the final exams for the current term. LOAs are not retroactively approved for a prior term.

The student must follow these steps:

The student must obtain and complete a Leave of Absence Request Form. This can be obtained from the Registrar’s office or on the web at: http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/forms.html.

A student must meet with the Academic Dean or designee (Associate Dean or Director of the Program or Promotions Committee) to discuss the reason(s) for the requested leave and the possible effects on his/her academic program progress.

Once the student has discussed the leave request with her or his academic program administration, and received a signed approval from the academic program, the student must obtain all required signatures from administrative officials in Student Affairs. A student requesting a LOA must consult with Financial Aid and Bursar office staff members about potential impacts on their current and future financial aid and student account status. Students are encouraged to meet in person or at least have a telephone conversation with these departments as their student financial aid and student tuition payments and student account debts are impacted by a LOA. The Registrar staff will review all of the LOA paperwork and send official notification to the student and to the academic program indicating that the official leave of absence process has been completed and whether or not the LOA was officially approved or denied.

The official start date of the LOA will be the effective date listed on the LOA petition, as long as the date is within the term guidelines. Once the registrar staff receive a completed LOA petition, they will note on the student academic record the date of the approved LOA. Any tuition charges or refunds will be done in accordance with the TUC withdrawal policy. For the purposes of financial aid, a student requesting a LOA is reported to the federal aid program as a withdrawn student. The six month grace period on the Student loans will begin as of the LOA effective date. When returning from the LOA, the student will be reported to the federal aid program as enrolled and any student loans will return to a deferred in-school status.

While on an approved leave, the student must notify the appropriate academic program administrator and the registrar’s office staff of any changes in the conditions of the LOA as agreed upon by the petition process. Students who have an academic plan during their leave must adhere to that academic plan. While on LOA students are not covered by TUC health insurance or medical liability insurance and may no longer be able to access TUC resources or services unless approved by their academic program. Additionally, if the student needs to extend the leave, it is the student’s responsibility to make that request to the academic program administrator and the registrar’s staff prior to acting upon the requested changes.

Approved LOA for Students on Clinical Rotations
Students on clinical rotations are expected to abide by all program requirements for attendance and communication with their programs. If a student enrolled for clinical rotations must apply for a LOA, they must do so according to the above stated procedures.

COM students who have completed the didactic portion of the program and who do not pass the COMLEX 1 by the September 1 deadline must apply for a LOA. Students not enrolled in a minimum of 6 graduate credit units for the term, while preparing for the COMLEX, are not entitled to or eligible for financial aid.

Third year COP students who are about to begin clinical rotations and did not pass all requirements, may be required to remediate in the summer by taking an exam or other academic work. Students not enrolled in a minimum of 6 graduate credit units for the term are not entitled to or eligible for financial aid.

Dual Enrollment LOA
DO/PharmD students who are also enrolled in the MPH program are considered dual enrolled students. If a dual enrolled student is approved for a LOA from the COM or COP program, they may choose to continue to enroll in the MPH program with written permission and approval from the MPH program director or Dean and their representative COM/COP Dean or designee.

Required Petition to Return From LOA
To return to classes, the student on an official LOA must communicate in writing with the academic program and the registrar office their intent to return from the LOA a minimum of six weeks prior to the expiration of the LOA. Students must submit a completed petition to return to class and initiate contact with their academic program administrators and any pertinent Student Affairs staff to make any needed plans for their re-entry into the program. Failure to do so may result in an administrative withdrawal from the program and the university.

Once approved to return to the university, academic program administrators will reinstate the student as closely as possible to the previous point of progress in the didactic or clinical experience. The point of entry into an academic program and the order of clinical rotations for the clinical student will be determined by the academic program administrator.

Tuition charges for a student restarting classes or for subsequent academic semesters will be set at the... tuition rates and policies at the time the student returns. The academic program administrators will make every effort to facilitate the re-entry of the student into their programs, but there are no guarantees of class or clinical placements.

Unapproved LOA
A student who leaves the university prior to program completion without completing the official LOA administrative process may not enroll in future terms without petitioning the program. Students who have been absent from their academic program without official approval for one or more semesters may be required to reapply for admission (see Admissions section of catalog). Students who complete a term and then not re-enroll for the next term and do not complete the academic program are considered as being on an unapproved LOA. Students who leave the university without an approved LOA may be administratively withdrawn and/or dismissed by the program according to the academic program procedures and university policy; and this time away will count towards the academic program statute of time limitation for degree completion. Students who have an extended unapproved absence from the university will be required to re-apply for program admission through the normal admissions processes.

Maternity Leave of Absence
Enrolled students who become pregnant may request a maternity leave of absence. The amount of leave time granted depends largely on the personal needs of the student and the timing of the birth within an academic program. Prior to officially requesting a leave, pregnant students should contact the Associate Dean of Student Affairs to discuss how a leave will affect their progress in the academic program and to review available options. A mutual decision should be reached after careful consideration is given to personal and professional circumstances. Students returning from Maternity Leave must provide a medical release from their provider as well as the Petition to Return to Classes Form.

Medical Leave of Absence
In the event that a student must take a Leave of Absence as the result of illness or injury, the same procedures listed above will be followed whenever possible. Special accommodation will be made to initiate a Medical Leave of Absence when circumstances necessitate. In general, Medical Leave of absence may not be longer than one academic year. Longer Medical Leave may require additional consideration by the Dean or Director of the student’s program. Upon return from a Medical Leave the student must provide a medical release from his/her treating physician in addition to the Petition to Return to Classes Form.

Military Leave of Absence
TUC is committed to supporting students called to active military duty. Students called to such duty will be considered on military leave of absence. Students called to active duty should immediately notify the Registrar and provide all pertinent call-up papers.

Students returning to Touro University from active duty will be eligible for reinstatement as full-time Touro University students once they have notified the Registrar and have supplied any pertinent military papers requested by the university.

Students with less than two-thirds of assignments/exams completed in didactic courses will be encouraged to re-start the courses once they return depending on length of leave. Programs, however, will have the prerogative to make special arrangements. Pre-clinical students with less than two-thirds of assignments/exams completed will be encouraged to re-start the courses once they return. Academic programs have the prerogative to determine special arrangements.

Clinical students returning to TUC will be reinstated as closely as possible to the previous point of progress in the clinical experience. The point of entry and order of clinical rotations for the clinical student will be determined by the academic program. No additional tuition will be due from students for the resumption of any “incompletes” for work that they started before leaving for active military duty.

Tuition charges for students restarting classes and for subsequent academic semesters will be set at the tuition rates in effect at the time the student returns from military duty. The academic program will facilitate the re-entry of students into their programs as close as possible to the point at which they were called to active military duty.

Class Rank
Class rankings are usually provided to currently enrolled students in applicable programs (COM/COP) and may be requested from the Registrar either in person or in writing. Class ranking is determined on the basis of the cumulative-weighted average of percentages earned from all completed required courses. Individual course grades are weighted in the formulation relative to course credit hours. Credit hours earned from courses evaluated on a pass/fail basis, including elective courses, are not used in the determination of cumulative-weighted grade point average. Class ranking is calculated once a year at the end of June after the annual commencement ceremony. See the Registrars page for details.

Honors
University honors are awarded to degree candidates in recognition of their academic achievement. The honors distinction is based on the degree candidate’s cumulative grade point average (GPA) which is 3.75 or greater.

For a student to be listed as having honors in the commencement program, the requirements must be met with the cumulative GPA the semester BEFORE graduation. While the number of credit hours earned during the graduation term does not affect the determination of graduation honors for recognition at the commencement ceremony, quality points earned during the graduation term are considered in calculating the final GPA which determines graduation honors.

Please note that candidacy for university honors does not guarantee that honors will be awarded when the degree is conferred. Conversely, a student who did not meet the honors criteria when the graduation audit and evaluation was conducted may still be awarded university honors if the criteria are met when the degree is later conferred.

Graduation
Students must complete all of the requirements of the major, program and the university to be eligible for conferral of the degree. Students must complete all courses required for the major and achieve a minimum of 2.0 GPA; some academic programs require a higher minimum GPA. Students are referred to their academic program student handbook for this information.

To be eligible for graduation, students must apply for graduation by submitting the application directly to the Registrar, by the posted application deadline on the university calendar. The university holds one commencement ceremony a year usually at the end of the spring semester. Degree conferral will appear on graduate transcripts according to the academic calendar dates established annually by the Registrar.
Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) Student Advancement to Candidacy
Upon successful completion of the DNP Project Proposal Defense, students may apply for DNP Candidate status. This application is done through the School of Nursing. The candidacy status does not change the student’s university enrollment status, but will be noted on the transcript.

Graduation Requirements
Students must submit a formal graduation application by the due dates as indicated on the Registrar calendar posted. A degree audit of the student’s academic progress is conducted only after the receipt of the graduation application. Students must complete all requirements as stipulated by their academic program.

Summary of General Graduation Requirements and Steps
To become eligible for graduation from the university, a candidate must:

- Satisfactorily complete a curriculum in the academic program in which he/she is enrolled, including any special requirements established by the academic program and approved by the Academic Standards and Curriculum Committee.
- Achieve a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or “C” average. /GSOE 3.00 or “B” average
- Submit to the program’s Academic Advising Coordinator an application to become a candidate for graduation. The application consists of a form certifying that all requirements except courses in progress have been met.
- Satisfy all past and current financial obligations to the university.
- Participate in the commencement exercise of his/her graduating class unless excused in writing by the Dean or Program Director of the college
- Complete exit interview with Financial Aid staff.

Release of Diplomas
Students who have met all graduation requirements as determined by an audit of their student records will have diplomas sent to the permanent address on file with the Registrar within two to four weeks of graduation. Diplomas will not be released until the Registrar confirms that the graduate has met all academic requirements and that the Bursar confirms that the graduate has paid all tuition, fees and fines. Additionally, if the graduate has participated in federal financial aid programs, the graduate is required by federal regulations to complete some form of exit interview and/or online workshop prior to separation from the university.

Withdrawal Procedures
The decision to withdraw from the university is a serious matter. A student who withdraws from their academic program is also considered to be withdrawn from the university. As such, if the withdrawn student decides at some later date to reenter the program, he/she must reapply for admission and, if accepted, will assume the status of a new student. The student must request approval from the program head, in writing, of the decision to voluntarily withdraw and voluntarily relinquish his/her position in the program. If the request is approved, an official withdrawal form is obtained from the Registrar. The student must complete the official withdrawal form, obtain all required signatures, and return the form to the Registrar within 10 days of completion.

The withdrawal process includes the clearing of all financial obligations to Touro University, completion of all administrative procedures, and completion of an exit interview with the academic program, and/or the College Dean. If the withdrawal is granted, the student receives one of the following grades for current classes: W (withdrew) or WU (withdrew unsatisfactory). “W” is defined as withdrawal in good academic standing. “WU” is defined as withdrawal not in good academic standing.

Students contemplating withdrawal are advised to discuss this issue with their faculty advisor. Students considering withdrawal are subject to the policies governing withdrawal from the university. Students should be aware that withdrawal from a course may result in a significant extension of the student’s professional program. Before withdrawing, students should discuss the issue with their faculty advisor, Program Director, or Associate Dean, and the College Dean.

Withdrawals must be completed prior to the start of the next term or within a term and cannot be retroactive. If a student is not registered and/or not attending classes in the current semester, and he or she has not contacted the program to declare their intentions to continue with the program within two weeks of the start of classes for the current semester, then the program will notify the Office of the Registrar and the Registrar will send a certified notification to the student that they will be administratively withdrawn from the program and university with an effective date. Students will not be allowed to resume the program after missing the first two weeks of classes, unless there are any extenuating circumstances or excused absence. Students assume responsibility for any financial and academic consequences ensuing from being administratively withdrawn from the program.

Dual Enrollment/Joint Program Withdrawal

If the student is officially enrolled simultaneously in two academic programs (dual enrollment), the student who may no longer be eligible to continue in one program and who is withdrawn may opt to seek official approval to continue as a non-dual degree seeking student in the second academic program. For example, if a dual enrolled COM/MPH or COP/MPH student is no longer enrolled as a COM or COP student, they may petition the MPH program to complete the MPH degree. The permission to continue in the second degree program is not assumed. Students must seek official approval to continue in the second degree program.
Please note that this process is especially critical to students who are enrolled in the joint MSPAS/MPH program. In all cases, students who have been admitted into more than one degree program or into the MSPAS/MPH joint program and seek to withdraw from one of the programs, must seek official approval to continue in only one of the remaining degree programs.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

Suspension
A suspension is for a defined period of time during which the student is temporarily separated from the university due to academic and/or conduct issues. Suspension status means that the student is not due the normal privileges of being a student in good standing. During this period of temporary loss of student status, the student is separated from university premises and all university sponsored/affiliated events and activities for a designated period of time. The duration of the suspension is under the purview of the academic program and/or the Provost or designee. Upon termination of the suspension period, the student is eligible to petition to resume with his/her course of study. A student who has been suspended must complete the TUC Leave of Absence Form.

Expulsion
The sanction of expulsion represents the most severe response by the university to violations of the student code of responsibilities and rights. This sanction is a permanent separation of the student from the university prior to degree completion and conferral. A student who is expelled will not be eligible to receive an academic degree from Touro University California at any time. The university may withhold the awarding of a degree pending the outcome of the student discipline process for a violation of the Student Code of Responsibilities & Rights that does, or would have the potential to, result in the sanction of Expulsion.

A student who is expelled is prohibited from all university premises, and from attending university sponsored/affiliated events and activities. The sanction of Expulsion is noted on the student’s academic transcript. Expulsion is a determination by the university that the student has demonstrated by his/her conduct and/or academic performance that he/she is unqualified to continue as a member of the university community.

CREDIT HOURS

Touro University California generally follows the Carnegie unit formula for defining and assigning semester credit units. Specifically, fifty minutes to one hour of instructional contact in lecture, or two hours of laboratory instructional contact, per week equals one credit hour each. Semester hours translated into contact hours are calculated based on 15 weeks per semester:

Given that the Carnegie unit does not account for hybrid courses and distance learning instructional methods, nor with some of the learning activities associated with the number of hours of laboratory or practice session or clinical rotation, the course unit calculation does vary by college. The traditional formulae noted below are modified dependent upon the course.

\[ 1 \text{ contact hour} \times 15 \text{ weeks} = 15 \text{ contact hours} = 1 \text{ unit of credit} \]
Academic Regulations & Policies

2 contact hours x 15 weeks = 30 contact hours = 2 units of credit

3 contact hours x 15 weeks = 45 contact hours = 3 units of credit

And for clinical rotations, 1 week of assignment = 1.5 units of credit

Each College has a curriculum development and review process that includes at least an annual review of the credit value assigned to each course. The College Dean or designee communicates any credit hour changes to the Office of the Registrar using the Course Schedule Update Form required of each program prior to student registration.

GRADES

The university uses grading systems: a percentage based grading system and a Pass/No Pass system. The Pass/No Pass system is being implemented starting with the 2019 fall term for all first year COM students and will continue through their tenure.

Note: See chart below for how the percentages are translated into points and letter grade equivalents. The grade point average (GPA) is only used for determination of class rank. The Pass/No Pass system does not produce GPA points so class rank cannot be calculated by the Registrar.

Final grades are due from the instructor and entered into the university student information system within fourteen (14) calendar days of the last official day of the semester of the school or program or seven (7) calendar days following a final exam.

Definition of Grades:

Satisfactory “(A, B, C)”

A 70% or above is considered a satisfactory grade. The various programs / colleges may have defined 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA to receive their degree.
Unsatisfactory “(U)”
Less than 70% is considered an unsatisfactory grade.

Unsatisfactory with remediation “(U/P)”
After an unsatisfactory performance has been successfully remediated, a “(U/P)” will replace the “(U)” on the transcript.

Incomplete “(INC)”
An “INC” grade is intended to be an interim course mark. It is to be used only if a student has satisfactorily (hereby defined as a 70% average or better) completed at least 75% of the course requirements, and there is an excusable and acceptable reason for the student not having completed all requirements prior to grade reporting time. With the awarding of the grade “INC” the instructor must include information (on the Grade Reporting Form) as to the specific requirements the student must meet in order to convert the “INC” into a permanent grade.

An incomplete cannot be utilized for all classes in a term. Dropping all classes demands a Withdrawal or Leave of Absence.

Students may obtain credit for courses in which their marks are “Incomplete” only by completing the work of the course in a satisfactory manner. The incomplete grade must be converted into a grade within one year of the date the “INC” is originally awarded or the end of the next term that course is offered. If this is not done, the INC grade in the course automatically and permanently becomes a failure (“U”). The grade of “INC” - Incomplete - shall be neutral in the calculation of the grade point average; however, an incomplete grade may have an impact of the student’s ability to receive future financial aid.

SPECIAL NOTE: All incomplete grades for graduating seniors must be removed by October 1 for December graduates, April 1 for May or June graduates.

Withdrawal “(W)”
A withdrawal indicates that a student has withdrawn from a course in good academic standing. This grade code is used if the student drops prior to the 51% point of a term. A “W” grade can also be assigned by the Dean of a department after that time in special circumstances.

Withdrawal Unsatisfactory “(W/U)”
A withdrawal unsatisfactory indicates that a student has withdrawn from a course not in good academic standing.

Changing of Grades
All course grades (except “INC” grades) are intended to be final and permanent. It is expected that faculty will arrive at and report final grades as accurately and precisely as the nature of the evaluation of student achievement and the grading system will permit.

It is considered the faculty’s direct and professional responsibility to insure that grades are fair and reported correctly the first time. Except for entering a grade for an expired INC, or noting a Withdrawal, the registrar’s staff will only change a grade that was submitted in error and if they have the appropriate documentation of that error.

If an error occurs in the calculation or recording of a grade, the faculty of record will initiate the Change of Grade Form, which must include:

- The student’s name, student ID number, course designation by title, course number, semester, and change desired
- An explanation identifying the person who made the error and explaining the nature of the error
- An explanation of how the new grade was computed

The Change of Grade Form must be endorsed by the department program director and/or the dean, and then must be forwarded to the Registrar for final approval and electronic notation of grade earned. The Change of Grade Form cannot be used to add a class after the end of the term.

Note: Requests for “INC” grade changes must be made by faculty members directly to the Registrar staff on the official forms provided for that purpose.

Grade Appeal Process

Once final grades have been submitted, a failing course grade may be changed only by the course faculty. The grade appeals process varies according to a student’s academic program. Students must see their academic program handbook for details. Decision of the course faculty will be communicated to the Registrar in writing within two instructional days of when the appeal was approved.

Academic Progress and Disciplinary Actions

Students must meet the minimum standards and requirements set by the institution in order to remain in good academic standing. Students will be placed on academic probation if they receive a grade of unsatisfactory in any course or clerkship, fail to successfully complete licensure boards and/or fail to meet the minimal cumulative weighted academic requirements. A student will be removed from academic probation only after successfully remediating the course or clerkship, achieving the minimal cumulative weighted academic requirements and successfully completing licensure exams. Students who are directed to repeat a year of curriculum for academic reasons remain on academic probation until successful completion of all courses scheduled within that next academic year.

When a student is placed on academic probation, it is noted in the student’s academic file and official transcript. Subsequently, when a student has successfully satisfied the requirements of probation, the date of removal from academic probation is noted on the transcript.

When a student is placed on academic probation, the appropriate Associate Dean or Program Director will notify the student in writing, including the reasons for probation. When the terms of academic probation have been satisfied the Program Director or Associate Dean will provide a letter to the student indicating that probation has been rescinded.

A student on academic probation may not serve as an officer of any official university club or organization and may not participate in any organized non-class trip off campus, or represent the university publicly. A student on academic probation may not serve as a representative of the College in the operations of the Admissions Office or on university committees. A student on academic probation may not serve as a representative of the College at off-campus conferences or sponsored events.

Please note that individual programs may have more restrictive criteria for extracurricular participation. Where the programmatic criteria are more restrictive they will be detailed in the program’s student handbook. In such cases students will be held to the programmatic standards.

Academic Suspension
A student who has been placed on academic probation and fails to acquire the minimum cumulative GPA based on programmatic and university Satisfactory Academic Progress standards at the end of the two-semester grace period will automatically be suspended. Temporary academic suspension will result in the loss of one semester of matriculation. Academic suspension may be followed by readmission on academic probation.

Academic Standing
Academic Standing is an indication of current progress toward completion of degree program. At the end of each semester, the student’s academic progress is calculated. This calculation is based on the proportion of units passed or cumulative number of failures together with the student’s Academic Standing at the end of the previous semester.

Academic Standing is determined by two factors:
- Academic Standing at the end of the previous semester, and
- Academic achievement in the current semester.

Academic Standing alerts students and the academic program as early as possible to any problem that may prevent a student graduating in minimum time, or (in more extreme cases) that may prevent graduation at all. With early intervention, the more serious consequences of continued poor performance may be prevented.

All students begin with GOOD academic standing, but continued poor progress can result in a classification of poor academic standing with its own implications for student progress toward completion of the Academic Program.

What is Academic Progress?
Academic progress is defined as a student’s progress towards successful completion of the academic requirements of the course in which they are enrolled. What this means in practice is that students will need to pass the units required for them to complete their course, academic program within a reasonable timeframe.

Every semester the university monitors each student’s academic progress to ensure that they are making satisfactory progress towards completing their degree. Monitoring academic progress provides the university an opportunity to provide targeted advice, referral or assistance to students who are having difficulties.

What is Unsatisfactory Academic Progress?
Unsatisfactory academic progress is defined as follows:
- Failure of a course
- Failure of required standardized third party exams, e.g. COMLEX
- Falling below the required GPA for the students’ academic program
Academic Regulations & Policies

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress also includes failure to progress successfully through the curriculum. The university recommends that students seek assistance early; for example, when/if students are struggling with an assessment or have failed an assignment, standardized third party (e.g. COMLEX) exam, they must contact their Student Promotion Program and or Academic Standards Committee, Adviser, Department Chair or Dean.

Student Promotion/Academic Standards Committees (SPCs)
The SPCs are charged with evaluating, recommending and implementing academic standards and assessing the progress of each student to graduation. Students who attain satisfactory academic and professional progress are promoted to the next academic year, provided all tuition and fees have been paid. The committee(s) will meet to review each student who has failed a course, a clinical clerkship, or licensing boards, fails to meet the overall academic standards, fails to show satisfactory academic progress, fails to meet graduation requirements, or fails to meet professional standards. After a thorough review of student performance the committee recommends an action to the program director, a member of the committee, or the appropriate dean.

The committee may recommend actions including, but not limited to, promotion, dismissal, academic probation, deceleration, or remediation of a course or term of study. The program director, if not a member of the committee, or appropriate dean has the authority to accept or modify their recommendations. Each academic program has specific academic guidelines each student must read and be aware of their academic program SPC processes.

Academic Appeal Process

Following written notification [electronic or certified letter] of a decision for dismissal, a student may appeal the decision. Student has seven working days within which to submit a formal written appeal of the decision to the College Dean or designee. The appeal request must be submitted in writing and delivered to the Office of the Dean within this seven day period. The request should be accompanied by a narrative explaining the basis for the appeal. The narrative should fully explain his/her situation and substantiate the reason(s) for advocating a reversal of the dismissal. All documentation supporting the appeal must also be included and submitted with the appeal. Only the narrative and supporting documentation included in the appeal submission will be considered.

The Dean may grant an appeal only on one of the following grounds:
- Bias of one or more of the members of the Student Promotion/Academic Standards Committee
- New material; documented information not available to the committee at the time of its initial decision
- Procedural error

The Dean or designee may choose any of the following options when considering an appeal to dismiss a student:
- Concur with the recommendation of the Student Promotion/Academic Standards Committee and the decision to dismiss
- Amend the recommendation of the Student Promotion/Academic Standards Committee
- Convene an ad hoc committee consisting of three members to review the recommendation of the Student Promotion Committee. The ad-hoc committee will present their findings to the Dean for consideration.

The decision of the Dean is final and he/she is required to notify the student in writing of the decision. While the appeal is pending, the status of the student is not altered.
STUDENT RECORDS
Disclosure and Access to Records
Students who are currently or have been previously enrolled at the institution have the right to inspect and review certain educational records and to withhold from release certain personally identifiable information in accordance with the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974.

This policy regarding student access to educational records does not include the right to review such items as confidential letters and statements of recommendation if the student has waived the right to inspect and review those recommendations. The university may designate types of student data as Student Directory Information that can be distributed without prior written permission from the student (see below). Unless otherwise instructed by the student, the university will distribute directory information.

Disclosure of Student Directory Information
The university designates the following personally identifiable items as Student Directory Information: Student name, address, telephone number, email address, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, most recent previous school attended and photograph. The university may disclose any of those items listed above as public information without prior written consent, unless notified in writing to the contrary by December 31 of each academic year. Other confidential personal information not listed above as Student Directory Information may not be disclosed to third parties without the prior written consent of the student, except under certain circumstances. These exceptions include, but are not limited to, disclosure to institutional officials performing assigned duties related to the educational or accreditation interests of the university, agencies verifying the financial aid status of the student, parties involved in health or safety emergencies related to the student or others, and certain law enforcement, legal or judicial authorities.

Procedure for Disclosure and Access to Student Records
Disclosure and access to a student’s educational records may be requested through institutional policy as follows: A student desiring to inspect and review his or her records must submit a written request directly to the person in charge of the desired records (see below). The request will be granted within a reasonable time period, not to exceed 45 days. Inspection of records is made in front of the administrator or designee responsible for maintaining the records.

Academic Records
Student academic records are maintained by the Office of the Registrar and include a summary of all required and elective courses and grades. Students may access and inspect their records by making an appointment with the Registrar’s Office.

Admission Records
See Admissions Policies for complete Admissions Record keeping procedures

Disciplinary Records
Disciplinary files are maintained by the Associate Dean of Student Affairs in a confidential, secured area. Contact the Associate Dean or the Dean of Student Affairs for record inspection.
Medical Records and Immunization Record Keeping
Student medical files are maintained separately from the other student health records and files in the Student Health Center (SHC). The SHC keeps student medical records in accordance with standard HIPAA guidelines. Students may contact the Student Health Services Director to inspection their TUC medical and immunization records. The university keeps student immunization documentation on file in the Student Health Center utilizing the E-value system.

See Appendix B for additional FERPA details and information on the Guidelines for Access to and Disclosure of Educational Records Maintained by Touro University California.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (Academic)

Note: Financial Aid recipient must also be aware of and abide by Financial Aid Academic Progress regulations.

Touro University has established specific guidelines for satisfactory academic progress for students enrolled in each of the academic programs of study. Those specific policies may be found in the program handbooks.

The standards of satisfactory academic progress measure a student’s performance in three areas:
1. Cumulative grade point average.
2. Completion rate based on total credit hours completed compared to total credit hours attempted.
3. Maximum time frame for program completion.

Academic progress is reviewed at the end of each semester/trimester. Students who fail to maintain satisfactory academic progress at the conclusion of any semester/trimester may be placed on probation, on suspension, or dismissed. A student’s failure to maintain established academic standards of the program may also result in the cancellation of financial aid eligibility.

This satisfactory academic progress policy applies to all semesters/trimesters of enrollment at Touro University, regardless of whether financial aid is awarded.

Satisfactory Progress and Veterans Benefits

Many programs of educational assistance benefits are available to those who have served in the active military, naval or air service and to their dependents. Detailed information on all veterans’ benefits can be obtained from offices of the Veterans Administration.

Official copies of ALL academic transcripts reflecting previously earned college credit and military coursework must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar by all students receiving financial assistance from the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA) for review and verification. Where applicable, based on the decision of the academic program credit will be granted for previous coursework. The DVA will not pay for a matching course previously taken.

The standards of academic progress for students receiving educational benefits through the Veteran’s Administration are the same as for all students.
Academic Probation
Students must meet the minimum standards and requirements set by the academic program and the university in order to remain in good academic standing. Students will be placed on academic probation if they receive a grade of Unsatisfactory in any course or clerkship, fail to successfully complete licensure boards and/or fail to meet the minimal cumulative weighted academic requirements. A student will be removed from academic probation only after successfully remediating the course or clerkship, achieving the minimal cumulative weighted academic requirements and successfully completing licensure exams. Students who are directed to repeat a year of their curriculum for academic reasons remain on academic probation until successful completion of all courses scheduled within that academic year.

Terms of Probation
When a student is placed on academic probation, it is noted in the student’s academic file and official transcript. Subsequently, when a student has successfully satisfied the requirements of probation, the transcript is modified to note the date removed from academic probation, but the academic probation status remains a permanent part of the university held student academic records and is noted in the student’s file and transcript.

When a student is placed on academic probation, the appropriate dean or academic program designee notifies the Registrar office staff and the student in writing, including the reasons for probation and any required remediation steps. When the terms of academic probation have been satisfied the dean, or academic program designee will provide a letter to the Registrar and the student indicating that the terms of the probation period have been met and the student is no longer on academic probation.

A student on academic probation may not serve as an officer of any official university club or organization. A student on academic probation may not serve as a representative of the college in the operations of the Admissions office or on university committees. A student on academic probation may not serve as a representative of the college or university at off-campus conferences or sponsored events.

BURSAR
The function of the Bursar’s Office is to manage student accounts and collect tuition and fees from students on behalf of the university. The Bursar’s office staff receives and disburses the federal and private loans students are awarded through the financial aid office. The Bursar’s staff process refund checks for students who receive funds in excess of their tuition and fees to cover their living expenses while attending the university. Additionally, the Bursar can develop payment plans with students who are having financial difficulty meeting their financial obligations to the university.

Bursar office hours are generally Mondays through Thursdays 8:00AM – 5:00PM and Fridays 8:00AM – 3PM. Students are advised to pay attention to the university holiday schedule.

Students must pay for student health insurance (or have an approved waiver) and pay for all of the fees associated with being an enrolled student.

Withdrawing from One or More Classes
Students dropping courses before classes began, student is not financially liable for this course.

Please note When a Title IV funds recipient withdraws from school, federal regulations require that federal funds be returned to the lender on a pro-rata basis up to the 60% point of the term or semester. This required loan refund may leave the student with a balance to TUC. This is more likely to be the case if the student has already received a refund of their prior credit balance for living expenses for that semester.

The withdrawal date is the date that the Dean of Students receives written notice of withdrawal, i.e., a completed Official Withdrawal Form. In cases of academic dismissal, tuition paid in advance for the term immediately following the dismissal date will be 100% refundable.

Withdraw Notes
If a student withdraws from the program prior to the full refund date, the student will be fully refunded AND/OR the loan will be fully returned to the lender, OR the Title IV funds will be returned less what the student has kept. The student remains fully responsible for the funds that were distributed to them even if the student did not complete the term, and must repay that loan under their student loan terms. Under this circumstance, the student would pay the full tuition for the next term.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Student Financial Aid
Touro University California participates in financial assistance programs to help students fund their educational goals. TUC financial assistance programs receive funds from federal, state, and private sources, some of which may include: Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loans, Federal Graduate PLUS Loans, Private Alternative Loans, Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program, Air Force...
Health Professions Scholarship Program, Navy Health Professions Scholarship Program, Veterans Administration Benefits, and Federal Work-Study Program.

Furthering education is a financial investment in the future. Students need to take the time to fully understand, evaluate, and educate themselves on the financial obligations they are undertaking. Making educated decisions in terms of financing education will help prepare students for other financial matters in life.

The financial aid funds that a student will receive while in attendance at TUC are primarily student loans, some of which are credit based (Federal Graduate PLUS and Private Alternative Loans). In order to have the lowest level of indebtedness as possible, TUC encourages students to budget carefully and borrow conservatively as well as investigate private resources for possible grants and scholarships. Private resources include religious organizations, professional associations and other organizations with which students or family members are currently affiliated, as well as scholarship search sites. Eligibility for financial assistance is determined by means of a federally recognized Needs Analysis System. The Needs Analysis System reviews and evaluates information reported on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and determines the amount of personal resources a student may have available to use towards educational expenses. If resources are less than expenses, students are considered to have financial need and may be eligible for need based financial aid funds such as Federal Work-Study. The above is based on the premise that students will submit all required documentation on time to the Financial Aid Director and that there are financial aid funds available at the time the application is reviewed.

The Touro University California financial aid philosophy assumes that all students should be prepared and willing to provide some of the financial resources needed during their enrollment. Students may do this by providing funds to cover their living expenses (rent, food, utilities, and transportation). If necessary, students may apply for credit based Federal Graduate PLUS Loans or Private Alternative Loans to help with living expenses and any remaining tuition and fees due.

Note: For students receiving financial assistance from the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA), official copies of ALL academic transcripts reflecting previously earned college credit must be submitted to the Registrar for review and verification. Where applicable, based on the decision of the academic program, credit will be granted for previous coursework. The DVA will not pay for a matching course previously taken.

Financial Aid Office Hours
Financial Aid is generally open Monday through Thursday 7:30AM – 5:30PM; Fridays 8:00AM – 3:00PM. Students and visitors are encouraged to verify availability of extended hours prior to arrival as this schedule may be affected by holidays, illness, vacations or periods when classes are not in session. Financial aid staff has an open door policy. Students wishing to speak with the Financial Aid Director are encouraged to make an appointment or stop by with questions or if they need assistance. Walk-in appointments are accepted as time permits. See http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/index.html for more information.

Financial Aid Website
Further details on the financial aid process can be found on the Financial Aid page of the Touro University California website at: http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/

Touro University Financial Aid Handbook, Financial Aid Forms, and Cost of Attendance from each program are posted on the website. Helpful Web Links are available on topics such as Work Study, Scholarships, Application Process, and Cost of Attendance.

Types of Loans Available
- Unsubsidized Direct Loan - Some programs are capped at $20,500 in annual borrowing amounts. Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine and Doctors of Pharmacy have higher amounts depending on the number of months in their award year each year. Contact financial aid for more information or view the Cost of Attendance sheet for your program available at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/cost.htm.
- Graduate Plus Loan - students may borrow up to remaining Cost of Attendance
- Alternative Private Loans up to remaining Cost of Attendance
- Interest begins to accrue when funds disburse and will continue for the life of the loan. Loan interest for Federal Loans is capitalized 6 months after a student drops below 6 credit hours.

The maximum aggregate amounts students can borrow unsubsidized loan program is $224,000 for College of Osteopathic Medicine and Doctor of Pharmacy. The aggregate for all other graduate programs is $138,500.

The loans are disbursed each academic term in equal payments, e.g. one payment for summer, fall and a final payment in spring for each award year. Loan payments are applied first to tuition, then fees an unpaid fines within the award year if a credit balance exists on the student account the Bursar staff issues a refund. If students paid tuition and fees using a credit card prior to Financial Aid disbursement, and do not want their federal financial aid to be applied to their original method of payment, e.g. credit card, then students must request their refund to be made with a check or debit card.

Federal Work-Study Program
The purpose of the Federal Work-Study Program is to stimulate and promote part-time employment for those students with great financial need. Part-time positions available through the Federal Work-Study Program may involve work at the university or in a public or private non-profit organization. Students may work no more 20 hours per week during fall and spring terms and up to 30 hours per week during the summer term. The Federal Work-Study program is a need based program. Therefore, eligibility should be reviewed and approved by the financial aid office prior to submitting required paperwork.
Tuition and Financial Assistance

The current minimum pay rate for Federal Work-Study positions at Touro University is $15.00 per hour and students are paid according to established payroll procedures. The university reserves the right to adjust the pay scale at any time without prior notification. Eligibility for the university Work-Study Program is determined by TUC’s Financial Aid Office.

Financial Aid Professional Judgement
The Higher Education Act (HEA) Section 479(a) provides authority for the financial aid administrator to exercise discretion in a number of areas. This authority allows the aid administrator to treat a student individually when the student has special or extenuating circumstances that are not sufficiently addressed by a standard approach or the institutions’ verification procedures. Professional judgment may also be exercised when a student cost of attendance doesn’t reflect the individual student’s situation. Only specific area under specific circumstance may be addressed. Professional judgment is administered on a case-by-case, in response to an examination of a student’s particular situation. Across the board changes are not permitted, nor may aid administrators substitute data elements for a group of students when the substitution is not necessarily based on special circumstances. The Touro University California the Director of Financial Aid completes the professional judgment

Loan Repayment Plan Options
There are several repayment options. The Direct Lending website, www.studentloans.gov will have a calculator so students are able to determine the method of payment that is right for their personal circumstances. Standard: repayment plan is a consistent amount over a period of 10 years.

- Graduated: repayment plan starts with lower payments, and then increases in increments, usually every two years. This repayment plan is also for 10 years.
- Income Sensitive: repayment plan is based on your annual income. As income increases or decreases, so do the payments. The maximum repayment period is 10 years.
- Extended: repayment plan is extended up to 25 years. Students will find that the monthly payment is lower than it would be under the standard plan, but students will ultimately pay more interest as it accumulates for a longer repayment period.
- Income Contingent: Monthly payments are based on annual income, family size and total amount of your student loans. Repayment may extend up to 25 years.
- Income-Based Repayment (IBR): Monthly payment amounts are based on annual income during any period when students have a partial financial hardship. It will be adjusted annually based on reported income and the student may extend the repayment period past the 10 year period. It is generally 15% of discretionary income.
- Pay As You Earn (PAYE): Monthly payments are based on income and the student must have a financial hardship. A partial financial hardship is when the monthly amount the student would be required to pay on eligible federal student loans under a 10 year Standard Repayment Plan is higher than the monthly amount the student would be required to repay under Pay As You Earn. The payment amount may increase or decrease annually based on income and family size. It is generally 10% of your discretionary income.
- Revised Pay As You Earn (REPAYE): With the REPAYE program, payments are capped at 10 percent of your discretionary income. If your monthly payment is so low that is doesn’t cover the monthly interest charges, any excess interest on subsidized loans will be paid by the Department of Education (ED) for up to three years. After that time period, ED will cover 50 percent of unpaid interest. Your descretionary income is calculated using your adjusted gross income minus 150 percent of the state poverty guideline for your family size.

Financial Aid Basics
In order to be eligible for financial aid, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) found online at www.fafsa.gov. You can also use the myFederalAid App. To apply for financial aid, simply follow the steps on our website at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/applicationprocess.html. To complete the FAFSA, students will need to apply for a FSA ID also available at www.fafsa.gov. The Federal school code for Touro University, which is required for completing the FAFSA, is 041426. Students may complete the FAFSA immediately, even before they receive an admission decision however, students should use the IRS data retrieval tool when offered. In addition to completing the FAFSA, applicants must also complete the entrance counseling at www.studentloans.gov.

All the needed forms can be downloaded directly from the TouroOne porta. Financial aid awards at the beginning of the academic year; however, TUC students may still apply at any point in a term for financial aid next semester. The TUC federal aid year runs summer through spring.

Students will also need to complete Master Promissory Note (MPN) at www.studentloans.gov. Or if students prefer an alternative loan, select a lender that participates in educational loans. You can find some suggestions on our website at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/otherfinancing.html.

Once the application process is complete, federal loan funds will disburse to the student’s TouroOne account. Funds will first be applied to cover tuition and fees. The Bursar staff issues a refund if a credit balance exists. Students direct unsubsidized and GRAD PLUS funds will be sent electronically to the university and then credited to students account. Once the university receives the funds, it takes no more than 14 days to issue a refund if a credit balance has occurred. Refund checks are picked up in the Office of the Bursar. Students may apply for direct deposit through TouroOne on the Financial Services tab by selecting the TouchNet icon.

Students must be enrolled in at least 6 credits applicable toward their degree and maintain satisfactory academic progress to qualify for financial aid.

New students must sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN) at www.studentloans.gov in order for the Direct Loans and GRAD PLUS loan funds to disburse. The (MPN) is valid for ten years and only needs to be signed once while attending Touro University California. You can complete the MPN at www.studentloans.gov.

Students who have been awarded Federal Work Study, are encouraged to review possible job openings at, at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/workstudy.html. We encourage new students to wait until after their first exam to determine their availability to work and study. The most common opportunities are with the library, academic support, IT department, and research assistants.

Students are highly recommended to apply for as many scholarships opportunities as possible each year. They are not only a great way to help reduce loan debt, but it also helps enhance a student’s resume.

Please see the extensive list of opportunities on the Financial Aid website at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/scholarships.html. Financial Aid staff will use the official Touro email address to notify students of scholarship opportunities as the year progresses.

Students must re-apply each year for financial aid. This should be done as soon as possible after the
Tuition and Financial Assistance

October 1st opening time frame. Make sure to select the TUC institutional code, 041426. Federal Work Study funds may run out early, so priority is given to those who apply on time.

Important Financial Aid Terms

• Default: Failure to repay a student loan according to the terms agreed to at the time the promissory note was signed. The school, lender, State and the Federal Government may all take action against a defaulted student in order to recover lost money.

• Entrance Counseling: A counseling session will be required of all first time borrowers at the time they apply for a Direct Loan, advising them of their obligations, rights and responsibilities as borrowers.

• Exit Counseling: An online counseling session borrowers must attend before leaving school or dropping below half-time. At this session, the school will give the borrower information on the amount owed, the amount of monthly repayment, and information regarding deferment, refinancing and loan consolidation options.

• Financial Need: The difference between the cost of attendance (tuition, fees, room, board, books and other related expenses) and the amount the student and his/her family can afford to pay as determined by federal prescribed formulas used to calculated need from information reported on the FAFSA.

• Master Promissory Note (MPN): A legal document signed by a borrower at the time he/she applies for a student loan. It lists the conditions under which the borrowing takes place and the terms under which the borrower agrees to pay back the loan.

• Statement of Registration Status: A student who is required to register with the Selective Service must sign a statement indicating he has done so before he can receive any Federal Student Aid. This requirement applies to males who were born on or after January 1, 1960, are at least 18 years of age, are citizens or eligible non-citizens, and are not currently on active duty in the Armed Forces. (Citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific (Palau) are exempt from registering.)

• Alternative or Private Loans: There are private educational loan programs that provide an affordable, effective solution to the financing needs of healthcare students. These loans are non-need based; however, the student must demonstrate credit worthiness. The loan amounts, repayment periods, as well as rates and fees vary. For additional information about the various loan sources, contact the Financial Aid staff or visit the financial aid website.

Federal Graduate Plus Loans

The Federal Graduate PLUS loan can be used to help bridge the gap between the Federal Direct Loans and the remaining cost of attendance. As part of the grad plus eligibility process students must complete the FAFSA application and utilize their annual Direct Loan eligibility. To receive the grad plus loan students must apply online at www.studentloans.gov. The Grad Plus Loan requires a credit check at the time of application and a determination that the applicant does not have an adverse credit history. Applicants with an adverse credit history may be eligible to obtain approval with a creditworthy endorser. The Graduate PLUS loan is unsubsidized with a fixed interest rate. Interest begins to accrue from the date of disbursement and repayment begins within 60 days of the final disbursement of the loan. Borrowers may receive deferment on payments while enrolled in at least 6 units (half-time) at an eligible school. This loan has a standard repayment term of 10 years and qualifies for the Federal Consolidation Loan program. Other repayment options as noted in the earlier section on repayment plans are also available. See our website for current interest information at http://studentservices.tu.edu/financialaid/
Monitoring Academic Enrollment and Satisfactory Academic Progress
Verification of enrollment will be made prior to all financial aid disbursements, as required by federal law, reasonable standards of satisfactory academic progress for maintaining financial aid eligibility have been established by Touro University for all degree granting programs. These standards apply to all students. The policy and procedure for “Assessing Financial Aid Status” are as follows:

Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)
Federal regulations require that all students receiving financial aid comply with the financial aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy established by the university. Financial Aid refers to all federal, state and local funds administered by the Financial Aid Office.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) ensures students are able to complete their academic program in a timely manner while achieving minimum academic standards. In an age of increasing accountability of the use of federal student aid funds (and other federal and institutional funds), institutions and students must demonstrate financial aid funds are being used to assist students in completing their academic goals in the most efficient way.

The three standards of measurement in assessing satisfactory academic progress are;

1. Cumulative grade point average (Cum GPA). Students are required to maintain a minimum Cum GPA of 2.0 in the College of Osteopathic Medicine, College of Pharmacy and Joint Physician Assistant/Master of Public Health programs. A minimum Cum GPA of 3.0 is required for the Graduate School of Education and the Independent Master of Public Health programs.

2. Pace The minimum pace a student is required to maintain is 66.67% of all cumulative units attempted. Pace is the rate at which a student completes requirements for their educational goal and is calculated by dividing the number of cumulative units passed by the number of cumulative units attempted.

3. Timeframe The maximum timeframe a student is allowed to reach his/her educational objective is 150% of the published length of the student’s declared program. The maximum timeframe includes any transfer units that have been accepted by the university.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) is reviewed and monitored annually after the spring grades have posted. Exceptions to the annual review are students in a one-year program or students who are already on SAP probation. These students are reviewed each semester. A student determined ineligible to receive financial aid for failure to meet the Touro University California’s Satisfactory Academic Progress standards has the right to make a written appeal to the Financial Aid Director and appeals committee. The written appeal will be reviewed by an appointed committee in order to make a determination. The student must be able to demonstrate:

- Their failure to meet the minimum standard was caused by extreme or unusual circumstances beyond his or her control, and
- He or she has resolved the issue(s) that caused the deficit, and;
- The issue(s) will not affect his or her performance in the future.
Tuition and Financial Assistance

Students who receive incomplete grades during a period of probation will have the incomplete grade calculated as a failing grade for purposes of this policy only. This may have the effect of making the student again ineligible for aid. Students who are on Financial Aid SAP are not eligible to participate in work-study. The complete Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy is available in the Financial Aid office and on the Touro University California website at: http://studentservices.tu.edu/resources/docs/financialaid/policiesprocedures/2016-17_satisfactory%20Academic%20Progress%20Policy.doc

SCHOLARSHIPS

Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE)

WICHE scholarships are available to osteopathic medical applicants from Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Washington, and Wyoming. These states may be able to assist students in achieving professional goals through the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education. WICHE’s Professional Student Exchange Program enables students to enroll in out-of-state graduate/professional programs when those fields of study are not available at public institutions in their home state. Home states pay a support fee to the College to help cover the cost of the student’s education for the “normal” length of the program.

Western States students are urged to apply for certification in the program by October 15th of the year preceding anticipated admission.

National Health Service Corps Scholarship Program

The NHSC SP is a competitive federal program that awards scholarships to students pursuing eligible primary care health professions training leading to:

A degree in osteopathic medicine

A postgraduate degree or postgraduate certificate from a school or program in physician assistant (PA) education specializing in adult medicine, family medicine, geriatrics, pediatrics, psychiatric-mental health, or women’s health. For more information visit: https://nhsc.hrsa.gov/scholarships.

Veterans Benefits

Many programs of educational assistance benefits are available to those who have served in the active military, naval or air service and to their dependents. Detailed information on all veterans’ benefits can be obtained from offices of the Veterans Administration or from the VA website: http://studentservices.tu.edu/registrar/veterans.html. At TUC, the Registrar is the VA certifying official. To be eligible to receive VA benefits, students will need to provide a letter of eligibility and copy of military form 214.
Students receiving educational benefits through the Veteran’s Administration are expected to remain in good academic standing. The Veteran’s Administration has additional terms regarding students not in good academic standing:

1. Probation is defined as a period of time during which the student’s progress will be closely monitored by the Student Promotion Committee and the Program.
2. The period of probation will be a maximum of three (3) consecutive semesters.
3. A student who is placed on probation for more than three (3) consecutive semesters will be ineligible for certification of educational benefits through the Veterans Administration.

Students receiving financial assistance from the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA) must submit official copies of ALL academic transcripts reflecting previously earned college credit to the Registrar, who is the certifying official at Touro University California. Military coursework must be submitted to the Registrar staff for review and verification.

First-time Use of Veteran Benefits
In order to initiate veteran educational benefits, students must turn in the proper paperwork to the Registrar. The Veterans Affairs (VA)—certifying official on the TUC campus must have copies of each of the required forms prior to submitting the request for benefits from the VA. Student enrollment will not be verified if copies of these forms are not submitted to the Registrar.

It is recommended that applications be submitted to the VA office at least two months prior to the start of the proposed term of enrollment. Doing this ensures that the student application is processed in a timely manner and can be approved for benefits when the term starts.

Required Documents:
- Letter of Eligibility from the Department of Veterans Affairs,
- A copy of the DD-214
- TUC request for Veterans Educational benefits.

Where applicable, based on the decision of the academic program, credit may be granted for previous coursework. The DVA will not pay for a matching course previously taken.

The standards of academic progress for students receiving educational benefits through the Veteran’s Administration is as follows

- Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress as defined by respective program
- Students must apply for VA educational benefits each semester with the campus Veterans Certifying Official. At TUC that official is the Registrar
- Probation is defined as a period of time during which the student’s progress will be closely monitored by the Student Promotion Committee and the Dean of Students or designee.
- A student who is placed on probation for more than three (3) consecutive semesters will be ineligible for certification of educational benefits through the Veterans Administration

Principles of Excellence - Executive Order 13607
On April 27, 2012 President Barack Obama signed Executive Order 13607, Establishes the Principles of Excellence for Educational Institutions Serving Service Members, Veterans, Spouses, and Other Family Members, to protect and ensure that Service members, Veterans and their families have access to information which will enable them to make informed decisions concerning the use of their well-earned educational benefits. Touro University California is in agreement with Executive Order 13607 and proudly provides services to active Service members, Veterans and their families.
Tuition and Financial Assistance

Yellow Ribbon Program Participation
TUC in agreement with the Department of Veterans Affairs participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program. As participation in this program TUC agrees to make additional funds available for the students’ educational program. TUC determines the amount of tuition and fees that will be contributed and distributed to eligible students on a first come, first served basis. VA matches that amount and issues payment directly to the institution.

To receive benefits under the Yellow Ribbon Program:
1. Student must be eligible for the minimum benefit rate under the Post-9/11 GI Bill
2. Student must not be on active duty or a spouse using transferred entitlement

Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP) Military Scholarship Program
Each year the United States Military awards scholarships through the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP). HPSP is one option to pay for a graduate Medical or Physician Assistant degree. This program pays for the student’s entire tuition, books and most fees. Additionally the HPSP provides students with a monthly stipend for living expenses while attending TUC.

HPSP Scholarship Eligibility
- Must be a US citizen.
- Conduct a background check & physical exam
- Be under the age of 34.
- Be accepted to one of the aforementioned graduate schools (may apply for scholarship prior to acceptance).
- Must have a competitive GPA above 3.0.

PARKING
Parking on campus is free in unreserved spaces. A parking permit is required and free to students with completed application. Students, faculty, and staff are required to obtain a parking decal for each vehicle they own from the Office of Student Affairs or Human Resources (as appropriate) to park on campus. Faculty and staff receive their permits from Human Resources. Students receive permits from Student Affairs. Vehicles parked without parking decals will be ticketed and fined.

In order to receive a Parking permit a driver must complete an application. All drivers are notified to the fact that there are inherit hazards of driving on Mare Island. These are railroad crossings do not have automatic barricades. When driving in the industrial area there are open dry docks and heavy equipment operating and people should drive with care. This is explained in more detail in the permit application.

Signs are posted at all entrances to the campus stating that permits are required to park on campus. The driver will be issued a hanging permit to be displayed on the rearview mirror. If the driver borrows a car for the day, the driver must contact Campus Security to obtain a temporary pass to be returned to Security when leaving campus. If driver has more than one vehicle each vehicle will require its own permit. Motorcycles are registered using the license plate number but are not issued a permit to be displayed.

There is no charge for a permit. Student permits have an expiration date. Each permit has an assigned number. All lost parking permit can be replaced for a $25.00 fee.

Parking lots are designated as general parking. Anyone with a valid permit is allowed to use the general parking lots. There are designated spots for handicapped, motorcycle and visitor parking. Visitors are assigned a specific date stamped pass for the day. Temporary parking passes may be picked up from Campus Security or from the department or college being visited. The Admission Office secures Temporary Visitor Parking Passes for candidates for the interview day.

Enforcement and Fines
Tickets are issued by Campus Security. Campus Security is responsible for enforcement. Facilities and Campus Security will be responsible for tracking tickets that are issued. Fines will range depending on the infraction. There is a fine of $15.00 for parking in a designated lot without a proper decal or for parking in a space that is not a legal parking space, $25.00 for parking on campus without a permit or in a Red Zone and $100.00 for parking in a handicapped space. In the case of a second occurrence, the fine will double and the third occurrence will result in losing parking privileges on the campus for the remainder of the school year. Students, Faculty and Staff pay fines at the Bursar office at 690 Walnut Avenue. A traffic committee made up of the HR, the Associate Vice President for Administration, a faculty member and a student serve as the appeal process for those wishing to dispute tickets. The committee meets once a month to hear cases.

Vehicle Towing
Vehicles parked illegally are subject to towing. The cost of towing and retrieval of the vehicle is the responsibility of the owner. Touro University assumes neither liability nor responsibility for operational or structural damage incurred as a result of towing or storage of a vehicle in such instances.

Lockers
Upon matriculation, students may register lockers once each academic year for personal use on a first come, first served basis while enrolled at the university. No fee is charged for use of the lockers. Students must provide their own locks. Contact the Office of Student Affairs for locker assignment and registration. Information on the locker registration procedure and forms may also be obtained online at: http://studentservices.tu.edu/other/lockers.html.

Lockers that are not registered may have their locks cut and the contents of the locker may be donated to a charitable organization. All lockers must be cleared at the end of the student’s academic year.

Lockers for students are located in the hallways of Lander Hall. Locker space is limited so students will be asked to share. To obtain and register for a locker please follow the following steps:

1. STUDENTS MUST HAVE A LOCKER BUDDY to register for a locker. This means there must be at least two students sharing one locker.
2. Locate a locker to use
3. Place personal lock on the locker
4. Note the locker number and color (both will be needed to register the locker)
5. Print and complete a Locker Registration Form.
   • This can be found on-line or in the Student Affairs Offices in Suite 200 at 690 Walnut Avenue.
6. Take the form to the Student Affairs Office at 690 Walnut Ave., Suite 200.
7. Students will receive a confirmation email that their locker has been registered.

Lost and Found
The Facilities Department maintains a Lost and Found Service for the university. Lost articles may be claimed from Facilities located in Wilderman Hall during regular business hours or by calling (707) 638-5800. Students are urged to label all books and other personal belongings so that they can be easily identified if turned into the Lost and Found.

Library
The TUC Library is centrally located on the lower level of the campus and often acts as the hub of the university. The Library supports the reference, research and teaching needs of the university’s students, faculty, and staff. The Library occupies about one half of a 15,000+ square foot building and is divided into spatial zones to accommodate different study styles; including a collaborative study area, a silent reading area, and group study rooms with a total seating capacity for 181.

To further accommodate the long study hours of our students, the Library has: nine group study rooms, six ergo-friendly height adjustable desks, one conference room; one computer lab with seventeen computer stations, and three high speed, commercial level copiers/printers/scanners and worktables; a break room equipped with vending machines, sink, microwave, hot/cold water dispenser and a small eating area.

The Library is staffed by four faculty librarians including the library director and one full-time library assistant and 20-25 student assistants. The librarians serve as library and information subject specialists to the different curricular areas of the campus: osteopathic medicine, pharmacy, public health, physician assistants, education, and nursing. Librarians typically provide an orientation to the library as part of the students’ orientation process and offer additional library instruction throughout the academic year in response to curricular needs. Each new student is issued a library card and library barcode that allows students to check-out, print library materials and to access 24/7 all the online library resources from off campus.

The librarians offer group and individual instruction on how to access and utilize the library’s print and electronic resources and have created online research guides to further support utilizing library resources. The library also houses a “reserve” collection; Each semester, in collaboration with each program’s faculty, the library acquires and places on reserve, at least one copy of all required and recommended texts for each class taught that semester either in eBook format when available or in print format.

As a policy, the Library purchases books and journals in electronic format whenever available. For study and research the TUC Library collection includes: nearly 8,400 print monograph and AV materials, over 167,000 online monographs, approximately 400 print journals, approximately 59,000 online journal titles, and nearly 100 databases in the fields of medicine, public health, education, pharmacy, physician assistant studies, and nursing. These resources are easily accessible through links on the Library’s homepage. The Library provides TUC students, faculty and staff with web-based resources via many different portals including: eBook platforms, PubMed, TOXNET, Scopus, EBSCOHost, JStor, ScienceDirect, Ovid, PsycInfo, and ProQuest. These e-resources are also available to students off campus and some are available on mobile devices.

For materials not held or subscribed to by the TUC Library, the Library offers extensive interlibrary loan service through its participation in the National Library of Medicine’s DOCLINE service and OCLC’s WorldShare.

Library Hours

The Library offers extensive hours. Fall and spring semester Library hours, August through May, are Mondays through Fridays 7:30 am – 1 am; Saturdays and Sundays 10 am – 1 am. On Fridays and Saturdays during the Sabbath the library is open for study hall only. The Library has reduced hours in June and July.

Any deviations from these gift guidelines are subject to approval by the TUC Provost/COO prior to the release of the funds.

required by their programs to pay other fees related to background checks and pre-matriculation immunizations. Students are advised to review their academic program student handbook and confer with program administrators if they have any questions.

This fee is charged regardless of Health Insurance status and Academic level in the program. The Student Health fee paid by students covers some post matriculation/pre-clinical rotation (for pre-matriculation immunization information, see Admissions Admitted Students) immunizations at no cost and others at substantially reduced cost. This fee covers the cost of the student’s initial required drug screen test and background check. - Annual Seasonal Influenza Vaccination – No Charge Annually

The current Student Health fee charge is $275 annually please check the SHC website page for additional information

The fee does not cover all lab fees, x-rays, specialist referral, or prescription medication. The student may be responsible for some or all of these costs. Students who use any other healthcare provider will be responsible for the costs of that visit. Whenever possible, students are advised to review what services and lab fees are currently covered by the SHC fee by reviewing the SHC website.

Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP)

The university and clinical sites require documentation of current health insurance coverage. All costs associated with injuries, including needle sticks, or illnesses acquired during clinical training including physician visits, diagnostic tests, treatment, and prophylactic medications or immunization will be incurred by the student. Therefore the university and all clinical sites require that students have current health insurance while enrolled. Students should evaluate their health insurance coverage as hospital treatment and prophylactic medications can be costly.

Students will automatically be enrolled in the Student Health Insurance Program unless a waiver is granted. Each student is required to subscribe to health insurance to cover those rare circumstances where they may become more seriously ill. For students in the Colleges of Health Sciences, Osteopathic Medicine, and Pharmacy, the university provides a mandatory Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP). Each student will be automatically enrolled in this plan during the registration process. The student health insurance fees have been budgeted into financial aid. Students who do not receive financial aid will also be automatically enrolled in the program and student accounts will be charged. Military students will bill the military directly.

Students are allowed to apply for a waiver of this plan upon providing proof of insurance, documentation that this insurance meets the waiver criteria (including the university deductible standard), and submission of this information by the deadline date each new academic year. Applications after the waiver deadline are not accepted. SHIP is currently $410 monthly.

All waiver information and notices are sent to students via their official tu.edu email address. Please see the TUC website for further WAIVER information. Waivers are for one year and new and continuing students must reapply each year for a waiver. If after viewing the website students have additional questions, please contact the Bursar.

If the student’s application for waiver is granted, it is the student’s responsibility to make certain that their individual health insurance policy remains in effect throughout the time that he/she is a Touro University California student. Proof of such coverage is a requirement to matriculate. At the time of registration, if a student does not have such a policy, or they have not been officially waived out of the SHIP, they will be automatically enrolled in and charged for the Touro University Student Health Insurance Plan.

For students in the Graduate School of Education and School of Nursing each student is required to provide their own health insurance to cover those rare circumstances where they may become more seriously ill. Proof of such coverage is a requirement to matriculate. At the time of registration, if a student does not have such a policy, they will be required to purchase a policy provided by an independent agency. It is the student’s responsibility to make certain that this individual health insurance policy remains in effect throughout the time that they are a Touro University California student.

The student has exclusive responsibility for his/her own medical bills. The university assumes no responsibility to seek reductions or waivers. Prior to receipt of a diploma, students must be free from any medical financial responsibility with any of the university’s affiliated hospitals or clinics.

Medical Records and Immunization Record Keeping
Student medical files are maintained separately from the other student health records and files in the Student Health Center (SHC). The SHC keeps student medical records in accordance with standard HIPAA guidelines. Students may contact the Student Health Services Director to inspection their TUC medical and immunization records. Information provided by students at matriculation (e.g., immunization records, emergency medical form, medical history and physical information) is collected and retained by Student Health Center staff. The university keeps student immunization documentation on file in the Student Health Center utilizing the E*Value system and CastleBranch System.

Campus Resources

Touro University California is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities.

The rights of students with disabilities are protected under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). It is the policy of Touro University California to ensure that no otherwise qualified student with a disability is excluded from participation in or subjected to discrimination in, any university program, activity, or event. The university is committed to granting reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. Policies and procedures ensure that students with a disability will not, on the basis of that disability, be denied full and equal access to academic and co-curricular programs or activities or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under programs offered by the university.

It is Touro’s policy that any students with a disability be afforded the same opportunities as every other student within the Touro community. This policy may be utilized when there is a dispute about discrimination, including harassment on the basis of disability, refusal to find a disabled student eligible for academic adjustments and auxiliary aids, denial of a requested prospective reasonable academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, and refusal of a faculty member to implement approved academic adjustments and auxiliary aids. Any adverse treatment in regards to a person’s disability will not be tolerated.

All divisions of Touro University (“Touro”) seek to foster a collegial atmosphere where all qualified students have full access to each of our programs and are nurtured and educated through close faculty-student relationships, student camaraderie, and individualized attention. Adverse treatment of any kind in regards to an individual’s disability, is anathema to Touro’s mission, history, and identity, and will not be tolerated. Touro will endeavor to resolve claims of policy violations in an effective and timely manner. When a violation is found to have occurred Touro will take prompt and effective remedial action.

Those believing that they have been harassed or discriminated against on the basis of their disability should immediately contact the Associate Dean of Students or the Dean of Students. When Touro has notice of the occurrence, Touro will take prompt and effective corrective action reasonably calculated to stop the harassment, prevent its recurrence, and as appropriate, remedy its effects.

Please see Appendix L for the full policy. The full policy may be amended from time to time and is incorporated herein for reference. In the event any inconsistency is found, the full policy posted online governs.

Request for Accommodation Procedures and Information

An application for accommodation of a disability must be made by the student. Verbal disclosure prior to or following admission is not sufficient. Students may apply for special accommodations anytime during their academic curriculum, however, if granted, the accommodation is given only for the academic year in which it is requested. In case of changed circumstances, with respect to any disability, subsequent applications must follow for each academic year the student is requesting accommodations (including request during clinical rotations, clerkships, internships or any other off-campus programs that are part of the students’ required college/program curriculum).

A student requesting an accommodation for a disability under the ADA must meet with the Director of Academic Support. An application for accommodation of a disability can be obtained at that meeting.

Although students can apply for accommodations at any time during their academic program, it is strongly advised that if you are seeking accommodations, you submit your application and all required documentation well in advance.

Documentation of the disability needs to be current (within three years) and once admitted students are asked to provide updated information to the office of academic support services

It is the responsibility of the nursing mother to furnish their own breast pump. It is the responsibility of Touro University California to provide space for lactating mothers. The university will make every effort to provide space for lactation purposes, in close proximity to the nursing mother’s classroom area. Such facilities will be a private space in nature and will contain an outlet and chair. However, due to space limitations, there is no guarantee that the most appropriate space will be as close to the nursing mother’s classroom as desired. Students make an official request for this accommodation to Disability Services. Please see Appendix D for more details on this procedure.

Disability Parking
Students are still required to obtain a student vehicle pass for use of disabled parking.

Temporary Disabilities
Students with temporary disabilities must follow the same procedures stated in the section on disabilities. Temporary parking permits will be issued with an expiration date. Student Affairs staff will determine eligibility and approve temporary disability parking requests and temporary academic accommodations based on the documentation that is provided by the student making the request.

Faculty Mentors/Advisors
Students and faculty work very closely together in the academic arena. This kind of educational interaction permits students to get to know their teachers and vice-versa. Students are encouraged to use the advice, expertise, and support of your programmatically assigned Faculty Advisor/Mentor. At a minimum, the faculty advisor/is an advocate who takes a personal interest in his/her assigned students (clinical departments assume responsibility for advising the students in the clinical years). Students should feel free to contact their faculty advisor/mentor as frequently as necessary for advice, encouragement, or support. Faculty advisors do assume a proactive role and become involved with their students when performance levels fail to meet minimum academic standards.

Peer Tutoring

Touro University California offers students peer tutoring services without charge. Tutoring is available during all academic years and is designed to help students enhance their test taking skills, modify their study habits and/or focus on critical material and content.

Students are eligible to apply to tutor a subject if they are approved by the course coordinator. Students must be able to communicate effectively, have mastered the course material, and be in good academic standing. Tutors who are federal work study eligible will receive $10. - $15 per hour for their services. Student tutors must check eligibility with the financial aid office and register in the Office of Academic Support to be eligible for reimbursement of services.

Initially, students need not be in academic difficulty to request peer tutoring. However, following the first examination, those students who are receiving a grade of less than 80% in a course will be given priority in the program. Applications to tutor and requests for tutoring services are available in the Office Academic Support Services. Students requesting a tutor must be registered in the Office of Academic Support Services in order to receive tutoring services.

The responsibilities of SGA include: collecting and expressing student opinion, dispensing funds for student activities, acting as a liaison for the student body, promoting professional education, supporting club and class activities and working to improve the quality of life for all students at Touro University California.

The Student Government Association (SGA) at Touro invites comments and participation by anyone with ideas to share or concerns to address on issues that impact the quality of the student experience. Recognition of Student Organizations
To ensure that organizations seeking recognition meet the high standards of TUC and its student population, the SGA is responsible for formally recognizing all student organizations. Touro University’s clubs are created by and for students. Each club is required to have a faculty advisor and is eligible to receive SGA funding. The student organizations are open to all students and are intended to serve as forums for support, discussion, education, and fun.

The student clubs on campus generally fall into one of the following categories:

Medical Interest Associations: (i.e. Dermatology Club, Emergency Medical Club, Integrative Medicine Club, Lifestyle Medicine Club, Nutrition Club, Ophthalmology Club, Women’s Health Club, etc.)

Pharmacy Organizations: (e.g. Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy, American College of Clinical Pharmacy, American Pharmacists Association, National Community Pharmacists Association, Chinese/Indian/Latino/Vietnamese Pharmacy Associations, etc.)

Community Service & Volunteer Activities: (e.g. ACOP Pediatrics Club, Dermatology Club, Emergency Medicine Club, Peds Club, Student Run Health Clinic, Teen Life Conference Planning Committee, etc.)
Cultural Groups: (e.g. Spanish Club, etc.)
Special Interest Groups: (e.g. Interprofessional Education, Keystone Club, Photography Club, Public Health Club, Touro Environmental Action Club, etc.)

Sports Groups: (e.g. Badminton Club, Basketball Club, Soccer Club, Softball Club, Table Tennis Club, Volleyball Club etc.)

Student Leader Responsibilities
The students and faculty advisor seeking club recognition must complete a petition for recognition. The petition must include the organization’s name and goals, a proposed charter, the name of faculty advisor, and a list of charter members. A complete copy of a proposed charter or constitution and by-laws document must be attached to the recognition petition.

Student Government Association Club Approval Process
The SGA VP of Student Affairs will review the petition and submit it to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs for approval. Appeal of the decision may be made to the Dean of Student Affairs.

The SGA has the right to annually review the status of any organization. The SGA may require every approved organization to submit an annual report. The SGA has the discretion to hear objections related to the recognized organization and to withdraw recognition for inactive clubs and organizations. The SGA shall ensure that no action shall be taken concerning the student organization’s status unless the organization in question has an opportunity to respond to the charges and to present its side of the issue. The SGA shall ensure that a deactivated club may resubmit its application at any time after agreeing to be an active club that will comply with the SGA reporting requests.

The Associate Dean of Student Affairs or designee will review the petition for each new university organization to ensure proper documentation. The Associate Dean of Student Affairs or designee may consult with the college dean or program director to ensure mission compatibility of the petitioning organization or club.

Official Representation
To ensure that a positive image of Touro University California is maintained, Touro University California students may not officially represent the university and/or its colleges or any institutional committees on any local, state, or national student-oriented organization that is not recognized by Touro University California.

Student Representation on College/University Committees
SGA has the authority to appoint students to serve on appropriate college/university committees. Any full-time student in good academic standing (i.e., not on any form of probation) is qualified to seek appointment or election to serve in a representative capacity on these college/university committees. Interested students must apply by the posted SCA deadlines for consideration. Students who have committee assignments and are placed on academic probation will be required to resign their position and another student will be elected to serve on the committee.
Student Organizations

Student Activities
Social activities and special events are a good way to connect with students across the various university programs and to have a small respite from the rigors of academic demands. Students or student organizations wishing to host events involving extracurricular academic activities, i.e., speakers, mini-courses, drug fairs, or non-credit courses, must have the approval of the organizations faculty advisor, Program Director or College Dean, and the Director of Student Activities.

For information about the policies and procedures and the forms required for activity requests approval, contact Dr. Irene Favreau, the Director of Student Activities.

To provide a mechanism for student groups (organizations, classes, etc.) to have on-campus student events, all student groups seeking to have an on-campus student event must have prior approval of the organizations faculty advisor and the Director of Student Activities. The faculty advisor in consultation with the Director of Student Activities will advise the student organizer of the necessary steps to follow in order to schedule the event. Student groups can obtain a Student Activity Request form from the Director of Student Activities. The Student Activity Request form needs to be completed and submitted at least one month before the on-campus student event is planned to occur. Once the approval has been obtained for the on-campus student event, the Office of Student Affairs will assist the student organization to coordinate the scheduling of the event. Any event sponsored by student groups which violates any of the provisions of the policy on “On-Campus Student Events” will be subject to cancellation or termination.

Calendar
http://studentservices.tu.edu/_resources/doc/otherservies/Master_Calendar.pdf

The Calendar allows observant students, faculty and staff to observe Jewish religious holidays as well as the Sabbath. Following are some useful points of information:

- Touro University’s administrative offices close at 3 p.m. on Friday and on the eve of Jewish holidays.
- There are a number of Jewish holiday “awareness programs” that are celebrated campus-wide, including Rosh Hashanah (Jewish New Year), Chanukah menorah lighting, Purim, and Lag B’omer picnic.
- Other than holiday observances, official campus activities are not scheduled on the Sabbath and Jewish holidays.
- There are various instructional days wherein examinations will not be given in order to accommodate the holiday calendar. All of these observances are noted on the formal Touro University California Master Calendar. http://studentservices.tu.edu/_resources/docs/otherservies/Master_Calendar.pdf
Jewish Life & Campus Life

• Should students have any questions, or are uncertain as to how the Calendar impacts a personal schedule or extracurricular activities, students are encouraged to contact Rabbi Elchonon Tenenbaum
• In keeping with the traditions and values of the university’s heritage and sponsorship, all food served on campus, as well as at university sponsored events, is kosher.
• The campus food service department is under the kosher supervision of Rabbi Aharon Simkin.
• Students, faculty and staff are welcome to bring their own food to campus, but are respectfully requested to observe the rule that non-Kosher food is not permitted at campus food service locations. These areas are clearly marked.

Shabbat Holidays -
Short Explanations
The Jewish day begins in the evening, which is why the Sabbath starts well before sunset on Fridays and concludes about one hour after sunset (nightfall) on Saturdays. This is true for all Jewish holidays and commemorations.

Traditionally Sabbath is observed by attending synagogue services, enjoying meals with family and friends, studying and refraining from work.

Holidays follow the same pattern and observance, to the exclusions of some fast days that commence only at first light in the morning. As with Sabbath all holidays with Sabbath like observances and restrictions, require that all business schools or activities cease a few hours prior to sunset to accommodate travel and preparation.

Restricted activities include all types of vehicular travel, cooking, writing, direct use of electricity and electronic devices – including phones, computer and emails – and any activities that are typically done for weekday work or school.

On fast days, neither food nor drink may be consumed until about one hour after sunset (nightfall).

Jewish Holidays with Shabbat like Restrictions and Early Dismissal Eve
• Rosh Hashanah: Jewish New Year. (Two days)
  Two day solemn festival on which the entire world is judged for the coming year. Start of the high holidays and of ten days devoted to repentance. Extended synagogue services, with the sounding of the Shofar (Rams horn).

• Yom Kippur: Day of Atonement. (One day)

• Shmini Atzeret / Simchat Torah: Rejoice with the Torah. (two days)
  A celebration marking the end of the holiday’s season and the completion of the annual cycle of the weekly Torah readings in the synagogue.
Jewish Life & Campus Life

- Pesach: Passover. (eight days)
  Commemorates the Exodus of the Jewish people from ancient Egypt. Special dietary restrictions begin the morning of the previous day. No food containing fermented grains (Chametz) may be consumed or found on one’s property. Passover is marked by the special home ritual, the Seder, which is conducted on the first two evenings.
- Shavuot: Feast of Weeks.
  Celebrating the giving of the Ten Commandments and the entire Torah on Mt. Sinai. Traditionally dairy foods are eaten during the holiday meals.

Holidays with Limited Restrictions; No Classes Scheduled
- Purim: Commemorates the rescue of the Jewish people in ancient Persia, as recorded in the biblical book of Esther, which is read during synagogue services. Celebrated with feasts and sending of food gifts and giving extra charity to the needy.

Other Holidays with No Restrictions
- Chanukah: Eight days and nights celebrating the rededication of the Second Temple in Jerusalem by the Maccabees following their successful struggle for independence and religious freedom from the Syrians (2nd century BCE) commemorated by lighting candles each evening and eating food baked in oil (latkes and donuts) and playing the Dreidel.
- Tu B’Shvat: New year for trees, celebrated by eating of the seasons new fruit.
- Lag Ba’Omer: Joyful break in the period of semi-mourning commemorating tragedies that occurred between Passover and Shavuot.

Fast Days – No Exams Scheduled

  Commemorates the breach of the walls of Jerusalem by the besieging of the ancient Romans. Start of the three weeks if mourning which leads into:
- Tisha B’av: (Fast of the ninth of Av) no classes day of and evening before.
  Major fast day beginning prior to sunset on the previous day. Anniversary of the destruction of both the first and second Holy Temples in Jerusalem and other Jewish tragedies. Limited restrictions on work, special mourning customs observed.
What is Kosher Food?
The Jewish dietary laws of kosher food (kashrut) have been observed for almost 4,000 years. The laws of kashrut are kept according to commandments received from G-d by the Jewish people through Moses in the Sinai desert. Since then, rabbinical laws were ordained throughout time to elucidate and to serve as additional “safeguards” of these laws received in the Jewish Bible (the Torah). Different communities may abide by some customary variations in the “safeguard laws” of kashrut. In general, the laws of kashrut today can be categorized in several ways:

• Types of animals and animal products that are permitted as food
• Foods that require supervision and certification (i.e., prepared privately or by organizations and companies)
• Foods that do not require kosher certification (e.g., whole fresh fruits, vegetables, grains)
• Types of foods that may not be eaten together (e.g., meat and dairy products)
• Methods of using utensils and machinery/surfaces to prepare kosher food

Kosher Animals and Animal Products
According to the Torah, only animals that both chew their cud and have cleaved hooves are kosher. Among the common meats we eat, this means that beef, sheep, ox, and goat are technically kosher while pork and rabbit are not. Most of our common bird meats sold in the grocery store are kosher, such as chicken, turkey, and quail. The same applies to their eggs. Seafood that possesses both fins and scales is kosher and as a result, kosher seafood excludes all shellfish. Examples of other unkosher seafood: eel, catfish.

Kashrut also involves laws about how kosher animals must be killed, known as shechitah. These are specific rituals mandated for the removal of all blood and for the elimination of unnecessary animal suffering in the process of slaughter.

To ensure that certified kosher meat is purchased for campus events, a butcher/catering company/restaurant must be pre-approved by the campus rabbi.

Other Foods that Require Kosher Certification
Due to the complexities of the modern food industry, most foods that are processed or already prepared in any way must be certified kosher.

• Please contact Rabbi Tenenbaum for Acceptable kosher symbols for other categories of food/drinks/ingredients (like canned fruits vs. other canned goods, other packaged foods, juices, etc.)
All liquids or foods produced from fresh/dried grapes or grape flavoring/additives such as grape juice, wine, jam, candy, and popsicles must be certified:
  • Hard alcoholic drinks like brandy, liquors, and blended whiskeys often possess wine bases.

Foods that Do Not Require Kosher Certification
Some products do not require kosher certification. In general, these are completely unprocessed or prepared (e.g., cut and pre-packaged), whole fresh fruits, vegetables and grains are considered to be naturally kosher and neither meat nor dairy (aka pareve and can be used/eaten together with either meat or dairy products). These foods do not require a kosher certification.

However, many insects that can plague fresh produce and grains are not kosher, requiring thorough washing/scrubbing and checking for removal of any infestations. Some examples are: rice, cauliflower, celery and other leafy vegetables, brussel sprouts, blackberries, and artichokes. In line with the laws of kashrut, the examination of leafy vegetables such as cabbage or spinach should occur leaf by leaf.

Kosher Combination of Foods
According to the laws of kashrut, foods are categorized as: meat, dairy, or pareve (neither meat nor dairy).
Meats include meat, fowl, and any of their food derivatives (e.g., bones, soup). Dairy products include any of those produced from the milk of kosher animals (e.g., cow or goat milk, cheese, creams). Pareve foods by definition contain no meat or dairy derivatives (e.g., eggs, fish, fruit, vegetables, grains, pasta, soft drinks, coffee, and tea).

Meat and dairy products cannot be cooked or served together in the same meal, while pareve foods can be eaten as a part of either meat or dairy meals. However, if a pareve product is cooked or prepared together with meat or dairy foods it becomes either meat or dairy, respectively. Although fish is considered to be pareve, it may not be cooked or eaten together with meat.

Kosher Utensils and Preparation of Food
Kashrut prescribes many intricate laws for preparing kosher food in a kosher facility. For example, cooking utensils and facilities must be kosher, where even separate utensils, appliances, and dishes must be used for meat and dairy foods. For campus events, please consider using campus services for catered foods, or contact the campus rabbi for cooked foods or special food preparations.

Reimbursement Guidelines
The Rabbi must know of the event within the event guideline time frame. Additionally, the Rabbi must approve all food items for the event. Supply all receipts to the Rabbi with the photos of the food item.
The photo of the food must include a visible Kosher symbol.
Approved Kosher Symbols
Kosher food has one of the below symbols under the “good category” on the product packaging. There are more national kosher symbols, these are the most recognized. Contact the Rabbi if there is one not on the list or if there are any questions. Typically the symbols are printed quite small; the symbols below are enlarged for educational purposes.

When a “D” is displayed close to the symbol this represents the fact that the product is Dairy. When purchasing products that are dairy, please ensure there is no usage of any meat products at that event, and vice versa.

Uncut fruits and vegetables are typically kosher. Water without any flavor is Kosher.

Good Kosher Symbols
Look for the following nationally approved kosher symbols when purchasing product

![Approved Kosher Symbols]

Again, when a “D” is displayed close to the symbol, it represents the fact that the product is dairy. This is mainly displayed to help with the meat with milk rule.

Avoid these Kosher Symbols
These symbols should be avoided! An isolated K is not a real kosher symbol. There are other symbols, but they may not necessarily be approved. When in doubt, check with the Rabbi.

![Avoid these Kosher Symbols]

APPENDIX A:
ACCESS TO AND DISCLOSURE OF EDUCATIONAL RECORDS MAINTAINED BY TOURO UNIVERSITY

In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA, formerly known as the Buckley Amendment), the following represent guidelines for access to and disclosure of educational records maintained for students who are or have been in attendance at Touro University.

Touro University California annually informs all students of their educational records privacy choices. FERPA was enacted to protect the privacy and educational rights with respect to student education records.

I. Definitions
As used herein:

1. “University” means Touro University
2. “Directory Information” at Touro University California is designated as the following information relating to a student: The student’s name, address (permanent and present), telephone number, undergraduate institution attended and degree, class level, home state, dates of attendance, tu.edu email address, the most recent previous educational institution attended, majors, degree(s), honors and awards received, photos, classification, club memberships, dates of enrollment, current student status, residency matches, degree(s) conferred, dates of conferral, and graduation distinctions and other similar information.
3. “Disclosure” means permitting access to or the release, transfer or other communication of education records of the student or the personally identifiable information contained therein, orally or in writing or by electronic means, or by any other means to any party.
4. “Education Records” means those records which are directly related to a student and are maintained by the university, or by a party acting for the university, as a part of its official records of a student’s university work. The term does not include:
   a. Records of instructional, supervisory and administrative personnel and educational personnel ancillary thereto, which are in the sole possession of the maker thereof and are not accessible or revealed to any other individual except a substitute (for the purpose of this definition, a “substitute” means an individual who performs on a temporary basis the duties of the individual who makes the record, and does not refer to an individual who permanently succeeds the maker of the record in his or her position);
   b. Records of a law enforcement unit of the university which are maintained apart from educational records solely for law enforcement purposes and are not disclosed to individuals other than law enforcement officials of the same jurisdiction;
   c. Records relating to an individual who is employed by the university which are made and maintained in the normal course of business, relate exclusively to the individual in that individual’s capacity as an employee, and are not for use for any purpose (this sub-paragraph does not apply to records relating to any individual in attendance at the university who is employed as a result of his or her status as a student);
   d. Personal health records of a student, which are created or maintained by a professional acting in his or her professional capacity, used only in connection with the provision of treatment to a student, and not disclosed to anyone other than individuals providing the treatment (provided that the records can be personally reviewed by a physician or other appropriate professional of the student’s choice); and
Appendix A: Access to and Disclosure of Educational Records

e. Alumni records compiled after graduation.
5. “Personally identifiable” means that the data or information includes:
   a. The name of a student, the student’s parent or other family member;
b. The address of the student
c. A personal identifier, such as the student’s social security number or student identification number;
d. A list of personal characteristics which would make the student’s identity easily traceable; or
e. Other information which would make the student’s identity easily traceable.
6. “Record” means any information or data recorded in any medium, including, but not limited to:
   a. Handwriting, digital, print, tapes, film, microfilm and microfiche.
7. “Student” means any person who has matriculated at the university and commenced classes, for whom the university maintains education records. The term does not include an individual who has applied for admission to but had not been in attendance at the university, nor does it include alumni status. “Student” status terminates at the time a student ceases to attend classes and leaves the institution.

II. Inspection and Review of Education Records
1. Education records maintained: The university maintains the following types of education records:
   a. Personal data which identifies each student enrolled in the university, including full legal name, address, race, sex, date and place of birth, marriage status, names of spouse, and name of parent or guardian.
b. Description of student academic status including grade level completed, grades, standardized test scores and clinical evaluations of work competency and achievement.
c. Scores on standardized intelligence and aptitude tests.
d. Scores on standardized professional examination boards.
e. Records of extracurricular activities.
f. Health data relevant to educational assignments.
g. Systematically gathered academic and clinical evaluations.

   factual information and not subjective information.
2. Retention and security of records records maintained by the central university administration, with the exception of the disciplinary and criminal records which shall be kept separately by the Dean of Students or designee.

b. Security of all records shall be the responsibility of the Registrar, excepting those above-mentioned files which are the responsibility of the Dean of Students or designee.
c. With the exception of records of disciplinary and criminal proceedings, the above-enumerated records of subsection 2.a. shall be kept for at least 6 years after the student leaves the school. Records of disciplinary and criminal proceedings shall be reviewed upon graduation to determine whether the record shall be maintained for professional certification or legally related reasons. If there is not sound legal or professional reason for such maintenance, the records shall be destroyed upon order of the Dean of Students or designee.

d. The Registrar shall at any time deemed appropriate, review any and all records for which he/she shall have responsibility. Such review shall be done to eliminate those records which no longer have meaning in determining the educational accomplishments of the student or which are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student.

3. Right to inspect and review education records
   a. The university shall permit a student who is or has been in attendance at the institution to inspect and review the education records of that student. This right to inspect and review includes the right to a response from the university to reasonable requests for explanations and interpretations of the records, and the right to obtain copies would effectively prevent a student from exercising the right to inspect and review.
   b. Students shall not be permitted to inspect and review the following records:
      i. Financial records and statements of their parents or any information contained therein.
      ii. Confidential letters and confidential statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records of a student prior to January 1, 1975, provided that: (1) the letters and statements were solicited with a written assurance of confidentiality or sent and retained with a documented understanding of confidentiality, and (2) the letters and statements are used only for the purposes for which they were specifically intended.
      iii. Confidential letters and confidential statements of recommendation placed in the education records of a student after January 1, 1975, with respect to university admission, an application for employment, or the receipt of an honor or honorary recognition, provided that the student has waived in writing his or her right to inspect and review those letters and statements of recommendation. In the event of such a waiver: (1) the applicant or student shall be, upon request, notified of the names of all individuals providing the letters or statements; (2) the letter or statements shall be used only for the purpose for which they are originally intended; and (3) such waiver shall not be required by the university as a condition of admission to or receipt of any other service or benefit. Such a waiver may be revoked at any time with respect to any actions occurring after the revocation.
   c. The procedure for inspection and review of records shall be as follows:
      i. Students should submit to the Registrar, Dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate university official, a written request which identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. The university official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed. A student desiring to inspect and review his/her records shall submit a written
Appendix A:
Access to and Disclosure of Educational Records request directly to the person in charge of the desired records.

ii. Such request must specify the records requested.
iii. A request to inspect the desired records will be granted within a reasonable period of time, not exceeding 45 days after the request has been made.
iv. The student will be notified by mail as to when and where he/she may inspect the requested records.
v. Inspection of records will be made in front of the responsible administrator or designee.
vi. A notation will be placed in the file each time it is inspected, stating the date of inspection, person inspecting, and reason for the inspection. In the case of transcript transmittal, a student must submit such request in writing and a notation shall be made on the file as to date and place sent.
d. A student may request copies of his/her education records from the official in charge of keeping those records in accordance with the following:
   i. A transcript of the student’s academic record will be made at a charge of $5.00 per copy to students. $10.00 per copy to alumni. All other records shall be reproduced at a charge of 50 cents per page.
   ii. Requests for reproduction of a transcript must be made in writing to the University Registrar on the appropriate form to be obtained from the office of the Registrar.
   iii. Requests for reproduction of other records must be made in writing to the appropriate official holding the desired records.
   iv. All reproduction requests must be accompanied by the payment of record reproduction charges.
   v. Reproduction shall be done as soon as feasible, but not to exceed 45 days after receipt of the request.

III. Amendment of Education Records

1. Request of education records
   a. A student who believes that information contained in his/her education records is inaccurate or misleading, or violates privacy or other rights, may request that the records be amended.
   b. Such a request shall be made in writing and submitted to the custodian of the disputed record, who shall decide whether to amend the record in accordance with the request within a reasonable period of time (not exceeding 45 days) of receipt of the request.
   c. If the custodian of the disputed record, after consultation with the Dean of the individual college, refuses to amend the record in accordance with the student’s request, he/she shall immediately notify the student in writing of such refusal and advise the student of the right to a hearing under subsection III.2 below.

2. Right to and conduct of hearing
   a. If the request by a student to amend education records is denied, he/she may, in writing submitted to the custodian of the record within 45 days after the denial, request a hearing in order to challenge the content of the records to insure that information therein is not inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student.
   b. The hearing shall be conducted before a review board composed of one member of the faculty who has no direct interest in the outcome of the hearing, one administrator of the university (appointed by the COO/ Provost of the University) who has no direct interest in the outcome of the hearing and, at the option of the student requesting the hearing, one student representative of the SGA.

c. The hearing shall be held within a reasonable period of time (not exceeding 45 days) after receipt of the request by the custodian of the record. The student shall be given notice of the date, place and time of the hearing at least 21 days prior thereto.

d. The student shall have a full and fair opportunity to present all evidence relevant to the issues, and may be assisted or represented at the hearing by an individual of his/her choice at his/her own expense.

e. The decision of the review board shall be based solely upon evidence presented at the hearing and shall include a summary of the evidence and reasons for the decision. The review board shall render its decision in writing within a reasonable period of time (not exceeding 60 days) after the conclusion of the hearing.

3. Results of hearing

If, as a result of the hearing, the university decides that the information is not inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student, it shall inform the student of the right to place in his/her education records a statement commenting upon the information in the education records and/or setting forth any reasons for disagreeing with the decision of the university. Any explanation placed in the education records of the student hereunder shall be maintained by the university as part of the education records of the student so long as the record or contested portion thereof is maintained, and shall be disclosed to any party subsequently receiving the education records of the student or contested portion thereof.

IV. Disclosure of Personally Identifiable Information from Education Records

1. Prior consent for disclosure required

a. Except as provided in subsection IV.2 below and except with respect to directory information, the university shall obtain the written consent of a student before disclosing personally identifiable information from the education records of the student.

c. Whenever a disclosure is made pursuant to the written request of a student, the university shall, upon request, provide a copy of the disclosed record.

2. Prior consent for disclosure not required. The university may, but need not, disclose personally identifiable information without the written consent of a student if the disclosure is:

a. To the student himself/herself, or to anyone who has the written permission of the student.

b. To university officials, including the heads of administrative departments as well as faculty members having classroom or advisory responsibility to the student, provided that such officials have legitimate educational interests in the information. For purposes hereof, “legitimate educational interest” shall mean any interest of those officials directly related to the performance of their duties, but shall not include any interest having as its principal source the personal prejudice of any such official.

When the collection of personally identifiable information is specifically authorized by federal law, any data collected by officials hereunder shall be protected in a manner which will not permit the personal identification of the student by other than those officials, and the personally identifiable data shall be destroyed when no longer need for such audit, evaluation or enforcement of or compliance with federal legal requirements.

d. In connection with financial aid for which a student has applied or which student has received, provided that personally identifiable information from the education records of a student will be disclosed only as may be necessary to: determine eligibility for financial aid; determine the amount of financial aid; determine the conditions which will be imposed regarding the financial aid; or to enforce the terms or conditions of the financial aid.

3. Record of disclosures

   a. The university shall maintain a record, kept with the education records of its students, of each request for and disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records of its students. Such record shall indicate the parties who have requested or obtained personally identifiable information, and the legitimate interests these parties had in requesting or obtaining the information.

It is provided, however, that any student may refuse to permit the designation of any such information with respect to him/her as directory information by serving written notice to that effect on the university’s Registrar within 30 days after the commencement of any academic year. Appendix B: Drug Free Workplace

The following Drug-Free Workplace Policy is to notify all students that pursuant to the Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 (Public Law 101-690) and California Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1990, Touro University California prohibits the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, or use of a controlled substance in the workplace, on school property, or as part of any school activity.

In order to enforce this policy, the university reserves the right to conduct searches of university property, student, or employees and/or their personal property, and to implement other measures necessary to deter and detect abuse of this policy.

The illegal use or abuse of drugs which impair a student’s ability to perform academically, or disrupts others in the performance of their work or academic endeavors is strictly prohibited. The unlawful sale, manufacture, possession, distribution or use of controlled substances on the university’s campuses is strictly prohibited. Students convicted of any criminal drug violation are required to notify the university within five days of the conviction. The university may then report this conviction to the appropriate agencies.

Any student who is using prescription or over-the-counter drugs that may impair their ability to safely perform their academic duties, or affect the safety or well-being of others, must notify the Director of Student Health. The student needs not disclose the condition(s) for which the drugs are being used. Following the required disclosure, the university will determine whether reasonable accommodations can be made which would allow the student to perform his or her duties safely.

Any student who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from his/her program of study.

The university will encourage and reasonably accommodate students with alcohol or drug dependencies to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation. Students may consult with Counseling Services for referral information. The university is not obligated, however, to retain any student who’s academic or professionalism performance is impaired because of drug or alcohol use, nor is the university obligated to re-admit any person who has participated in treatment and/or rehabilitation if that student’s performance remains impaired as a result of dependency. Students who are given the opportunity to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation, but fail to successfully overcome their dependency, will not automatically receive a second opportunity to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation.

Students are required to certify each year that they have received, read, and understand the Touro University Drug Free Workplace policy in addition to the Student Catalog. Students agree to comply with the policy and are notified that failure to comply could result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Drug Conviction Notification and Imposed Sanctions:

1. Any student must notify Touro University California of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such a conviction.

2. Within 30 days after receiving notice of a student conviction, Touro University California will impose corrective measures on the student convicted of drug abuse violations in the workplace by:
Appendix B: Drug Free Workplace

Health Risks
The abuse of narcotics, depressants, stimulants, hallucinogens, or alcohol can cause serious detriment to a person’s health. The health risks associated with the misuse of the previously mentioned drugs vary but include, and are not limited to: convulsions, coma, paralysis, irreversible brain damage, tremors, fatigue, paranoia, insomnia, and possible death. Drug and alcohol abuse is extremely harmful to a person’s health, interferes with productivity and alertness, and attending classes/rotations while under the influence of drugs or alcohol could be a danger to the student under the influence, fellow students, and to patients/clients under the student’s care. See the website under Drug Free Workplace for information on specific damage and symptoms related to drug usage.

Laws Relating to Drug Violations
Attached is a list of violation codes associated with the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of any controlled substance. Any student violating any of the described laws of the Health and Safety Code or the Business and Professional Code could be subject to fines and imprisonment.

Rehabilitation
Touro University California will reasonably accommodate any student who volunteers to enter an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program, provided the reasonable accommodation does not impose undue hardship on Touro University California. Reasonable accommodation could include a Medical Leave of Absence. However, Touro University California is not obligated to offer an accommodation for any student who has violated any University policy that in Touro University California’s sole discretion merits termination of the relationship before asking for assistance. Touro University California will take reasonable measures to safeguard the privacy of the student concerning enrollment in an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program. If student enters into a state approved rehabilitation program, he/she shall sign an agreement with Touro University California, which will include the following:

1. Enrollment in and complete a University approved rehabilitation program at the student’s expense.
2. Execution of the appropriate release of medical information forms to the University in order to monitor the compliance with the rehabilitation program.
3. Ensure the treatment facility provides the University with the necessary documentation to establish compliance.
4. Abstinence from any illegal drug misconduct.
5. Acknowledgement that any future violation of Touro University California drug prohibitions shall result in immediate dismissal.
6. Failure to comply with any provision of the agreement shall result in immediate dismissal.

RESPONSIBLE ALCOHOL USE AND CONSUMPTION POLICY

As a general policy, Touro University – California discourages the possession, consumption, or transportation of alcoholic beverages on its campus. The University will not authorize the use of general student fees or other funds collected and administered by any University office or agency for the purchase, supply, or serving of any alcoholic beverage or to partially or totally support events where alcoholic beverages are served or provided to student participants as part of the event. However, on certain special occasions, alcohol may be permitted. Students should contact the Director of Student Activities to discuss their event and the use of alcohol. This alcohol policy provides clear and consistent guidelines for the application of standards and expectations for the serving and consumption of alcoholic beverages by students on the Touro University California campus.

All members of the campus community have a stake in ensuring that alcohol is used only in a responsible manner. This policy focuses on alcohol use in moderation by persons twenty-one (21) and over and addresses legal liabilities. Alcohol abuse, including but not limited to binge drinking or drunk driving, by anyone will not be tolerated. The goal of this policy is to ensure that alcohol use at Touro University approved events meets the following guidelines:

1. Alcohol use is not the primary focus of the activity and the success of the event is not dependent upon the serving of alcohol.
2. Members of the campus community and our guests are expected to make informed decisions and to act responsibly regarding the use of alcoholic beverages.
3. Individuals using alcohol in campus facilities are subject to campus policy, federal, state, and city laws.
4. Choosing not to drink alcohol is as socially acceptable as choosing to drink alcohol.
5. Excessive drinking or drunkenness is not acceptable.
6. Intoxication is no excuse for misconduct or infringing upon the rights and safety of others.

In every instance where alcohol use is permitted, the individual user and organization sponsoring the event assume responsibility for compliance with applicable local, state and federal laws, this policy and other Touro University regulations. The organization sponsoring an event where alcohol is served may be held liable when a person consuming alcohol at that event is involved in an accident resulting in any loss, including but not limited to property damage or personal injury.

Approval Policy

To receive University approval to serve alcohol at a Touro University sanctioned event the sponsoring organization must provide for the following:

1. The sponsoring organization will work with Touro University Student Affairs to hire a licensed beverage caterer who will provide an insurance rider identifying Touro University California as an additional insured for the event or, do the following:

   b. Complete an Alcohol Beverage Control Application

   b. Alcoholic beverages will only be served to persons who are at least twenty-one (21) years of age.
Appendix B.1: Responsible Alcohol Use

c. Food must be available throughout the time alcohol is served.
d. Non-alcoholic beverages must be as readily available as alcoholic beverages.
e. An event at which alcohol is to be served must be sponsored by a unit, department, university recognized faculty or staff organization, or university recognized student group in good standing unless the facility is leased to an outside entity.
f. Participants or their guests will not be allowed to bring in alcoholic beverages to any event.
g. University recognized student groups or organizations in good standing may have alcohol available at events only when the Dean of Students or his/her designee has also granted permission.
h. Servers must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age. They must be informed of vicarious liability and their responsibilities for serving visibly intoxicated persons.

4. Submit the signed Responsible Alcohol Use Policy and a copy of the Certificate of Insurance to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs. The Associate Dean of Student Affairs will issue a letter of approval on Touro University letterhead for the event.

5. Bring all of the above to the Provost for his/her signature on the Alcohol Beverage Control application.

6. Continue working with Touro University Student Affairs to obtain Vallejo Police approval and a Day License from Alcohol Beverage Control.

7. Once a Day License has been granted by Alcohol Beverage Control, a copy must be provided to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and should be posted at the event.

Students are encouraged to start this process at least one month prior to the event. No alcohol may be served at any event sponsored by a Touro University Student Organization unless all of the above have been completed and copies of all required documentation have been received in the office of the Associate Dean for Student Affairs not later than two (2) weeks prior to the planned event.

Obtaining an Alcohol Permit and Insurance for Approved University Events (when a licensed beverage caterer is not used)

1. The permit must be completed as early as possible! It should be at least one month prior to the event. The Police Department may hold the permit as long as 2 weeks. The ABC District Office "requires" 10 days in advance. Sometimes the timeframe is less, but it is better to get this done early.

2. The Liquor Liability Insurance applies to events held on campus. If you plan on having an event off-campus, you must obtain an additional location event insurance.

EXEMPLARY: Responsible Alcohol Use Agreement Form

EVENT: ___________________________ Event Date: ___________________________

The possession, consumption, or transportation of alcoholic beverages on the Touro University - California campus or in campus-owned facilities, except within the confines of a student’s personal residential space, provided that that student is at least 21 years of age, is generally prohibited as a matter of institutional policy. However, it may be permitted on special occasions, approved by the Dean of Students.

All members of the campus community have a stake in ensuring that alcohol is used only in a responsible manner. This policy focuses on alcohol use in moderation by persons twenty-one years of age and over and addresses legal liabilities. Alcohol abuse, including binge drinking or drunk driving, by anyone will not be tolerated.

This alcohol policy is intended to provide clear and consistent guidelines for the application of standards and expectations for the serving and consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus and in Touro University - California facilities. The goal of this policy is to ensure that alcohol use at events meets the following criteria:

Alcohol use is not the primary focus of the activity and the success of the event is not dependent upon the serving of alcohol.

1. Members of the campus community and our guests are expected to make informed decisions and to act responsibly regarding the use of alcoholic beverages.
2. Individuals using alcohol in campus facilities are subject to campus policy and federal and state laws.
3. Choosing not to drink alcohol is as socially acceptable as choosing to drink alcohol.
4. Excessive drinking or drunkenness is not condoned.
5. Intoxication is no excuse for misconduct or infringing upon the rights of others.

In every instance where alcohol use is permitted, the individual user and organization sponsoring the event assume responsibility for compliance with applicable local, state, and federal laws, this policy, and other university regulations.

The use of alcohol in campus facilities is a risk management concern for personal safety and for negative publicity that results in an adverse impact to a program or to the university’s public image.

Individuals, organizations, and campus departments need to be particularly aware of recent court rulings on the issue of vicarious liability. The sponsoring party of an event where alcohol is served can be held liable when a person consuming alcohol at that event is involved in an accident resulting in personal injury or death.

A. Access to the event is restricted to invited participants.
B. Identification must be checked as needed to ensure that no participant under 21 years of age is offered or served an alcoholic beverage.
C. Food must be available throughout the time alcohol is served.
D. Non-alcoholic beverages must be as readily available as alcoholic beverages.
Appendix B.1: Responsible Alcohol Use

E. An event at which alcohol is to be served must be sponsored by a unit, department, university-recognized faculty/staff organization, or university-recognized student group in good standing unless the facility is leased to an outside entity. Attendance by the Person In Charge is required during the entire period of the event.

F. Guests will not be allowed to bring alcoholic beverages to any event.

G. University-recognized student groups or organizations in good standing may have alcohol available at events only when the Dean of Students or his/her designee has also granted permission.

Server Responsibility

Servers must be 21 years of age or older. Servers who are students must have a supervisor (or the Person in Charge) available who can assist them as needed in determining age verification and whether or not someone has had too much to drink.

Servers must be informed by the Person in Charge about the provisions of vicarious liability and what their responsibility is if they serve alcohol to someone who is visibly intoxicated and that person then hurts himself/herself or another person. The Alcoholic Beverage Control Act defines intoxicated as follows:

A customer is obviously intoxicated when an average person can plainly observe that the patron is intoxicated. The usual tests are staggering, alcoholic breath, dilated pupils of the eyes, slurred speech, poor muscular coordination, etc. (Section 25602).

We, the undersigned, make this written commitment to uphold Touro University – California’s Responsible Alcohol Use and Consumption Policy (there must be at least two registered students’ signatures for an alcohol-related event to be approved)(there must be at least one designated Person In Charge):

STUDENT CONDUCT CODE

The following bylaws and regulations are promulgated to augment and support the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students of TUC.

Student Concerns and Grievances
It is recognized that from time to time students will encounter situations or develop concerns while pursuing professional degree programs. These may affect relationships with fellow students, faculty, staff and/or administration. Any issue concerning student conduct will be resolved by one of two methods: (1) an informal method utilizing the Office of Student Affairs or (2) a formal method of resolution. The informal method of resolution will be initially used for all cases unless the Associate Dean of Student Affairs believes that the incident is severe enough initially to warrant a formal hearing.

Conduct Violations
The following acts are considered to be a violation of acceptable student conduct. (Please refer to section on Student Academic Ethics for additional conduct violations):

- Cheating: Unauthorized use of a text, notes or other aids during an exam, copying the work of another student, or obtaining and using a copy of an examination advance of its administration

Informal Method of Resolution

The informal method for the resolution of student conduct issues is the responsibility of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs. The Associate Dean of Student Affairs will hear all violations of the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students as it relates to the informal method of resolution. The Associate Dean of Student Affairs reserves the discretion to refer any violation of the Code to the Formal Method of Resolution.

1. Upon written notification that a violation of the Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities has taken place, the Associate Dean of Student Affairs will contact the student involved to request an appointment to discuss the alleged violation.

2. After investigating the incident and meeting with the student, the Associate Dean of Student Affairs will render a decision within five (5) school days, in writing, of the disposition of the violation and, if applicable, inform the student of the disciplinary action.

3. Should a student accept the decision of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, the disciplinary action will be effective immediately.

4. If the student does not accept the decision of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, a formal hearing procedure will be implemented.

Formal Method of Resolution

Touro University, in an effort to differentiate between student discipline and evaluation of student academic and professional competency, has developed the following Formal Method of Resolution to deal with disciplinary infractions of the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students. This formal method of resolution is designed so that a student may have the opportunity to be fairly and justly treated when his/her personal conduct is in question. This section does not apply to matters of academic performance, which are dealt with by appropriate Student Promotion committees.

Procedures for Formal Resolution - Conduct Infractions

To institute proceedings to examine any student act allegedly violating acceptable student conduct, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. Nature of the act and related circumstances are to be reported in written detail and submitted to:
   a. the involved student, and
   b. the Associate Dean of Student Affairs

2. The written statement must include the name of the involved student, the name and status of the reporting person, and the nature of the alleged act. The written statement must be sent to the involved student by registered or certified mail or delivered in person. Should a student so involved refuse or fail to accept delivery of the statement after a bona fide attempt is made to deliver, the requirement of notification will be considered to have been met.

3. Should a student action be of such a nature that it is felt that he or she must be relieved of this/her right to attend Touro University, the student may be temporarily suspended from the college on recommendation of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs. Any temporary suspension may continue until such a time as:
   a. the issue in dispute is resolved, or
   b. the formal hearing process is completed
4. The student, after being notified of an allegation, will meet with the Associate Dean of Student Affairs.
5. The Associate Dean of Student Affairs shall arrange a hearing which is to take place no earlier than three calendar days and no later than ten calendar days after the decision to proceed with the formal method has been reached.
6. The hearing shall take place before a hearing committee composed of:
   a. two regular faculty or administrative members and one alternate regular faculty or administrative member appointed by the applicable college Dean an
   b. two student committee members and one alternate student committee member appointed by the SGA President. The hearing body shall be chaired by an independent, nonvoting student moderator appointed by the applicable SGA President. Committee members are to serve for the term of one academic year. Prior involvement in some aspects of the issue under study by a hearing committee member shall not bar a committee member from serving on the committee. However, a committee member will be disqualified if he/she has participated in filing the charge under review.
7. All persons involved in a hearing shall be given adequate written notice of all hearing dates, times and places. Such notice will be given at least 36 hours prior to any hearing unless waived by the parties involved.
8. Postponements of committee meetings may be made by the interested parties. The student may be granted a postponement if information or pertinent interested parties cannot for good cause be present at the time set. Any postponement may not extend beyond a three-month period except in the case of a student who has been temporarily suspended, where a postponement will be limited to a 48-hour period. Should an extension beyond the 48-hour period be needed, the suspension itself shall be reevaluated.
9. The student charged and the person making the charges will be accorded the following rights:
   a. to review all information to be presented to the hearing committee. The length of time for review shall be reasonable as determined by the hearing committee moderator.
   b. to challenge the seating of one hearing committee member. Any challenge must be made at least 36 hours in advance. The challenged member may rebut the challenge and ask for a decision as to his service from the other members of the committee.
   c. to present fully all aspects of the issue before the hearing committee.
   d. to be accompanied by an advocate. Legal counsel will not be allowed.
10. Committee hearing will proceed under the following guidelines:
   a. All committee hearings and meetings are to be closed sessions unless all parties mutually agree in writing to open sessions.
   b. A recording secretary is to be appointed by the committee moderator. Verbatim transcripts of the proceedings may be made at the request and expense of any party.
   c. All issues in dispute shall be orally presented by the committee moderator.
   d. The complainant will first present all information supporting the charges made against the student.
   e. Following this presentation, the student who is under investigation will present his/her side of this issue, submitting for committee review all information which he/she chooses to submit.

f. At the completion of all discussion the complainant and the students may each make a summary statement.

g. At any time during the hearing, the complainant, the student, the committee and/or college representatives may raise questions about the information under review so that all aspects of the case are clarified.

h. Silence by the charged student shall not be interpreted as an admission of guilt.

11. The committee shall reach a decision using the following guidelines:

a. The hearing committee will meet in closed session to reach a decision. Such meeting must be held within one school day following the formal hearing.

b. If the hearing committee seeks additional information following commencement of its deliberations, it will notify the parties within two school days and reconvene the hearing within five school days of the conclusion of the original hearing. The hearing committee’s final decision must be made within seven school days of the conclusion of the original hearing.

c. A decision to find the student guilty of the accusations will need at least three affirmative votes. The moderator may not vote in case of a tie.

d. The committee decision will be presented in writing to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs who then will inform the applicable Dean. The committee decision must be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and must include all recommendations for final disposition of the issues involved. Any penalties must conform to Section on Sanctions of the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students of Touro University.

e. The applicable Dean, after reviewing the decision of the hearing committee, has the authority to affirm, negate, and/or modify the decision.

f. The applicable Dean shall then notify the student who allegedly violated acceptable student conduct of the committee decision and the Dean’s decision and shall inform the student of his/her right to appeal the decision and the Dean’s decision and shall inform the student of his/her right to appeal the decision.

g. The university will institute the recommended disciplinary action of the applicable Dean unless some pertinent factor such as legal ramification precludes such action or the student involved appeals the decision.

12. An appeal may be instituted by the following methods:

a. The student may request an appeal to the Provost within five school days of notification of the committee’s decision.

b. At the time of request for appeal, the student must submit in writing to the Provost the basis for appeal. All facts necessary to substantiate the appeal must be included within the request for appeal.

13. The Provost will act upon the appeal by:

a. confirming the Dean’s decision

b. modifying the decision, or

c. ordering a new hearing.

14. The decision of the Provost is final.

15. Records of the above proceedings shall be kept in accordance with the following guidelines:

a. If the committee finds no merit in the allegation under discussion, all records, of the proceedings shall be sealed and secured in the office of the Associate Dean of Student...
Appendix C: Student Conduct Code

Affairs until such time as any legal statute of limitations has expired. Upon such event, all records of the proceedings shall be destroyed. Should a need arise to open the sealed records; the university Provost shall be notified. At the applicable college Dean’s, DEO’s, or Provost’s discretion, an order to open the record shall be issued by him/her. These records will not go into a student’s personal disciplinary file.

b. If the committee finds merit in the allegations against a student, a full record of the proceedings and all relevant materials shall be entered exclusively in the student’s personal disciplinary file located in the office of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs.

c. A student’s personal disciplinary file shall be reviewed annually to determine whether it may be destroyed. No destruction of documents is to take place prior to graduation. The records may be maintained for professional certification or legally related reasons.

A student may see his/her disciplinary file in accordance with the college regulations concerning inspection of records, as spelled out in Guidelines for Access to and Discloser of Education Records Maintained by Touro University.

Other types of accommodations which may be appropriate for individual students will be considered by the university, as presented, on a case-by-case basis.

Procedures for Requesting and Obtaining Accommodations

An application for accommodation of a disability must be made by the student. Verbal disclosure prior to or following admission is not sufficient. Students may apply for special accommodations any time during their academic curriculum, however, if granted, the accommodation is given only for the academic year in which it is requested. In case of changed circumstances, with respect to any disability, subsequent applications must follow for each academic year the student is requesting accommodations (including request during clinical rotations, clerkships, internships or any other off-campus programs that are part of the students’ required college/program curriculum).

Students seeking accommodation for a disability should follow the procedures set forth below.

1. Written Request For Accommodation. Students must complete and submit to the Office of Student Affairs a Request for Accommodations of Disability Application (RADA) form. The form is available in the Office of Student Affairs.

2. Documentation Supporting Need For Accommodation. Documentation from a certified health care provider which verifies the nature of the disability (for admitted or matriculated students only), functional limitations, and any specific accommodation(s) recommended, must be received by the Office of Student Affairs before any accommodation may be granted. The student is encouraged to submit this documentation together with the RADA form. The student should provide his/her health care provider with a copy of the university’s Technical Standards for Admission, which may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs. The documentation from the health care provider should include, at a minimum:
   a. A cover letter from the health care provider verifying his/her knowledge of and relationship with the student.
   b. A report from the health care provider which includes, at a minimum, the following information: (i) nature and extent of the provider’s treatment, consultation and/or testing of the student which forms the basis for the assessment; (ii) identification of the nature and severity of the diagnosed disability(ies) [NOTE: this information is required for admitted or matriculated students only]; (iii) the functional limitations caused by the disability(ies) for the student’s program of study; and (iv) a description of any recommended accommodations which may be appropriate or necessary to enable the student to satisfy the university’s technical and academic standards and requirements for his/her program of study.
   c. Test results must be within the last five years prior to the request.
Appendix D: Policy and Procedures for Accommodating Students with Disabilities

3. Types of Documentation Students Should Provide. As a guide to both students and faculty, appropriate documentation needed to fulfill criteria to be considered learning disabled may include, but are not limited to, the following:
   - the WAIS-R individualized measure of intelligence or comparable test, given in the last 5 years,
   - the Woodcock-Johnson Psycho educational Batter-Revised or other comprehensive, psycho education test that demonstrates that specific area of academics may be significantly below expectations,
   - a standardized test or tests that indicate specific areas of the student’s strengths and weaknesses and gives recommendations for remediation,
   - documentation summarizing the students accommodations throughout elementary, secondary, or post-secondary education and placement in any special programs while in school,
   - all other documentation that gives assistance or identifies behavioral or attention problems that may warrant special accommodations.

If the documentation is deemed incomplete or inadequate, the student may be asked to provide supplemental documentation as needed.

4. Meeting with Associate Dean of Students. A student requesting an accommodation for a disability must schedule a meeting with the Associate Dean of Students. The purpose of this meeting is to allow for an open, interactive dialogue between the student and the Associate Dean concerning the request for accommodation. To allow for a more informed and productive discussion, the student is encouraged to submit his or her RADA form and supporting documentation to the Office of Student Affairs prior to meeting with the Associate Dean.

5. Notification of Decision On Request for Accommodation. It is the responsibility of the Associate Dean of Students to review the student’s RADA form and supporting documentation and to determine whether the request for accommodation is reasonable. This decision shall be rendered within ten (10) business days after all required documentation is received by the Office of Student Affairs.

6. Appeal From Decision to Deny Request for Accommodation. If a decision is made by the Associate Dean to deny a request for accommodation, in whole or in part, the student may request an appeal from the Committee on Disabilities. This is an ad-hoc committee which will be established by the Office of Student Affairs. The request for appeal must be made in writing within 30 days of the date of the notice of denial issued by the Associate Dean of Student Affairs. Within ten (10) business days from its receipt of the request for appeal, the Committee shall issue its decision on the appeal in writing. The Committee decision will be considered final.

7. Implementation of Approved Accommodations. It is the responsibility of the Associate Dean of Students to discuss with the student how he/she can communicate to faculty and facilitate the implementation of accommodations approved by the Associate Dean of Student Affairs. If the requested accommodation meets approved criteria, the Associate Dean will request the accommodation, in writing, to the Department Chair or Program Director in charge of the course or courses for which an accommodation is being requested. The Associate Dean of Students will also notify the appropriate Associate Dean. It is the responsibility of the Department Chair or Program Director to inform all appropriate instructors of the request for accommodation. The Associate Dean of Students will send the letter of request for accommodation every academic semester within that academic year to the appropriate Department Chair or Program Director. Students are reminded, however, that they must reapply each academic year to be considered for accommodations. Once a letter requesting accommodations has been sent from the Associate Dean of Students to the Department Chair or Program Director, it is the students’ responsibility to arrange the approved accommodations with course instructors.

The student should meet with the instructor of the class in which he or she seeks to be accommodated and discuss what works best for that instructor within the parameters of the requested accommodation(s). Students, while having a specific disability and requesting accommodations for one course may or may not want accommodations for other courses within their program of study. The letter from the Associate Dean of Students to Department Chairs or Program Directors will state, “If requested, the following accommodations are recommended…”

Students are encouraged to immediately bring problems to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students. It is the responsibility of the Dean of Students to monitor all arrangements regarding disability accommodations. If a student feels he or she is being discriminated against because of a disability, he or she has the right to request an investigation into such a matter through the student grievance policy and procedure.

Students who are in need of testing or the need to provide current documentation should meet with the Associate Dean of Students. Information on testing for learning disabilities and testing locations can be obtained through this office. Costs of testing and assessments are the responsibility of the student.

Confidentiality of Records
Access to student records related to requests for accommodation of disabilities is restricted for privacy reasons. If the accommodating department(s) or instructor(s) wish to view a copy of the student assessment, they may do so only based upon a showing of legitimate need, and only with the express written consent of the student involved. Copies of the detailed assessment are maintained in a confidential file in the Office of Student Affairs and may only be viewed by that office and individuals for whom the student has granted consent to disclose.

Accommodation for Board Examinations
Students who wish to request accommodations for board examinations or other certifying examinations are urged to contact the governing body or institution responsible for the administration of such examinations. Requirements for requesting accommodations for these examinations will be determined by the respective governing body or institution and may be different from requirements established by Touro University California.

but are not limited to, faculty or staff offices when appropriate, a conference rooms that can be secured, a multi-purpose room, or any available space with a locking door that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from other students and/or university personnel.

Restrooms, spaces lacking privacy, electricity or adequate ventilation, or spaces lacking a locking door are not considered appropriate spaces for lactation purposes. However, an anteroom or lounge area connected to a restroom may be sufficient if the space is private, free from intrusion, and can be locked and shielded from view.

Current Lactation Facilities that are approved by Touro University California:

Accommodation Requests
A nursing mother is encouraged to discuss her needs, in terms of accommodations as well as the frequency and timing of breaks, with the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and/or the Director of Academic Support.

Student Affairs will work with the appropriate Program’s faculty to make sure that space is provided in order for nursing mothers to express their milk. Requests are honored on a first come, first served basis. A nursing mother might not get the same room all the time. Should a nursing mother’s need for a lactation facility change, this must be communicated in writing to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and/or the Director of Academic Support. This accommodation can begin on a temporary basis without a doctor’s signature on the paperwork. However, students must complete the accommodation paperwork with the appropriate signatures within a reasonable time period, no later than two months from the beginning of the accommodation.

Recourse
A nursing mother who has comments, concerns, or questions regarding the university’s policy on Accommodations for Nursing Mothers should contact the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and/or the Director of Academic Support.
Title

This code is entitled The Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students of Touro University. It is approved and authorized by the Board of Trustees of Touro University.

Definition and Basic Concepts

The Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students of Touro University is a part of each student’s educational commitment. The following definitions of terms are made for clarification.

1. The “university” refers to Touro University. The term includes the physical plant, the total educational program, students, faculty, employees, officers and trustees.
2. A “student” is anyone who has matriculated at the university and has commenced classes. The term does not include an individual who has applied for admission to but has not been in attendance at the university, nor does it include alumni.
3. The “faculty” constitutes those individuals appointed to the faculty by the president of the university.
4. A “student organization” is any group of students given recognition by the Student Government Association (SGA) administration.
5. The “SGA” is the university student governance structure. The leadership of the SGA is elected by the entire student body. The SGA is composed of all the class officers and student organization officers. All students are invited to participate in SGA meetings.
6. “Student affairs” includes areas of student interest and involvement through which their academic, social and professional goals can be achieved.
7. “University affairs” are the academic, business, administrative, professional and public relations activities of the university.
8. “University programs” are those academic programs established by Touro University for osteopathic medicine, pharmacy, allied health, and teacher education.
9. “Academic freedom” is the right of faculty and students to study, discuss, investigate and function within the educational process.
10. “Requirements of the University” are those prerequisites for receipt of the degrees, granted by the university, which are delineated in the college catalog and in official pronouncements of the Board of Trustees, faculty and administration. Such requirements may change from time to time as need arises to insure acceptability and respectability of the various degrees offered by the university.

Sanctions for violation of the Student Code of Responsibilities & Rights of Touro University California
Any student found responsible for violating the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of Students (please refer to the section on “Conduct Violations” for details) may expect to be sanctioned. Any sanction will be commensurate with the nature of the misconduct, and is intended to be in keeping with our educational mission to contribute to the student’s educational growth and personal development within the TUC community.
A student who is found to have engaged in improper conduct shall be subject to disciplinary action by the university. University actions may include but are not limited to: warning, reprimand, monetary fines, probation, suspension or expulsion.

Warning
A formal reprimand will be issued based on the severity of the violation and or history of previous minor violations of the student code of responsibilities and rights. Such a warning will be communicated in writing and will indicate that the student’s good standing with Touro University is in jeopardy.

Disciplinary probation
This is a written reprimand for violation of the Student Code of Responsibilities & Rights. This sanction is the highest sanction imposed on a student before suspension from campus and is imposed for serious misconduct and/or history of multiple violations. Although the student maintains his/her student status, probation includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found to violate any institutional regulation(s) during the probationary period. The designated period of time for this disciplinary action will be under the purview of the Dean of Students and/or hearing committee as defined in the Formal Resolution Process.

In order to help the student understand the inappropriateness of his/her conduct and become more aware of the university policies, probation may include the requirement to complete one or more of the following activities, as circumstances warrant: educational seminars, assessment by personal counselor, essays, letters of apology, behavioral agreements, work service hours, completion of other university, college, or community projects. Probation may also include restrictions from the following activities, as circumstances warrant: on campus computer use, participation in athletics, participation in student government, extracurricular activities, on campus student employment, recreational and/or social activities.

Suspension
During this period of temporary loss of student status, the student is separated from TUC premises and all TUC-sponsored/affiliated events and activities for a designated period of time. The duration of the suspension is under the purview of the Dean of Students and/or hearing committee as defined in the Formal Resolution Process. Upon termination of the suspension period, the student is eligible to petition to resume with his/her course of study.

Expulsion
This sanction represents the most severe response by the university to violations of the student code of responsibilities and rights and permanently separates the student from TUCA prior to receipt of his/her College diploma. A student who is expelled will not be eligible to receive an academic degree from Touro University at any time. The university may withhold the awarding of a degree pending the outcome of the student discipline process for a violation of the Student Code of Responsibilities & Rights that does, or would have the potential to, result in the sanction of Expulsion.

A student who is expelled is prohibited from the TUCA premises, and from attending TUCA-sponsored/affiliated events and activities. The sanction of Expulsion is noted on the student’s academic transcript. Expulsion is a determination by Touro University that the student has demonstrated by his/her conduct that he/she is unqualified to continue as a member of the university community.

Appendix F:
Resolution Process for Disputes and Grievances and Misconduct

RESOLUTION PROCESS FOR DISPUTES AND GRIEVANCES AND MISCONDUCT

Conduct and Discipline Resolution Process
Charges of misconduct, ethics violations or, violation of professional codes of behavior may be initiated by any of the Colleges of Touro University or any of its administration, faculty, staff or, students. All such charges will be filed, along with all supporting documentation, with the Dean of Students (or his/her designee). Whenever a concern is raised and charges are filed concerns will be resolved by one of two methods. These methods are: (1) an informal resolution process or, (2) a formal hearing. When appropriate an informal resolution process is used to support one of the underlying principles of the educational mission of the university, that is; to promote the personal and professional development of students.

Upon receipt of charges and accompanying documentation the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will schedule an appointment to meet with the charged student within five (5) business days, whenever possible. The Dean of Students will review all documentation and, in consultation with the Dean of the involved College (or his/her designee/s), will decide whether the charges warrant a formal hearing process. If the Deans find that a formal hearing is not warranted the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) may proceed with the scheduled meeting with the accused student with the goal of an informal resolution process.

Informal Resolution Process
At the meeting with the student the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will present the student with the charges against him/her and the evidence supporting those charges and offer the student the opportunity for an informal resolution. If the student wishes to take responsibility and accept the consequences of the informal process the following procedure will be followed: the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will consult, within five (5) business days, with the committee or other body charged with evaluation of academic progress in the College where the student is enrolled. In consultation with this body appropriate consequences for the infraction(s) will be agreed upon. If the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) and the appropriate College body are unable to reach agreement on the consequences, the Provost of the university will hear, within three (3) business days, the arguments of the Dean of Students and the College and will make the final decision on appropriate consequences. The Provost will render her/his decision within three (3) business day. The student will be notified of the resulting consequences within fourteen (14) days of his/her first meeting with the Dean of Students.

If the student accepts the decision of the informal resolution process the proceedings are completed and no further action for this violation will be pursued. If the student does not wish to accept the decision of this informal process she/he may request a formal hearing through the Formal Resolution Process. In addition, at any time prior to or during the course of the informal resolution process the student has the right to request a formal hearing.

Formal Resolution Process
If, following review of the charges and all supporting documentation the Dean of Students in consultation with the College finds sufficient cause, a Formal Resolution Process may be initiated. The Provost of the university during the course of his/her deliberations may also decide that a Formal Resolution Process is warranted.
Appendix F:
Resolution Process for Disputes and Grievances and Misconduct

The Formal Resolution Process is designed so that the student will be fairly and justly treated at all stages of the resolution process. This process will not apply to matters of academic performance which will be dealt with by the appropriate committee for evaluation of student academic advancement in each College.

Once it has been determined that a Formal Resolution Process is necessary the following procedure will be followed.

- Formal charges with all supporting documentation will be provided in writing and submitted to the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) and the involved student.
  - Documentation must include the name of the accused student, the name and position of the reporting person(people), and the nature of the allegation(s). The written statement will be sent to the accused student by registered or certified mail or delivered in person. Should the involved student refuse or fail to accept delivery of the statement after bona fide attempts to deliver, the requirement of notification will be considered to have been satisfied.
- Should a student’s actions be of such a nature that it is felt that he/she must be relieved of her/his right to attend Touro University, the student may be temporarily suspended from the college. This action, if necessary, will be taken by the Dean of Students only after consultation with the Provost of the university and the Dean of the college in which the student is enrolled. A suspension may continue until the issue(s) in dispute is/are resolved or the Formal Resolution Process is complete.
- The Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will arrange for a hearing which will take place not earlier than three (3) when ever possible, nor later than ten (10) business days following the decision to proceed with Formal Resolution.
- The hearing will take place before a hearing committee composed of the following individuals whom the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will request be appointed from:
  - Three (3) members appointed from faculty, administration or staff. Not more than one (1) of these appointees shall be from the College in which the accused student is enrolled. Any member employed by the College in which the student is enrolled must have no involvement in the case.
  - Two (2) student members appointed by the SGA President. Student members will not be enrolled in the same College as the accused student. A student with involvement in any aspect of the case will be disqualified.
- The members of the hearing committee will elect one of their members to serve as the Committee Chair.
- The accused student will have the right to disqualify one (1) member of the hearing committee without cause.
  - The replacement for a disqualified member will be selected by the Dean of Students (or his/her designee).
- All persons involved in a hearing shall be given 36 hours written notice of all hearing dates, times, and places. Lesser notice times may be given if agreed to by the involved parties.
- Postponement of a hearing may be granted if evidence or pertinent individuals of interest cannot reasonably be available at the time set for the hearing.
- The student charged and the person making the charges will be accorded the following rights:
  - To review all information to be presented to the hearing committee. The length of time for review shall be reasonable as determined by the hearing committee chair.
Appendix F: Resolution Process for Disputes and Grievances and Misconduct

- To challenge the seating of one hearing committee member without cause. Any challenge must be made at least 36 hours in advance of the hearing.
- To present fully all aspects of the issue before the hearing committee.
- To be accompanied by an advocate. Legal counsel will not be allowed.

- Committee hearings will proceed under the following guidelines:
  - All committee hearings and meetings are to be closed.
  - A recording secretary is to be appointed by the committee chair. Verbatim transcripts of the proceedings may be made at the request and expense of any party.
  - All issues in dispute shall be orally presented by the committee chair.
  - The complainant will first present all information supporting the charges made against the student.
  - Following this presentation, the student who is under investigation will present his/her side of this issue, submitting for committee consideration all information which he/she chooses to submit.
  - At the completion of all discussion, the complainant and the student may each make a summary statement.
  - At any time during the hearing, the complainant, the student, the committee and/or college representatives may raise questions about the evidence under review so that all aspects of the case are clarified.
  - Silence by the charged student shall not be interpreted as an admission of guilt.

- The committee shall reach a decision using the following guidelines:
  - The hearing committee will meet in closed session to reach a decision. Such meeting must be held within one (1) business day following the formal hearing.
  - If the hearing committee seeks additional information following commencement of its deliberations, it will notify the parties within two (2) business days and reconvene the hearing within five (5) business days of the conclusion of the original hearing. The hearing committee’s final decision must be made within seven (7) business days of the conclusion of the original hearing.
  - A decision to find the student guilty of the accusations will need at least three (3) affirmative votes.
  - The committee decision will be presented in writing to the Dean of Students who will then inform the Dean of the applicable College. The committee decision must be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and must include all recommendations for final disposition of the issues involved. Any penalties must conform to the Section on Sanctions of the Code of Responsibilities and Rights of the Students of Touro University (Appendix C).
  - The applicable College Dean, after reviewing the decision of the hearing committee, has the authority to affirm, negate, and/or modify the decision. The applicable Dean shall then notify the student of her/his decision and shall inform the student of his/her right to appeal the decision.
  - The university will implement the recommended disciplinary action after the appeal process has been completed.

- An appeal may be instituted by the following methods:
  - The student may request an appeal to the Provost within five (5) business days of notification of the Dean’s decision.
  - At the time of request for appeal, the student must submit in writing to the Provost
Appendix F: Resolution Process for Disputes and Grievances and Misconduct

the basis for the appeal. All facts necessary to substantiate the appeal must be included within the request for appeal.

- The Provost will act upon the appeal within five (5) business days by
  - Confirming the appropriate College Dean’s decision,
  - Modifying the decision, or
  - Ordering a new hearing.

- The Provost may grant an appeal only on showing one of the following:
  - Bias of one or more of the members of the Hearing Committee.
  - New material; documented information not available to the committee at the time of its initial decision.
  - Procedural error.

- The decision of the Provost is final.

- Records of the above proceedings shall be kept in accordance with the following guidelines:
  - If the committee finds no merit in the allegation under discussion, all records of the proceedings shall be sealed and secured in the office of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs until such time as any legal statute of limitations has expired. Upon such event, all records of the proceedings shall be destroyed. Should a need arise to open the sealed record, the university Provost shall be notified. At the applicable College Dean’s, or Provost’s discretion, an order to open the record shall be issued by him/her. These records will not go into a student’s personal disciplinary file.
  - If the committee finds merit in the allegations against a student, a full record of the proceedings and all relevant materials shall be entered exclusively in the student’s personal disciplinary file located in the office of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs.
  - A student’s personal disciplinary file shall be reviewed annually to determine whether it may be destroyed. No destruction of documents is to take place prior to graduation. Following graduation, the Dean of Students (or his/her designee) will meet with representatives of the College in which the student was enrolled to determine the proper disposition of the disciplinary file.
  - A student may see his/her disciplinary file in accordance with the college regulations concerning inspection of records as spelled out in Guidelines for Access to and Disclosure of Educational Records Maintained by Touro University (Appendix A).

ARBITRATION

This student catalog contains only general guidelines and information. It is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all the possible applications of, or exceptions to, the policies and procedures of Touro University California. Some of the subjects described in this catalog are covered in detail in official policy and procedure documents. Students should refer and defer to those documents for specific information, since this catalog only briefly summarizes those policies. For that reason, if students have any questions concerning a particular policy or procedure, you should address specific questions to the Office of Student Affairs. Please note that the terms of the full official policies are controlling in the case of any inconsistency.

This catalog is neither written nor meant to confer any rights or privileges on students or impose any obligations on Touro University California. The catalog is not a contract. No individual or representative of Touro (except the President) has the authority to enter into any agreement or understanding contrary to the above.
Appendix F:
Resolution Process for Disputes and Grievances and Misconduct

This catalog is written for informational purposes only and may contain errors. The policies, procedures and practices described herein may be modified, supplemented or discontinued in whole or in part, at any time with or without notice. Touro University California will attempt to inform students of any changes as they occur. However, it is the student’s responsibility to keep current on all College policies, procedures and practices. It is the student’s responsibility to review university and academic program policies and procedures in detail and to request any clarification needed from the Office of Student Affairs. Violation of university policies or procedures may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal from the program. Action may be taken against a student notwithstanding his or her failure to appear or otherwise participate in disciplinary or grievance proceedings.

Students are required to investigate for themselves as to whether the program they enroll in meets their personal and career needs. Thus, Touro University California disclaims any liability for promises, assurances, representations, warrantees or other statements made in its marketing or promotional materials, and makes absolutely no promises, assurances, representations, warrantees or other statements concerning a student’s academic success. While students expend significant sums associated with higher education, successful completion of a course, program, or degree is dependent on many factors. The payment of tuition entitles a student to register and matriculate in the courses and programs available and offered by the Touro University California school or program in which the student is enrolled. In order for a degree to be earned, the required grades and grade point averages must be achieved and maintained, and all other requirements of the school and program must be fulfilled.

Registration and matriculation at Touro University California after the issuance of this catalog is consideration for and constitutes a student’s knowing acceptance of the binding Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”) mechanisms (including binding arbitration) contained herein. Thus, any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or related to your application, registration, matriculation, graduation or other separation from Touro University California and/or this catalog, which is not resolved through Touro College and University System’s ADR mechanisms shall be resolved exclusively through final and binding expedited arbitration conducted solely before the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), or any successor in interest, in accordance with the AAA Rules then in effect. The location of the arbitration shall be at a convenient office on a Touro College and University System campus where the student is (or was last) affiliated.

1.0 POLICY
This policy applies to all members of the Touro community, including students, faculty, and administrators as well as third-party (including, but not limited to, vendors, invitees, etc.).

Discrimination or harassment of any kind in regards to a person’s sex is not tolerated at our institution. Information and/or training regarding this policy is available to students, faculty, and staff. In addition, information about this policy will be available on Touro University California’s (“Touro”) website.

2.0 PURPOSE
All divisions of Touro seek to foster a collegial atmosphere where students are nurtured and educated through close faculty-student relationships, student camaraderie, and individualized attention. Discrimination or harassment of any kind is anathema to Touro’s mission, history, and identity. Touro will resolve any identified discrimination in a timely and effective manner, and will ensure that it does not recur.

Those believing that they have been harassed or discriminated against on the basis of their sex, including sexual harassment, should immediately contact the Title IX coordinator. When Touro has notice of the occurrence, Touro is compelled to take immediate and effective corrective action reasonably calculated to stop the harassment, prevent its recurrence, and as appropriate, remedy its effects.

3.0 DEFINITIONS
3.1 Discrimination and Harassment
Title IX, and its implementing regulations, prohibit discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment. The prohibition against discrimination extends to employment and third-parties. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature and can include sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct. Environmental harassment (sometimes referred to as hostile environment) is sexually harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive to limit an individual’s ability to participate in or receive benefits, services, or opportunities at Touro. This can include persistent comments or jokes about an individual’s, sex; verbal behavior, including insults, remarks, epithets, or derogatory statements; nonverbal behavior, including graffiti, inappropriate physical advances short of physical violence such as repeated and unwanted touching; and assault, including physical violence or the threat of physical violence.

3.2 Retaliation
Retaliation is any kind of reprisal, adverse action, or negative action taken against an individual because he or she has: (1) complained about alleged discrimination or harassment as defined above, (2) participated as a party or witness in an investigation relating to such allegations, or (3) participated as a party or witness in a proceeding regarding such allegations. Retaliation can occur contemporaneously during the complaint process or subsequent to it, once the retaliator is aware of the recipient’s participation in the process. Retaliation does not exist in the absence of an adverse action. An individual is protected from retaliation even when the complaint at issue is ultimately found to lack merit, as long as the complaint was made in good faith.
Touro does not allow, nor tolerate any conduct by any Touro community member that may be regarded as retaliatory. Retaliation against any individual, whether said person submitted a complaint through the method described below in section 5.22 below, or for any other reason will not be tolerated.

3.3 Title IX Coordinator
The Title IX Coordinator or his designee (“Title IX Coordinator”) is trained and knowledgeable about enforcement, compliance, communication, and implementation of Touro’s anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policy.

The Title IX Coordinator’s contact information is as follows:

Kathy Lowe
Director of Employee Relations

4.0 CONFIDENTIALITY
Touro has independent obligations to report or investigate potential misconduct, even if a complainant does not wish to initiate an official process. Therefore, absolute confidentiality cannot be promised with respect to a complaint of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or retaliation received either through Touro’s compliance hotline or otherwise. The phone number for the Touro hotline is 212-463-0400 x5330.

Touro wishes, however, to create an environment in which legitimate complaints are encouraged, while also protecting the privacy of all involved in an investigation. Complaints about violations of these policies will therefore be handled in strict confidence, with facts made available only to those who need to know in order for Touro to promptly and thoroughly investigate and resolve the matter.

5.0 PROCEDURES & IMPLEMENTATION
5.1 Duty to Report Violations

5.2 Formal Investigation and Resolution of Discrimination, Harassment, or Retaliation Complaints
5.21 Duty to Cooperate and Facilitate
All members of the Touro community are required to cooperate fully with any investigations of discrimination or harassment. A faculty member, staff member, or student who has relevant information and refuses to cooperate with an ongoing investigation will be subject to disciplinary action for, among other things, violations of the Touro University California Code of Conduct and/or insubordination. Likewise, all Touro employees are required to ensure that complaints about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are directed to the appropriate administrative office for evaluation and investigation. Touro is committed to conducting an inquiry that is thorough, prompt and impartial.

A complaint, which must be submitted within the later of the following two dates: (a) thirty (30) days after the alleged misconduct; or, (b) the end of the semester in which the alleged incident occurred. A complaint should include the following information:

a. Complainant’s full name, home address, email, telephone number, and Touro Student/Employee ID number.
b. Name of the person against whom the complaint was made, including job title or student status, if known.
c. The protected status that is the basis for the alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on the complainant’s gender.
d. A clear statement of the facts that constitute the alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, including dates on which the acts were committed and any information to identify witnesses.
e. Complainant should include the term and year of his/her most recent active employment, academic, or student status within the university.
f. A student who is seeking admission to Touro should include the term and year in which he/she sought admission to the university.
g. The full name, address, and telephone number of complainant’s advisor or supervisor, if any.
h. The specific harm that resulted from the alleged act and the remedy sought.
i. The complainant’s signature and the date on which the complaint was submitted.

While prompt reporting is expected, complaints older than 30 days will be processed. However, if more than 365 days have elapsed since the day of the complaint, the complaint may not be processed. Every effort is made to conduct a thorough and speedy investigation. Several factors may impact Touro’s ability to conduct a prompt investigation, including, but not limited to: the Complainant’s accessibility or unresponsiveness, witness availability or unresponsiveness, the number of witnesses, the timing of the investigation (i.e. if an investigation is being conducted at a time when students are taking final exams or on recess), etc.
5.23 Intake Interview

After receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee will meet with the complainant as soon as possible, usually within one week, but not later than thirty (30) days after receipt. The complainant must make himself/herself available to meet.

The meeting will be an intake interview where the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee will inform the complainant about the investigation procedure and timeline. The complainant may sign a formal complaint form at that time (under the above guidelines) if he/she has not already done so. A complaint will proceed even in the absence of a signed written complaint.

5.24 Complaints about Students, Faculty, Other Employees or Third Parties

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee, shall investigate the circumstances of the complaint. This investigation will include documented interviews of the complainant, the person against whom the complaint is written, and witnesses with relevant knowledge, if any. Further, the investigation will include a review of relevant documents and any other evidence.

The Title IX Coordinator shall have thirty (30) days from the intake interview to complete the investigation of the event in question. Such thirty (30) days may be extended in the event that one of the following occurs:

- Availability or unavailability of a witness or relevant/material documents;
- Recalcitrance of a witness and/or any necessary party;
- Delay or other uncooperative actions of any necessary party;
- Number of witnesses;
- Holidays and vacation periods;
- Any other unforeseeable events/circumstances.

Generally speaking an investigation will take less than 60 calendar days following receipt of the complaint. This may not be practicable in every investigation and may vary depending on the complexity of the investigation and the severity and extent of the harassment. The Title IX Coordinator shall report the findings of the investigation to a designated, impartial Fact Finder. The Fact Finder shall endeavor to issue a determination within fifteen days after receipt of the investigation file to determine and detail: (a) whether there is probable cause to believe discrimination occurred with respect to each allegation in the complaint, (b) a description of actions taken, if any, to prevent similar problems from occurring in the future, and (c) the proposed resolution of the complaint.

5.25 Preponderance of the Evidence

The greater weight of evidence in an investigation meaning that one party’s evidence outweighs the evidence of the other.

5.26 Notice of Determination and Further Action

Both the complainant, the party who filed the complaint or the alleged target of the sexual harassment, and the respondent, the accused, shall be informed of the fact finder’s decision within ten days of the conclusion of the fact finder’s deliberation. Please refer to Section 4.0 for the policies regarding the confidentiality of this determination. At the time of the receipt of this notice both parties will be informed of any actions or precautions that will be taken in response to the decision. Questions concerning these further actions should be addressed to the Title IX Coordinator Kathy Lowe (see Section 3.3 for contact information) or the appropriate office as required by the fact finder’s decision.
Appendix H: Policies Concerning Sex Discrimination Harassment and Complaint Procedure

5.3 Grade Appeals
Touro has a grade appeal process which is not circumvented by this policy. This procedure is not a substitute for a grade appeal. A grade appeal may be suspended until a determination has been made by the fact finder.

5.4 Discipline
Employees, faculty and students who violate Touro’s policies may be subject to disciplinary action. Individuals who retaliate against someone who files a complaint, or against a witness, representative, or advocate for a complainant, will be subject to further disciplinary action.

Consistent with this Policy Touro will take prompt effective action to resolve any identified discrimination, and take steps to avoid a reoccurrence.

5.5 Retaliation
Touro does not allow, nor tolerate any conduct by any Touro community member that may be regarded as retaliatory. Retaliation against any individual, whether said person submitted a complaint through the method described above in section 5.22 or for any other reason, will not be tolerated.

5.6 Availability of Counseling
As required under Title IX Touro University California through its investigations and/or Title IX Compliance officer will offer its internal counseling services to any complainant or respondent involve in the complaint process. It is ultimately the complainant’s or the respondent’s decision whether or not to accept the counseling service offered by Touro University California.

6.0 EXTERNAL REPORTING
Members of the Touro community are always subject to local, state, and federal laws, and nothing in these procedures is intended to limit or postpone the right of an individual to file a complaint or charge with appropriate federal, state, or local departments or agencies.

Gender Based and

GENDER-BASED AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

INTRODUCTION
Members of the Touro University California (university) community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of gender and sex-based discrimination, examples of which can include acts of sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. University believes in a zero tolerance policy for gender-based misconduct. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administration’s attention, and a respondent is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and to establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

POLICY EXPECTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO PHYSICAL SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
The expectations of our community regarding sexual misconduct can be summarized as follows: In order for individuals to engage in sexual activity of any type with each other, there must be clear, knowing and voluntary consent prior to and during sexual activity. Consent is sexual permission. Consent can be given by word or action, but non-verbal consent is not as clear as talking about what you want sexually and what you don’t. Consent to some form of sexual activity cannot be automatically taken as consent to any other form of sexual activity. Silence—without actions demonstrating permission—cannot be assumed to show consent.

Additionally, there is a difference between seduction and coercion. Coercing someone into sexual activity violates this policy in the same way as physically forcing someone into sex. Coercion happens when someone is pressured unreasonably for sex.

Because alcohol or other drug use can place the capacity to consent in question, sober sex is less likely to raise such questions. When alcohol or other drugs are being used, a person will be considered unable to give valid consent if they cannot fully understand the details of a sexual interaction (who, what, when, where, why, or how) because they lack the capacity to reasonably understand the situation. Individuals who consent to sex must be able to understand what they are doing. Under this policy, “No” always means “No,” and “Yes” may not always mean “Yes.” Anything but a clear, knowing and voluntary consent to any sexual activity is equivalent to a “No.”

POLICY EXPECTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS
There are inherent risks in any romantic or sexual relationship between individuals in unequal positions (such as teacher and student, supervisor and employee). These relationships may be less consensual than perceived by the individual whose position confers power. The relationship also may be viewed in different ways by each of the parties, particularly in retrospect. Furthermore, circumstances may change, and conduct that was previously welcome may become unwelcome. Even when both parties have consented at the outset to a romantic or sexual involvement, this past consent may not remove grounds for a later charge of a violation of applicable sections of the faculty/staff handbooks. The university does not wish to interfere with private choices regarding personal relationships when these relationships do not interfere with the goals and policies of the university. For the personal protection of members of this community, relationships in which power differentials are inherent (faculty-student, staff-student, administrator-student) are generally discouraged.
Appendix I: Gender Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy

Consensual romantic or sexual relationships in which one party maintains a direct supervisory or evaluative role over the other party are unethical. Therefore, persons with direct supervisory or evaluative responsibilities who are involved in such relationships must bring those relationships to the timely attention of their supervisor. A likely result will be the removal of one of the employees from the supervisory or evaluative responsibilities, or shift the student out of being supervised or evaluated by someone with whom they have established a consensual relationship. This includes student supervisors (of any type) and students over whom they have direct responsibility. While no relationships are prohibited by this policy, failure to self-report such relationships to a supervisor as required can result in disciplinary action for an employee.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE -- RISK REDUCTION TIPS
Risk reduction tips can often take a victim-blaming tone, even unintentionally. With no intention to victim-blame, and with recognition that only those who commit sexual violence are responsible for those actions, these suggestions may nevertheless help you to reduce your risk of experiencing a non-consensual sexual act. Below, suggestions to avoid committing a non-consensual sexual act are also offered:

1. If you have limits, make them known as early as possible.
2. Tell a sexual aggressor “NO” clearly and firmly.
3. Try to remove yourself from the physical presence of a sexual aggressor.
4. Find someone nearby and ask for help.
5. Take affirmative responsibility for your alcohol intake/drug use and acknowledge that alcohol/drugs lower your sexual inhibitions and may make you vulnerable to someone who views a drunk or high person as a sexual opportunity.
6. Take care of your friends and ask that they take care of you. A real friend will challenge you if you are about to make a mistake. Respect them when they do.

If you find yourself in the position of being the initiator of sexual behavior, you owe sexual respect to your potential partner. These suggestions may help you to reduce your risk for being accused of sexual misconduct:

1. Clearly communicate your intentions to your sexual partner and give them a chance to clearly relate their intentions to you.
2. Understand and respect personal boundaries.
3. DON’T MAKE ASSUMPTIONS about consent; about someone’s sexual availability; about whether they are attracted to you; about how far you can go or about whether they are physically and/or mentally able to consent. If there are any questions or ambiguity then you DO NOT have consent.
4. Mixed messages from your partner are a clear indication that you should stop, defuse any sexual tension and communicate better. You may be misreading them. They may not yet have clearly resolve the question of how much contact they wish to have with you. You must respect the timeline for sexual behaviors with which they are comfortable.
5. Don’t take advantage of someone’s drunkenness or drugged state, even if they did it to themselves.
6. Realize that your potential partner could be intimidated by you, or fearful. You may have a power advantage simply because of your gender, size, work role or supervisory position. Don’t abuse that power.
Appendix I:
Gender Based and
Sexual Misconduct Policy

7. Understand that consent to some form of sexual behavior does not automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual behavior.
8. Silence and passivity cannot be interpreted as an indication of consent. Read your potential partner carefully, paying attention to verbal and non-verbal communication and body language.

In campus hearings, legal terms like “guilt, “innocence” and “burdens of proof” are not applicable, but the university never assumes a student is in violation of university policy. Campus hearings are conducted to take into account the totality of all evidence available, from all relevant sources.

The university reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary in response to an allegation of sexual misconduct in order to protect students’ rights and personal safety. Such measures include, but are not limited to:

• modification of living arrangements, classroom/study and/or academic arrangements
• interim suspension from campus pending a hearing, and
• reporting the matter to the local police.

Not all forms of sexual misconduct will be deemed to be equally serious offenses, and the university reserves the right to impose different sanctions, ranging from verbal warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the offense. The university will consider the concerns and rights of both the complainant and the person accused of sexual misconduct.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT OFFENSES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:
1. Sexual Harassment
2. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact
3. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse
4. Domestic Violence
5. Dating Violence
6. Stalking
7. Sexual Exploitation

1. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual Harassment is, unwelcome, gender-based verbal, written, online, and/or physical conduct.

Anyone experiencing sexual harassment in any university program is encouraged to report it immediately to the university’s Title IX Coordinator, the Dean of Student Affairs or, any responsible university employee.

Sexual harassment creates a hostile environment, and may be disciplined when it is sufficiently severe, persistent/pervasive and objectively offensive that it,

• has the effect of unreasonably interfering with, denying or limiting employment opportunities or the ability to participate in or benefit from the university’s educational, social and/or residential programs (currently the university has no residential facilities), and is • based on power differentials (quid pro quo), produces the effect of a hostile environment or retaliation.
2. NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL CONTACT
Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is:
- any intentional sexual touching,
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Sexual touching includes any bodily contact with the breasts, groin, genitals, mouth or other bodily orifice of another individual, or any other bodily contact in a sexual manner.

3. NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL INTERCOURSE
Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse is:
- any sexual intercourse (anal, oral or vaginal),
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Sexual penetration includes vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, tongue, finger or object, or oral copulation by mouth to genital contact or genial to mouth contact.

4. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by:
- a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim
- a person with whom the victim shares a child in common
- a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner,
- a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies (under VAWA) or,
- any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Appendix I: Gender Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy

1 In the State of California sexual assault is a general term which covers a range of crimes, including rape. As defined under California law, rape is non-consensual sexual intercourse that involves the use of threat of force, violence, or immediate and unlawful bodily injury or threats of future retaliation and duress.

Sexual intercourse is considered non-consensual and, therefore, rape when the person is incapable of giving consent because s/he is incapacitated from alcohol and/or drugs, or if a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability renders the victim incapable of giving consent. Whether the accused is a stranger, acquaintance, spouse, or friend is irrelevant to the legal definition of rape (for the Penal Code definition of rape, see http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/cgi-bin/displaycode?section=pen&group=00001-01000&file=261-269).

Beside rape, other acts of sexual assault include forced anal intercourse, forced oral copulation, penetration of the anal or vaginal area with a foreign object, and forcibly touching an intimate part of another person. Men as well as women can be victims of these other forms of sexual assault. Unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor (statutory rape) occurs when the victim is considered incapable of giving legal consent because they are 17 years old or less, even if the intercourse is consensual. Where the person engaging in sexual intercourse with a minor is not more than three years older than the minor, the crime is a misdemeanor. If more than three years older, then the crime is a felony. If a student, staff person, member of the faculty or other academic appointee is charged with rape, s/he can be prosecuted under California criminal statutes, as well as disciplined under appropriate discipline procedures. Even if the criminal justice authorities choose not to prosecute, the campus can pursue disciplinary action and the complainant can file a civil suit. In addition to rape, as defined by California law, the University will not tolerate any non-consensual penetration, however slight, or non-consensual fellatio or cunnilingus, and will take appropriate action when such acts are reported. The definition of sexual assault which is applicable to criminal prosecutions for sexual assault in California, may differ from the definition used on campus to address policy violations.
5. DATING VIOLENCE is violence committed by a person:
   - who is or has been in a social relationship or a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
   - where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
     ○ the length of the relationship;
     ○ the type of relationship; and
     ○ the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

6. STALKING is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:
   - fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
   - suffer substantial emotional distress.

7. SEXUAL EXPLOITATION
   Sexual Exploitation refers to a situation in which a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another, and situations in which the conduct does not fall within the definitions of Sexual Harassment, Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse or Non-Consensual Sexual Contact. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
   - Sexual voyeurism (such as watching a person undressing, using the bathroom or engaged in sexual acts without the consent of the person observed)
   - Taking pictures or video or audio recording another in a sexual act, or in any other private activity without the consent of all involved in the activity, or exceeding the boundaries of consent (such as allowing another person to hide in a closet and observe sexual activity, or disseminating sexual pictures without the photographed person’s consent)
   - Prostitution
   - Sexual exploitation also includes engaging in sexual activity with another person while knowingly infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) or other sexually transmitted disease (STD) and without informing the other person of the infection, and further includes administering alcohol or drugs (such as “date rape” drugs) to another person without his or her knowledge or consent

CONSENT DEFINED
Consent is knowing, voluntary and clear permission by word or action, to engage in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. Since individuals may experience the same interaction in different ways, it is the responsibility of each party to make certain that the other has consented before engaging in the activity. For consent to be valid there must be a clear expression in words or actions that the other individual consented to that specific sexual conduct.

A person cannot consent if he or she is unable to understand what is happening or is disoriented, helpless, asleep or unconscious for any reason, including due to alcohol or other drugs. An individual who engages in sexual activity when the individual knows, or should know, that the other person is physically or mentally incapacitated has violated this policy.
Appendix I:
Gender Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy

It is not an excuse that the individual responding party of sexual misconduct was intoxicated due to alcohol and/or drugs and therefore, did not realize the incapacity of the other.

Incapacitation is defined as a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction). This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, involuntary physical restraint and/or from the taking of incapacitating drugs.

Consent to some sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) cannot be presumed to be consent for other sexual activity (such as intercourse). A current or previous dating relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent. The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar previous patterns that may be evidenced. Silence or the absence of resistance alone is not consent. A person can withdraw consent at any time during sexual activity by expressing in words or actions that he or she no longer wants the act to continue, and, if that happens, the other person must stop immediately.

In the State of California, a minor (meaning a person 17 years of age or younger) cannot consent to sexual activity. This means that sexual contact by an adult with a person 17 year old or younger may be a crime, as well as a violation of this policy, even if the minor wanted to engage in the act.

FORCE DEFINED

Force is the use of
- physical violence and/or
- imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access.

Force also includes
- threats,
- intimidation (implied threats) and
- coercion that overcome resistance or produce consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you. Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.”).

- Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.
- NOTE: There is no requirement that a party resist the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The presence of force is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not by definition forced.
- In order to give effective consent, one must be of legal age.
- Sexual activity with someone who one should know to be -- or based on the circumstances should reasonably have known to be -- mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a

2 The State of California definition of consent is positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will. The person must act freely and voluntarily and have knowledge of the nature of the act or transaction involved, which is applicable to criminal prosecutions for sex offenses in California, but may differ from the definition used on campus to address policy violations.
Appendix I: Gender Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy

  ○ Incapacitation is a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction).
  ○ This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, or from the taking of rape drugs. Possession, use and/or distribution of any of these substances, including Rohypnol, Ketomine, GHB, Burundanga, etc. is prohibited, and administering one of these drugs to another student is a violation of this policy. More information on these drugs can be found at http://www.911rape.org/
  • Use of alcohol or other drugs will never function as a defense to a violation of this policy.
  • The sexual orientation and/or gender identity of individuals engaging in sexual activity is not relevant to allegations under this policy. For reference to the pertinent state statutes on sex offenses, please see http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/cgi-bin/calawquery?codesection=pen

SANCTION STATEMENT

• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Contact (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.*
• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Intercourse will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion.*
• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on sexual exploitation or sexual harassment will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.*

*The conduct body reserves the right to broaden or lessen any range of recommended sanctions in the case of serious mitigating circumstances or egregiously offensive behavior. Neither the initial hearing officers nor any appeals body or officer will deviate from the range of recommended sanctions unless compelling justification exists to do so.

EXAMPLES of POLICY VIOLATIONS

1. Amanda and Bill meet at a party. They spend the evening dancing and getting to know each other. Bill convinces Amanda to come up to his room. From 11:00pm until 3:00am, Bill uses every line he can think of to convince Amanda to have sex with him, but she adamantly refuses. He keeps at her, and begins to question her religious convictions, and accuses her of being “a prude.” Finally, it seems to Bill that her resolve is weakening, and he convinces her to give him a “hand job” (hand to genital contact). Amanda would never have done it but for Bill’s incessant advances. He feels that he successfully seduced her, and that she wanted to do it all along, but was playing shy and hard to get. Why else would she have come up to his room alone after the party? If she really didn’t want it, she could have left. Bill is responsible for violating the university Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Contact policy. It is likely that a university hearing board would find that the degree and duration of the pressure Bill applied to Amanda are unreasonable. Bill coerced Amanda into performing unwanted sexual touching upon him. Where sexual activity is coerced, it is forced. Consent is not effective when forced. Sex without effective consent is sexual misconduct.

2. Jiang is a junior at the university. Beth is a sophomore. Jiang comes to Beth’s apartment with some mutual friends to watch a movie. Jiang and Beth, who have never met before, are attracted to each other. After the movie, everyone leaves, and Jiang and Beth are alone. They hit it off, and are soon becoming more intimate. They start to make out. Jiang verbally expresses his desire to have sex with Beth. Beth, who was abused by a baby-sitter when she was five, and has not had any sexual relations since, is shocked at how quickly things are progressing. As Jiang takes her by the wrist over to the bed, lays her down, undresses her, and begins to have intercourse with her, Beth has a severe flashback to her childhood trauma. She wants to tell Jiang to stop, but cannot. Beth is stiff and unresponsive during the intercourse. Is this a policy violation?

Jiang would be held responsible in this scenario for Non Consensual Sexual Intercourse. It is the duty of the sexual initiator, Jiang, to make sure that he has mutually understandable consent to engage in sex. Though consent need not be verbal, it is the clearest form of consent. Here, Jiang had no verbal or non-verbal mutually understandable indication from Beth that she consented to sexual intercourse. Of course, wherever possible, students should attempt to be as clear as possible as to whether or not sexual contact is desired, but students must be aware that for psychological reasons, or because of alcohol or drug use, one’s partner may not be in a position to provide as clear an indication as the policy requires. As the policy makes clear, consent must be actively, not passively, given.

3. Kevin and Amy are at a party. Kevin is not sure how much Amy has been drinking, but he is pretty sure it’s a lot. After the party, he walks Amy to her apartment, and Amy comes on to Kevin, initiating sexual activity. Kevin asks her if she is really up to this, and Amy says yes. Clothes go flying, and they end up in Amy’s bed. Suddenly, Amy runs for the bathroom. When she returns, her face is pale, and Kevin thinks she may have thrown up. Amy gets back into bed, and they begin to have sexual intercourse. Kevin is having a good time, though he can’t help but notice that Amy seems pretty groggy and passive, and he thinks Amy may have even passed out briefly during the sex, but he does not let that stop him. When Kevin runs into Amy the next day, he thanks her for the wild night. Amy remembers nothing, and decides to make a complaint to the Dean. This is a violation of the Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse Policy. Kevin should have known that Amy was incapable of making a rational, reasonable decision about sex. Even if Amy seemed to consent, Kevin was well aware that Amy had consumed a large amount of alcohol, and Kevin thought Amy was physically ill, and that she passed out during sex. Kevin should be held accountable for taking advantage of Amy in her condition. This is not the level of respectful conduct expected of students.

Other Civil Rights Offenses, When the Act is Based Upon Sex/Gender

- Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person on the basis of their actual or perceived membership in a protected class
- Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits or opportunities on the basis of their actual or perceived membership in a protected class. Discrimination can also involve treating an individual less favorably because of his or her connection with an organization or group that is generally associated with people of a certain protected class.

- Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class
- Hazing, defined as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the university community, when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity (as defined further in the hazing policy) on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class; hazing is also illegal under State law and prohibited by university policy
- Bullying, defined as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class
- Violence between those in an intimate relationship to each other on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class (this includes romantic relationships, dating, domestic and/or relationship violence)
- Stalking defined as a course of conduct directed at a specific person on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class that is unwelcome and would cause a reasonable person to feel fear
- Any other university rules, when a violation is motivated by the actual or perceived membership of the victim on the basis of sex or gender or in a protected class, may be pursued using this policy and process.

Sanctions for the above-listed “Other Civil Rights Behaviors” behaviors range from reprimand up through and including expulsion (students) or termination of employment.

3. The State of California definition of domestic violence is abuse committed against an adult or a minor who is a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, or person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship, which is applicable to criminal prosecutions for domestic violence in California, but may differ from the definition used on campus to address policy violations.

4. Examples:
   - Employee A has been in an intimate relationship with Employee B for over a year; Employee A punches Employee B in the face during an argument (Dating Violence).
   - Student A has been in an intimate relationship with Student B for over a year; Students A & B live together. During an argument, Student A shoves Student B to the ground (Domestic Violence).

5. The State of California definition of stalking is any person who willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follows or willfully and maliciously harasses another person and who makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear for his or her safety, or the safety of his or her immediate family, which is applicable to criminal prosecutions for stalking in California, but may differ from the definition used on campus to address policy violations.

6. Examples:
   - Employee A recently ended an intimate relationship with Employee B. For the past three weeks, B has been sending A 100 text messages per day and waits by A’s car at the end of each day to beg and plead with her to take him back. When she refuses, he loses control, makes threatening gestures, and tells her she will regret this. Employee A indicates she is fearful of what B might do to her (Stalking).
   - Mark is a student on campus who has always been fascinated by women who dye their hair. One day, he notices MaryLou, whose hair is dyed a very bright purple. He follows her home to see where she lives, and begins to track her history, actions and movements online. His fascination increases to the point where he follows her frequently on campus, takes pictures of her without her permission, and spies through her window at night with a long-range camera lens. He wants to have her beautiful purple hair for his own, so that he can stroke it whenever he wants.
Appendix J: Drug Screening Procedures

DRUG SCREENING PROCEDURES
TUC Students enrolled in the Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy, PA/MPH and Nursing programs must meet a variety of institutional and third party standards in order to participate in their clinical rotations. TUC establishes the academic standards and experiential educational standards for all educational experiences, such as for clinical rotations. Clinical rotation standards and policies are stated in full detail in each program’s student handbook. However, since the clinical rotation experience is common to several academic programs, the university drug screening procedures apply to all academic programs requiring clinical rotations.

Clearance Monitoring and Release of Records
TUC Student Health Center (SHC) facilitates the gathering, collating and validation of the required health clearance data for student rotations through the E*Value system for all programs except the Nursing program. In addition to health screening, immunization, and titer requirements, students are required to pass a drug screen analysis in order to participate in any clinical activity. While the specific thresholds and drug clearance requirements vary among clinical sites, almost all of the clinical sites require that students pass a drug screen prior to the first day of rotations. SHC obtains a signed release of information that includes the student’s approval for the TUC SHC to share the student’s drug screen results with the student’s clinical rotation sites. Additionally it is acknowledged that the clinical sites may keep copies of the student’s drug screen results for up to three years after discontinuation of the rotation in order to comply with the clinical site’s specific accreditation requirements.

Payment
The first drug screen test is paid for through the university collected student health fee. TUC will arrange for the third party vendor to offer the initial screening on campus at the university expense. All students who are required to have a drug screen are encouraged to utilize the services provided. Students failing to attend an on campus drug screening event sponsored by SHC may be required to obtain screening on their own and pay the costs. Students obtaining a drug screen on their own must request the vendor to provide a copy of those results to SHC staff. The university pays for the initial drug screen test (when obtained during SHC arranged on campus events) and may pay for some that are required to be conducted within 30 days of the start of a rotation. All elective rotations and student requested rotations requiring additional screening shall be completed at the student’s expense. Students may be responsible for payment for initial and /or subsequent drug screen tests for other reasons, including, but not limited to student noncompliance and retesting as the result of positive results.

Screening
TUC contracts with an independent third party to conduct the laboratory analysis and TUC has no control over the results of the screening. The results are submitted by the third party vendor to the SHC staff who will record, maintain and report the results to the student’s program and where needed, to clinical sites (please note that the COM and COP academic programs provide this information to the clinical sites in the third year).

Notice
Students will be given notice a minimum of seven calendar days prior to the initial drug screening test. Special circumstances that prevent the student from participating in the scheduled drug screen test must be discussed with the appropriate academic program administrator prior to the test in order to receive an “excused absence.” The SHC (for Nursing students the vendor) will send each academic program a roster of the students who participated in the screening. Students who do not participate are reported as “no show” for the initial testing to their academic program administrators and will be required to pay for their initial drug screen test and may be subject to professionalism charges and/or university student conduct code violations. Students with an excused absence from the announced drug screen test day will still be given an opportunity to have the test paid for by the university at an agreed upon date. The “make-up” test must be completed within seven calendar days of the missed event. Again, the student who is “making-up” the drug screen test, must request that the vendor provide a copy of the test results to the SHC or to the Nursing Program administrator.

Reporting of Medication Usage
Students using prescription(s) or OTC medications that may impact the drug screen test must provide adequate documentation of the medical need and validity of the prescriptions(s) to the Student Health Center (or if in the Nursing program, to the Nursing program administrator) prior to the testing. The student is responsible for confirming that the screener noted the medications at the time of the test. A list of adequate documentation requirements is posted on the TUC SHC website.

Results
Students shall be provided two attempts to successfully pass the drug screen test. Students who fail the drug test are recommended to seek appropriate drug and alcohol counseling and/or remediation intervention.

First Failure
The student’s academic program will be notified. The student shall retest at their own expense within three to five calendar days after receipt of notification of the initial failure. SHC and the academic program will work together to make arrangements for the testing to be completed. Students acknowledge that this delay may have a serious impact on their ability to complete their scheduled clinical rotations and that this retaking of the drug screen test will mean that their rotation space may be given to another student. Furthermore, such delays may result in delayed graduation and additional tuition and/or fees. Students are referred to their academic programs for information regarding any additional programmatic disciplinary consequences.

Second Failure
Students who fail the second drug screen test will not be given a third opportunity to pass the drug test and their academic program administration will be notified of the second failure. Students may face program dismissal, professionalism charges and/or university student conduct charges for a failed second drug screen test. Please see the university Student Code of Conduct and the university Drug and Alcohol Use policy as well as academic program specific student handbooks for more information on what impact this may have on student enrollment status in a program.
STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Touro College and University System is a community of scholars and learners committed to maintaining the highest standards of personal integrity in all aspects of our professional and academic lives. Because intellectual integrity is a hallmark of scholarly and scientific inquiry as well as a core value of the Jewish tradition, students and faculty are expected to share a mutual respect for teaching, learning and the development of knowledge. They are expected to adhere to the highest standards of honesty, fairness, professional conduct of academic work and respect for all community members.

Academic dishonesty undermines our shared intellectual culture and our ability to trust one another. Faculty and administration bear a major responsibility for promoting a climate of integrity, both in the clarity with which they state their expectations and in the vigilance with which they monitor students. Students must avoid all acts of dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating on examinations, fabricating, tampering, lying and plagiarizing, as well as facilitating or tolerating the dishonesty of others. Academic dishonesty lowers scholastic quality and defrauds those who will eventually depend on the knowledge and integrity of our graduates.

The Touro College and University System views violations of academic integrity with the utmost gravity. Such violations will lead to appropriate sanctions, up to and including expulsion from the college community. We commit ourselves to the shared vision of academic excellence that can only flourish in a climate of integrity.

The Touro College and University System’s policy on academic integrity, which is outlined in this document, is designed to guide students as they prepare assignments, take exams, and perform the work necessary to complete their degree requirements, and to provide a framework for faculty in fostering an intellectual environment based on the principles of academic integrity. It is presented here in order to educate the faculty on the enforcement of the policy.

The International Center for Academic Integrity (ICAI), of which the Touro College and University System is a member, identifies five fundamental values of academic integrity that must be present if the academic life of an institution is to flourish: Honesty, Trust, Fairness, Respect, and Responsibility. To sustain these values, the TCUS Academic Integrity Policy, requires that a student or researcher:

- Properly acknowledge and cite all ideas, results, or words originally produced by others;
- Properly acknowledge all contributors to any piece of work;
- Obtain all data or results using ethical means;
- Report researched data without concealing any results inconsistent with student’s conclusions;
- Treat fellow students in an ethical manner, respecting the integrity of others and the right to pursue educational goals without interference. Students may neither facilitate another student’s academic dishonesty, nor obstruct another students’ academic progress
- Uphold ethical principles and the code of the profession for which the students is preparing.

Adherence to these principles is necessary to ensure that:

- Proper credit is given for ideas, words, results, and other scholarly accomplishment;
- No student has an inappropriate advantage over others;
- The academic and ethical development of students is fostered;
- The Touro College and University System is able to maintain its reputation for integrity in teaching, research, and scholarship.
Appendix K:
Touro College and University System
Academic Integrity Policy

Failure to uphold the principles of academic integrity threatens not only the reputation of Touro, but also the value of each and every degree awarded by the institution. All members of the Touro community bear a shared responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.

The Touro College and University System administration is responsible for working with faculty and students to promote an institutional culture of academic integrity, for providing effective educational programs that create a commitment to academic integrity, and for establishing fair procedures to deal with allegations of violations of academic integrity.

VIOLATIONS OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
The following are considered to be violations of academic integrity and are prohibited by the Touro College and University System. Students, faculty, and other members of the Touro College and University System community who commit one of the offenses listed below, or similar such offenses, or those who assist in the commission of such offenses, may be subject to sanctions (i.e. classes as A, B or C, as described below in the section “Procedures in Response to Violations of Academic Integrity”)

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is defined as the unauthorized use of the writings, ideas and/or computer-generated material of others without appropriate acknowledgement and the representation of them as one’s own original work. Plagiarism encompasses acts of inadvertent failure to acknowledge sources, as well as improper attribution due to poor citation.

When using ideas/words from other sources, the student must clearly define the sources using standard methods of citation. Plagiarism can occur even when one does not use the exact words of another author. Paraphrasing written material by changing or rearranging words without the proper attribution is still considered plagiarism (even if it eludes identification by plagiarism detection software). It is therefore critically important that students understand how to cite. If students have any questions about the proper use and citation of material from other sources, they should seek help from their professors.

Intentional Plagiarism
Plagiarism takes many forms. Flagrant forms, or intentional plagiarism, include, but are not limited to: purchasing a paper; commissioning another to draft a paper on one’s behalf; intentionally copying a paper regardless of the source and whether or not that paper has been published; copying or cutting and pasting portions of others’ work (whether a unique phrase, sentence, paragraph, chart, picture, figure, method or approach, experimental results, statistics, etc.) without attribution; and in the case of clinical documentation, copying clinical notes, materials without personally performing the patient examination. Plagiarized sources may include, but are not limited to, printed material, computer programs, CD-ROM video/audio sources, emails and material from social media sites and blogs, as well as assignments completed by other students at Touro College and University System and elsewhere. A more subtle, but equally flagrant, form is paraphrasing or attempting to put in one’s own words the theories, opinions or ideas of another without proper citation.

Additionally, students may not reuse their own previous work without appropriate citation. This is a form of plagiarism called self-plagiarism, and may mislead the reader or grader into the erroneous belief that the current submission is new work to satisfy an assignment.

If students are unsure as to whether a fact or idea is common knowledge, they should consult their instructor or librarian, or else provide appropriate citations.
Unintentional Plagiarism
Plagiarism is not only the failure to cite but the failure to cite sources properly. If a source is cited but in an inadequate way, the student(s) may still be guilty of unintentional plagiarism. It is therefore crucial that students understand the correct way to cite. The rules are relatively simple:

• For exact words, use quotation marks or a block indentation, with the citation.
• For a summary or paraphrase, show exactly where the source begins and exactly where it ends.

In its policies and disciplinary procedures, the Touro College and University System will seek to recognize and differentiate between intentional plagiarism, as defined above, and failure to cite sources properly (unintentional plagiarism). While both forms are violations of the Academic Integrity Policy, a student’s first instance of unintentional plagiarism may only be penalized with a Class C sanction (see sanctions below).

Cheating on Examinations and Other Class/Fieldwork Assignments
Cheating is defined as improperly obtaining and/or using unauthorized information or materials to gain an advantage on work submitted for evaluation. Providing or receiving assistance unauthorized by the instructor is also considered cheating.

Examples of cheating include, but are not limited to:
• Giving or receiving unauthorized assistance to or from another person on quizzes, examinations, or assignments;
• Using materials or devices not specifically authorized during any form of a test or examination;
• Exceeding the restrictions put in place for “take home” examinations, such as unauthorized use of library sources, intranet or Internet sources, or unauthorized collaboration on answers;
• Sitting in for someone else or permitting someone to sit in for you on any form of test or examination;
• Working on any form of test or examination beyond the allotted time;
• Hiding, stealing or destroying materials needed by other students;
• Altering and resubmitting for re-grading any assignment, test or examination;
• Copying from another individual’s examination or providing information to another student during an examination;
• Soliciting, obtaining, possessing or providing to another person an examination prior to the administration of the examination.

Examples of unauthorized assistance include:
• Giving or receiving assistance or information in any manner, including person-to-person, notes, text messages, or e-mails, during an examination or in the preparation of other assignments without the authorization of the instructor;
• Using crib sheets or unauthorized notes (unless the instructor provides explicit permission);
• Copying from another individual’s exam.

Failure to comply with any and all Touro College and University System test procedures will be considered a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy.

Research Misconduct and Other Unethical Conduct
The integrity of the scientific enterprise requires adherence to the highest ethical standards in the conduct of research and research training. Therefore, students and other trainees conducting research are bound by the same ethical guidelines that apply to faculty investigators based on the Public health Service
Appendix K:
Touro College and University System
Academic Integrity Policy

regulations dated May 17, 2005.

Research misconduct is defined in the USPHS Policy as “fabrication, falsification, or plagiarism in proposing, performing, or reviewing research, or in reporting research results.”

These terms are defined as follows:

(a) fabrication - making up data or results and recording or reporting them;

(b) falsification - manipulating research materials, equipment or processes, or changing or omitting data or results such that the research is not accurately represented in the research record;

(c) plagiarism - the appropriations of another person’s ideas, processes, results, or words without giving appropriate credit. Research misconduct does not include honest error or honest difference of opinion.

Misleading or Fraudulent Behavior
Misleading or fraudulent behavior, put simply, is lying, and includes acts contributing to or associated with lying. It takes on any form of fabrication, falsification or misrepresentation.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

• Reporting false information to gain an advantage;
• Omitting information or data resulting in misrepresenting or distorting findings or conclusions;
• Providing false information to explain lateness or to be excused from an assignment, class or clerkship function;
• Falsely accusing another of misbehavior, or otherwise misrepresenting information about another;
• Providing false information about oneself, such as on an application or as part of some competition;
• Taking credit for accomplishments achieved by another;
• Omitting relevant information about oneself.

Tampering
Tampering is unauthorized removal or alteration of College documents (e.g., library books, reference materials, official institutional forms, correspondence), software, equipment, or other academic-related materials, including other students’ work. It should be noted that tampering as a form of cheating may also be classified as criminal activity and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

• Tearing out the pages of an article from a library journal;
• Intentionally sabotaging another student’s work;
• Altering a student’s academic transcript, letter of recommendation, or some other official college document;
• Electronically changing another student’s or colleague’s files, data, assignments, or reports.

Copyright Violations
Academic integrity prohibits the making of unauthorized copies of copyrighted material, including software and any other non-print media. Individuals, under the legal doctrine of “fair use”, may make a copy of an article or copy small sections of a book for personal use, or may use an image to help teach a concept. Examples of copyright violations include:

• Making or distributing copies of a copyrighted article for a group (on paper or electronically)
• Disseminating an image or video of an artist’s work without permission (such as a Netter® or Adam® anatomical drawing)
• Copying large sections of a book

SANCTIONS
The following sanctions may be imposed for violation of this Policy. Sanctions of one class may be accompanied by sanctions of a lesser or greater class. Except in the case of a student’s expulsion or dismissal, any student found to have violated this Policy is required to take additional ethics tutorials intended to assist student to avoid future misconduct

Class A Sanctions:
• Expulsion/dismissal
• Revocation of awarded degree in the event that the violation is identified after graduation.

Class B Sanctions:
• Suspension (up to twenty-four months)
• Indication of the violation in a letter of reprimand, in reference letters, licensure and regulatory forms, etc.
• Notification of the violation to the other schools within the Touro College and University System
• Indication of ‘disciplinary action for academic integrity violation’ on the permanent transcript

Class C Sanctions:
• Placement on Academic Probation
• Failure in the course, with consequences as determined by the individual programs’ rules and regulations
• Reduction of the grade for a particular submitted piece of work, segment of work required for a course/clerkship, or the entire course/clerkship with or without the option of redoing the work or the course/clerkship
• Requiring the student to redo the assignment.

Repeat offenders may be subject to more stringent sanctions.

PROCEDURES IN RESPONSE TO VIOLATIONS OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
This Touro College and University System Academic Integrity Policy applies to all Touro students. Any act in violation of this Policy or any allegation of misconduct related to this Policy involving a student must be reported and addressed in accordance with the adjudication procedures outlined below or those of the student’s school, which may not be less stringent than the requirements and standards set forth in this Policy Statement.

The Dean of each school shall designate a member of the administration as Chief Academic Integrity Officer (herein referred to as the “CAI Officer”) to oversee the adjudication of violations and to maintain appropriate documentation. The CAI Officer must be an assistant dean or higher, or another appropriate responsible individual approved by the Provost or Vice President. The Provost shall designate a Dean responsible for hearing formal resolution appeals (herein referred to as the “Appeals Dean”). The CAI
Officer and the Appeals Dean cannot be the same individual

Reporting a Case of Suspected Plagiarism or Cheating

Faculty members, students, or other members of the Touro community who encounter suspected academic integrity violations should contact the Chair of the relevant department. The Chair will consult with the faculty member, and if a violation is identified the faculty member will inform the student. The Chair will also report all violations in writing (using the Academic Integrity Violation Reporting Form) to the CAO Officer. No permanent grade may be entered onto the student’s record for the course in question before the issue is resolved.

If an instructor strongly suspects cheating during an exam, the instructor should stop the students’ exam and collect all evidence of cheating. The incident should be immediately reported to the Chair, who will investigate and report in writing to the CAI officer.

Resolution of Academic Integrity Violations

Incidents of academic integrity violations are reported to the department Chairperson, and a report by the Chair is submitted to the CAI Officer. The method of resolution of the violation may be either informal or formal. Students who are found to have violated the Touro College and University system’s Standards of Academic Integrity are subject to the sanctions listed above.

Should a student action be of such a serious nature that it is felt that he/she may be considered a danger in a clinical setting, the CAI Officer or the department Chair may remove such a student from a clinical assignment, not to exceed fourteen (14) days pending the outcome of a formal resolution. A student shall not be removed from a didactic course while an allegation of an academic integrity violation is ongoing.

Informal Resolution

After consulting with the department Chair (as per “Reporting a Case of Suspected Plagiarism or Cheating”), the faculty member may attempt to resolve the issue informally with the student. Once an informal resolution is agreed to between the faculty member and the student, the faculty member must present such resolution and the sanctions imposed to the department Chair for approval. The faculty member, in consultation with the department Chair, may impose any range of Class C sanctions, but must include requiring the student to take additional ethics tutorials intended to assist the student avoid future misconduct. Once accepted by the student, the informal resolution is binding on both the student and faculty member, and cannot be appealed by the student.

The outcome of the informal resolution should be reported in writing by the department Chair to the CAI Officer, who will maintain the record for the duration of the student’s academic career. The informal resolution process is not available to individuals who have been previously reported.

Formal Resolution

In the event that (1) the student denies the charge, (2) the student and faculty member do not agree to informal resolution, (3) the student has been accused and found guilty before, or (4) for any other reason for which informal resolution is not appropriate as determined by the Chair or the CAI Officer, then the matter shall be submitted for formal resolution.

The Touro College and University System has developed the following formal method of resolution to deal with academic integrity allegations and complaints.
To institute formal resolution, the following procedures shall be followed:

- The Chief Academic Integrity Officer receives a written statement from the instructor or any other complainant, as the case may be.
- The written statement must include the name of the involved student, the name and status of the reporting person, and the nature of the alleged act.
- The CAI Officer shall arrange a hearing which, generally speaking, should take place no earlier than three (3) calendar days and no later than twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of the complaint.
- The hearing shall take place before the Standing Committee on Academic Integrity of the School.
- All persons involved in a hearing shall be given adequate notice of all hearing dates, times and places. Such notice, which may be by email and followed by a hard copy, will be given at least twenty-four hours prior to any hearing, unless waived by the parties involved.
- Postponements of Committee hearings may be made by the interested parties or the administration. The student may be granted a postponement if pertinent information or interested parties cannot for good cause be present at the appointed time. Any postponement may not extend beyond a three-month period.
- The student charged and the person making the charges will be afforded the following opportunities:
  - To review, but not copy, all pertinent information to be presented to the Committee. The length of time for review shall be reasonable, as determined by the Committee Chair.
  - To present fully all aspects of the issue before the Committee.

Committee Hearings will proceed under the following guidelines:

- All Committee hearings and meetings are to be closed to the public.
- The Committee may hear the student, the faculty member, and any other individual who may be knowledgeable or may have information to share with the Committee regarding the suspected offense. Each person will meet with the Committee on an individual basis.
- The Committee may consider relevant written reports, discussions with involved parties, examinations, papers, or other related documents.
- The Committee may consider relevant written reports, discussions with involved parties, examinations, papers, or other related documents.
- The Committee must be comprised of a minimum of three people, who must be represent either in person or via video-conference.
- All decisions shall be made by majority vote.
- The student has the right to appear in person before the Committee in order to present his/her case, but, after proper notice of a hearing, the Committee may proceed, notwithstanding the student’s absence.
- The hearing is academic in nature and non-adversarial. Student representation by an attorney or other counsel in not permitted.
- Audio recordings of the Hearing are not permitted.
- The chair of the committee shall prepare an executive summary that includes a written record of the charges that were reviewed, evidence that was considered, the decision that was made, and any instructions for follow-up.
- All information supporting the charges made against a student shall be presented first. Following this presentation, the student who has been accused of a violation will present his/her side of this issue, submitting to the Committee information that he/she chooses to submit to support the student’s stance or position. The CAI Officer, his or her designee, or other members of the Administration may also meaningfully participate in this information exchange. Pursuant to the Touro College and University System’s representatives may raise questions about the information under review so that all aspects of the case are clarified.

The Committee shall reach a decision using the following guidelines:

The Committee will meet in closed session to reach a decision, including recommended sanctions, if applicable. Such meeting will generally be held within one school day following the hearing.

If the Committee seeks additional information following commencement of its deliberations, it will notify the parties within two school days, and reconvene the hearing within five school days of the conclusion of the original hearing. The Committee’s final decision must then be made.

- The Committee may impose a range of Class A, B, or C sanctions.
- The Committee’s decision must be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and will be the final disposition of the issues involved, including sanctions. The decision of the Committee will be presented in writing to the CAI Officer, the student, and the department Chair. The Committee’s letter will contain the following elements: Charge; Hearing Date; Findings; List of Sanctions; and the Right to Appeal and to whom.

Appeal Process

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Following a Formal Resolution Hearing and notification of the Committee decision, a student may appeal the decision. An appeal may only be granted on the basis of: 1) evidence of bias of one or more of the members of the Committee; 2) new material documenting information that was not available at the time of the decision; 3) procedural error.
- The student has three 3) business days within which to submit a formal written appeal of the decision to the Appeals Dean for the School. The appeal should be accompanied by the Hearing Committee’s letter and by a narrative explaining the basis for the appeal. The narrative should fully explain the student’s situation and substantiate the reason(s) for the advocating a reversal or modification of the decision by the Committee.
- The Appeals Dean may request to meet with the student.
- After consideration of the Appeal, the Appeals Dean may accept, reject or modify the Committee’s decision, and will notify the student in writing of the decision.
- The Appeals Dean’s decision is FINAL, except in case where a Class A or Class B sanction has been imposed. The Appeals Dean, when notifying the student of the decision, shall inform the student of his/her right to appeal an adverse decision in the event a Class A or Class B sanction has been imposed.

A copy of the Appeals Dean’s final decision will be transmitted to the CAI Officer and the department Chair.

Only in the event that the Appeals Dean upholds a Class A or Class B sanction, may a student appeal that decision to the respective Chief Academic Officer (CAO). Such student has three(3) business days from receipt of written notification to submit a formal written appeal of the decision to the respective Chief Academic Officer (e.g., the Provost or Senior Provost) or his/her designee. The CAO may grant an appeal only on the basis of one of the following:

- Evidence of bias of one or more of the members of the Committee or of the Appeals Dean.
- New material documenting information that was not available to the Committee or the Appeals Dean at the time of the initial decision.
- Procedural error.

The CAO may conduct interviews and review material, as appropriate. The CAO will notify the student, the CAI Officer, and the Appeals Dean in writing of the appeal decision. The decision of the CAO shall be final.

Status of Student Pending Action

Pending resolution on charges, the status of the student will not be altered except in cases where the student may be considered a danger in a clinical setting. Such a student may be suspended only from the clinical aspect of their program pending the outcome of a formal resolution. If a student is suspended for any reason, all as-yet undisbursed financial aid may be withheld unless or until the action is fully resolved and the student is reinstated. If reinstated, the financial aid funds can be released to the student. If the student is dismissed, the funds will be returned to the proper agency or lender.

Recordkeeping

The CAI Officer of each school will maintain records of all violations and resolutions, both informal and formal. On an annual basis, the CAI Officer will submit data on academic integrity violations to the TCUS Academic Integrity Council.

Such records shall be kept in accordance with the Record Retention Policy as it relates to the student records.

A student may see his/her file in accordance with Touro College and University System regulations concerning inspection of records as spelled out in Guidelines for Access to and Disclosure of Educational Records Maintained by the Touro College and University System.

Distribution of Policy

The official Touro College and University System Policy on Academic Integrity should be distributed by the President’s Office. It should be added to the Faculty Handbook, Student Handbook, etc.

Honor Statement

The TCUS Academic Integrity Council will draft a template of an Honor Statement that would be adopted by Division and Schools of the TCUS for use in their individual programs such committee shall be three members.

Touro recognizes that emerging Internet-based services offer both potential organizational opportunity and risk and, as such, requires use of these services in ways that improve the commitment to our community of students, faculty and staff. These Internet services encompass a broad spectrum of online activity. For the purposes of this document, “Internet-based services” is defined as those that allow for user-generated content. These would include, but not be limited to: “wikis,” “blogs” (for which you write entries or comments); “live”-blogging tools such as “Twitter”; social networks such as “Facebook” and “MySpace”; professional networks such as “LinkedIn”; streaming media such as “YouTube”; discussion forums such as “listservs”; instant messaging; and social bookmarking tools such as “Digg.” Internet-based services extend to services that are not owned, operated, or controlled by Touro, as well as those that we do control, such as our websites and our Web portal and any networking sites paid to host a presence on Touro’s behalf.

As an educational institution, we recognize that these Internet-based services can support your academic and professional endeavors but we are also aware that if not used properly they can be damaging. Both in professional and institutional roles, students, faculty and staff should follow the same behavioral standards online as they should offline, and, are responsible for anything they post to a social media site regardless of whether the site is private (such as a portal open to only the Touro community) or public site. The same laws, professional expectations, and guidelines for interacting with students, parents, alumni, donors, media and other college agents apply online as apply offline.

Recognizing the benefits and risks associated with using these services, we have developed a policy to provide guidance to students, faculty and staff of Touro. This policy does not replace other policies or guidelines of Touro; it is in addition to specific policies such as the Information Security Policy, Code of Conduct, or the Acceptable Use Policy. This Policy will be reviewed periodically and will be updated, as necessary. You are responsible for keeping current on any changes to this or any other Touro policy and acting accordingly.

Section I: Policies for all Internet Based Services, Including Social Media Sites

1. Protect restricted, confidential and proprietary information: You may not post restricted, confidential, or proprietary information about Touro, students, faculty, staff or alumni to any site. Faculty and staff are required to follow the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and Health Information Technology Economic and Clinical Health Recovery (HITECH) Act, and to adhere to all Touro policies associated with privacy and confidentiality.

2. Respect copyright and fair use: Touro will always endeavor to respect the copyright and intellectual property rights of others and of the Institution. For guidance on these policies and questions on permissible use or copyrighted material please contact your local Library group at Touro.

Important Disclaimer

This policy does not form a contract. Touro College reserves the right to amend, modify, supplement or revoke this policy, in whole or in part, at any time with or without notice in its sole discretion. This policy is neither written nor meant to confer any rights or privileges on a individual or entity or impose any obligations on Touro College other than its obligations under the law. As with all Touro College policies, this policy is written for informational purposes only, may contain errors and may not be applicable to every situation or circumstance. Any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or related to this policy, which is not resolved through Touro College’s internal procedures (hereinafter, “Disputes”), shall be resolved exclusively through final and binding expedited arbitration conducted solely by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), or any successor in interest, in accordance with the AAA Rules then in effect. The location of the arbitration shall be Touro College’s main campus.

Academic Integrity Policy

3. Touro logos may not be used for endorsements: You may not use “Touro College,” “Touro University” or any other Touro logo or iconography on personal social media sites unless permission is granted by the Touro “Legal Department” and the posting is made in conformity with Touro logo usage policy which is incorporated here by reference. You may not use Touro’s name or any Touro logo to promote a product, cause or political party or candidate.

4. Respect property: Touro computers and use of Touro IT resources are reserved for Touro-related business as approved by supervisors and in accordance with the Acceptable Use Policy, incorporated herein by reference.

5. Monitoring: Know that Touro can track Internet usage, as well as review the content of the usage. This review may be used to determine the efficacy and legality of usage by Touro employees. We are particularly concerned with anything that may compromise network security or restricted or confidential information, such as student records.

6. Terms of service: Adhere to the Terms of Service of any and all social media and Internet services used. Remember that any services hosted and contracted for on Touro’s behalf are required to abide by Touro policies and practices, as well.

7. Consequences for infractions: If you work for or represent Touro, we trust you to be responsible with your work time. Please note that violations of this policy, like any other Touro Policy, are governed by the Touro Code of Conduct Policy. Any disregard of Touro policies that are impacted in any way by this policy shall be considered violations and may be grounds for discipline, including termination of employment.

Section II: Practices for all Internet-Based Services including Social Media

1. Posting, interacting and managing online services on behalf of Touro:
   a. Our most valuable commodities are the Touro name and reputation. Only designated people directly representing Touro are authorized to post and interact online on behalf of Touro, to reduce risk and ensure our message is consistent and that we’re not duplicating effort or information. Touro retains ownership of any online content posted on its behalf, thus it is always important to obtain permission to speak or write on behalf of Touro; when in doubt ask your supervisor, Program Director and/or Communications Director.
   b. Regardless of whether you are managing a presence (e.g., portal page, Facebook, etc.) on Touro’s behalf or have contracted this service out on Touro’s behalf, you are required to adhere to all of Touro’s policies and practices. When managing the site, consider the following:
      i. Have a plan. Departments should consider their messages, audiences, and goals, as well as a strategy for keeping information on social media sites accurate and up to date.
      ii. Departments that have or wish to have a social media presence should contact... their local communications director or Web Services to discuss logistics and planning, and provide the proposed written plan (a form to guide you thru this process is included as Appendix A) to the Office of the Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), who will have final review to ensure that all required parties have reviewed the site and approved program content. All department sites should designate a point of contact that is responsible for content and ensuring compliance with Touro policies. Administering a social media site on behalf of any Touro program requires the Dean, or his/her designee of the relevant program to make the commitment to managing the “presence” (for example, on Facebook, this means that if the Dean chooses to create a “page,” the “page” must routinely be reviewed and any issues arising from posting addressed on a regular basis); and, requires the program to submit appropriate documentation that contains the site name of where the posting will appear (e.g., Facebook, LinkedIn, etc.), the name of the Dean and the person charged with managing the site for the program (a form to guide you thru this process is included as Appendix A).

iii. For any newsworthy photos, permission to post may not be required. Absent newsworthiness, any photos or videos posted require a signed permission form to be on file as per Touro policy. Each Program must maintain all appropriate authorization forms that allow media to be posted, if used on any site that they manage.

iv. Include Disclaimers: Disclaimers with Touro legal-approved language must be prominently displayed on any Web page not maintained by Touro’s Web Services group or contracted out on Touro’s behalf. The disclaimer may be modified from time to time and it’s current version is annexed here to as Appendix B.

v. Removal of post: Posted material that is not in line with Touro policies, Touro published program content or is in disregard of Touro’s code of conduct or mission should not be posted and is subject to a request for removal and approval of the site can be withdrawn.

c. If you are authorized to go on line on behalf of Touro, at any and all times:

i. Identify yourself: Disclose your name and your affiliation with Touro and include contact information when possible, unless it is clear you are acting on behalf of Touro as an overall institution or as the “Touro” entity itself. In such cases, provide contact information for your institution (primary office phone number and Web address, at a minimum).

ii. Never post restricted, confidential or proprietary information: Refer to Touro’s Information Security Policy and ask your supervisor, Program Director and/or Communications Director and the Chief Information Security Officer (CISO) if you are not sure what is restricted, confidential or proprietary.

iii. Attribute what you post: When providing information that can be sourced, provide appropriate attribution and permissions, letting others know where you obtained your information. Be especially mindful of copyright, trademark and other intellectual property rights.

iv. To foster the smooth administration of the public relations function and ensure that Touro is in compliance with copyright laws, all members of the Touro community, when circulating or posting media coverage of or about Touro or its community members, must utilize an electronic link to the coverage. By ‘link’ we mean a link to a news article on a media outlet’s website that opens up to the coverage when one clicks on it.

If such a link is not available and you still desire to post the item, then you must receive express written permission from the media outlet to post or circulate the coverage in another manner.

(In other words, if you see a story published in the hard copy of a newspaper, and you would like to circulate or post it, check to see if it is available online and copy the link from your browser to circulate it. If a link is not available, you must obtain written permission to distribute the story internally or externally. You may not circulate or post PDFs, or copy a story into another document or Web page and circulate it or post it on a Touro website without written permission from the media outlet.)

Note that compliance applies to media coverage authored by non-Touro community members. For op-eds, columns, and other editorial copy including advertising and ‘advertorials’ authored or co-authored by Touro community members, other rules may apply. Please call the Office of Communications or the Office of the General Counsel for questions on these issues or other permissions questions.

v. Be helpful and professional: Understand that your supervisor and others may monitor your online activity to be sure it doesn’t interfere with other duties or reflect poorly on Touro or anything we do. You must respect Touro Policies on Information Technology, Information Security and Acceptable Use, in addition to your Staff and Faculty Administration Handbooks.

vi. If a staff member is offered payment to produce a blog for a third party this could constitute a conflict of interest and must be discussed with employee’s immediate supervisor and manager and program director, as well as Human Resources where appropriate.

d. If any staff member is contacted by the media about posts on their blog that relate to Touro they should speak to their immediate supervisor and manager before responding and also prior to responding contact and consult with the Director of Communications.

e. Control of Content: Touro reserves the right to control and remove any content issued on its behalf, whether the employee/agent had authorization to post on Touro’s behalf, or not. Touro will work with you to remove content in a way that respects your privacy whenever possible.

Section III: Personal Social Media
Touro understands and respects that most of us participate in a variety of online activities as individuals. Sometimes these efforts are good for professional development and in that way are assets to Touro. Sometimes, however, individual actions online are purely for the sake of connecting with family or friends, entertainment or distraction. These uses are not beneficial to Touro, but sometimes the lines between these types of interaction blur.

1. Examples of good personal social media that are an asset to Touro:
   a. Suggesting someone contact another Touro employee or program for more information on a relevant topic.
   b. Illustrating connections between Touro and partner organizations (provided the partner organization approves of such publicizing) and directing others to contact information for either/both.
   c. Connecting with others in the education community, using your real identity, on LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook, our own Web portal or other social networks.

2. Examples of unacceptable personal social media:
   a. Speaking on behalf of Touro when not specifically authorized to do so.
   b. Revealing restricted or confidential information about Touro.
   c. Trying to “friend” students, clients, or others on social networks who may not be interested in communicating online (e.g., students may prefer not to communicate with their teachers).
   d. Using your real or a fake identity to engage in any illegal or unethical activity, including but not limited to file sharing, harassing, stalking, defamation, plagiarism, etc.

3. During work hours
   a. Generally, personal use of social media during work hours should be limited so as not to interfere with work tasks and functions. Think of using time at work for social media as you would use time at work for personal phone calls or emails.
   b. Staff members are not allowed to update their personal blog from a Touro computer at work if it interferes with their job responsibilities.

4. Furthering Touro’s mission or work
   Unless you are authorized to speak on behalf of Touro, be careful how you participate online in areas relating to Touro’s mission and services. Ask before you post anything that may be construed as the official view or statement of Touro. See Section II.1 for requirements for posting on behalf of Touro.

5. Ancillary to Touro’s mission or work (individual professional development)
   Employees are encouraged to participate in social networks for professional development. Ask your colleagues for suggestions on who to follow or what blogs to read to keep up on industry topics and people of interest. Remember to:
   a. Use your real identity and say how you are affiliated with Touro, unless you choose not to for personal or client safety reasons. In such cases, create an alternate Touro identity, approved by your supervisor, so others know you are affiliated with Touro.
   b. Indicate that you are writing on your own behalf, not Touro’s. Write in the first person.

6. As a Touro employee/agent
   a. Any time you can be identified as a Touro employee or agent, you should disclose your connection to Touro and indicate you are writing on your own behalf, not Touro’s. If your employer is listed as Touro in your Facebook profile, realize that what you post there may reflect on Touro as an organization. The same applies to your LinkedIn profile or anywhere that your Touro affiliation is indicated.
   b. Remember we live and work in relatively small (online and offline) communities.
Appendix K: Touro College and University System Academic Integrity Policy

if you are not directly self-identified as a Touro employee/agent, people may know you work or volunteer for Touro. Anything you say or do online under your real name can reflect on Touro. Please be mindful of this fact and act responsibly during all of your online activity.

c. Use your personal email address and other contact information for non-Touro correspondence and participation.

7. Posting anonymously or with a pseudonym
Posting under a fake name or identity is discouraged, unless you believe it to be necessary for privacy or security reasons. Instead, try adjusting your privacy settings on social network sites to limit visibility. If you do create a pseudonym, it is good practice to keep it consistent across networks/platforms, so you can be accountable for that activity. As noted above, creating or using a fake identity for the purpose of illegal or unethical activity is explicitly prohibited at Touro and is in violation of the Touro Information Security Policy.

8. Identifiable as a Touro employee/agent
a. Touro is not interested in monitoring or censoring what you do on your own time. But it’s important to remember that some online actions can affect your employment or service with Touro even if they are done on your own time and equipment.

b. If you mention Touro, disclaimers should be visible on all blogs, something like “these are my personal views and not those of Touro.”

c. Staff members are free to talk about non-confidential Touro programs and content on their blogs, but if there is any doubt, staff members should consult their immediate supervisors and managers for clarification of what may and may not be posted. Supervisors and managers should coordinate through their Office of Communications if there is any question whether the content is an appropriate representation of Touro.

d. Personal blogs and websites should not reveal confidential information about Touro. If in doubt about what might be confidential, staff members should consult their immediate supervisors and managers for clarification.

e. Personal blogs and websites should not be used to attack or abuse colleagues. Staff members should respect the privacy and the feelings of others. Remember also that if you break the law on a blog (for example, by posting something defamatory), you will be personally responsible.

f. If a staff member thinks something on their blog or website gives rise to concerns about a conflict of interest, and in particular concerns impartiality or confidentiality, this must be discussed with their immediate supervisor and manager. An Incident Report Form must be filed.

9. Anonymous or with a pseudonym
If you post anonymously or use a pseudonym that does not connect you to your real identity or affiliation with Touro, remember that you are still responsible for abiding by Touro policies associated with your online activity and you should always be respectful of Touro and its clients, vendors, partners and competitors.

The arbitrator shall not award any special, direct, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with the use of this including, without limitation, any lost profits, business interruption, or loss of programs or information even if Owner or Touro has been specifically advised of the possibility of such damages. Conformance of Individual School Policies
This Touro College and University System Academic Integrity Policy applies to all students in each of Touro’s schools. Any act in violation of this Policy or any allegation of misconduct related to this Policy involving a student is to be reported and addressed in accordance with the adjudication procedures outlined above or those of the student’s school, which in no event will be less stringent than the requirements and standards set forth in this Policy Statement.

Within three months of the distribution of the Touro College and University System Policy on Academic Integrity, the Dean of each Touro School or Division shall inform the Touro College and University System Academic Integrity Council that the School has adopted the Touro College and University System Policy on Academic Integrity and the existence of the more stringent requirements, if any. In addition, the Dean of each Touro school or division will inform the TCUS Academic Integrity Council of the identity of the Dean designated as responsible for Academic Integrity and the composition of the Individual School Academic Integrity Committee consisting of at least three members, and preferably five. Policies and Procedures Concerning Requests to Accommodate Disabilities and Complaints Regarding Allegations of Failure to Accommodate and Disability-Based Discrimination

It is Touro’s policy that any students with a disability be afforded the same opportunities as every other student within the Touro community. This policy may be utilized when there is a dispute about discrimination, including harassment on the basis of disability, refusal to find a disabled student eligible for academic adjustments and auxiliary aids, denial of a requested prospective reasonable academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, and refusal of a faculty member to implement approved academic adjustments and auxiliary aids. Any adverse treatment in regards to a person’s disability will not be tolerated.

2.0 Purpose
All divisions of Touro University (“Touro”) seek to foster a collegial atmosphere where all qualified students have full access to each of our programs and are nurtured and educated through close faculty-student relationships, student camaraderie, and individualized attention. Adverse treatment of any kind in regards to an individual’s disability, is anathema to Touro’s mission, history, and identity, and will not be tolerated. Touro will endeavor to resolve claims of policy violations in an effective and timely manner. When a violation is found to have occurred Touro will take prompt and effective remedial action.

Those believing that they have been harassed or discriminated against on the basis of their disability should immediately contact the Compliance Officer or their designee. When Touro has notice of the occurrence, Touro will take prompt and effective corrective action reasonably calculated to stop the harassment, prevent its recurrence, and as appropriate, remedy its effects.

3.0 Scope
This policy applies to all qualified students of the Touro University community.

4.0 Definitions
4.1 Individual with a Disability
An individual with a disability is a person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities of the individual. These persons are protected by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Individuals with a record of such an impairment and individuals who are regarded as having such an impairment are also protected by these Federal laws.

4.2 Academic Adjustments/Auxiliary Aids
Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (the “ADA”) and Section 504 of the Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (the “ADA”) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act require an institution to provide academic adjustments and auxiliary aids to qualified individuals with disabilities, unless to do so would cause undue hardship.

Students must provide documentation of disability to the Office of Disability Services (“ODS”) from an appropriate professional, which vary depending on the nature of the disability. This documentation may be the student’s medical records, or reports created by the student’s medical provider or an appropriate professional who conducts a recent assessment of the student. The documentation of disability is kept confidential, though not strictly so, including but not limited to situations where it receives a subpoena. The ODS will determine what information needs to be shared with Touro staff and professors, on an “as needed basis,” in order to facilitate academic adjustments/auxiliary aids or other services.
There are a number of possible academic adjustments/auxiliary aids that Touro may be required to provide to qualified students in connection with the scholastic environment. An academic adjustment or auxiliary aid is practical depending on the:

- student’s disability;
- the type of academic adjustment/auxiliary aid requested by the student; and
- the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is effective in meeting the needs of the individual in the context of the educational setting.

An academic adjustment/auxiliary aid enables a qualified student with a disability to have an equal opportunity to participate in our programs. Finally, an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid allows a student with a disability an equal opportunity to enjoy the benefits and privileges of our programs that students without disabilities enjoy.

All that being said, Touro is not required to change the essential elements/requirements of its program to accommodate a student. For example, our Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is applied uniformly to all students with or without disabilities. Also, there are several academic adjustments/auxiliary aids that are considered appropriate provided that an academic adjustments/auxiliary aid does not cause a fundamental alteration or cause an undue burden to the program. If the latter is the case, Touro will work with the student to determine if there is an alternative academic adjustments/auxiliary aid which can meet the needs of the student that does not cause a fundamental alteration or undue burden. This is because a person with a disability who is unable to meet one or more essential program requirements, with or without academic adjustments/auxiliary aids, is not a “qualified” individual with a disability within the meaning of the law.

Touro does not have to provide as academic adjustments/auxiliary aids, personal use items, otherwise known as personal appliances. Thus, Touro is not required to provide a prosthetic limb, a wheelchair, eyeglasses, hearing aids, or similar devices if they are also needed off campus.

4.3 Compliance Officer
The Compliance Officer, or his or her designee (“Compliance Officer”), is trained and knowledgeable about the duties of the institution with regard to accommodating students with disabilities in a post-secondary setting.

4.4 Interactive Dialogue for Academic Adjustments/Auxiliary Aids
Students who plan to request an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid should contact the ODS promptly, so there is time for the ODS to review the student’s documentation and discuss the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid with the student before the student begins the class or program for which the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is being requested.

In determining what appropriate academic adjustments/auxiliary aids are to be provided, the ODS (or other designated office) will engage in a dialogue and give careful consideration to the student’s request. The student and the ODS will discuss how the student’s impairment impacts the student, how the student expects the impairment to impact the student in Touro’s program, the types of academic adjustments/auxiliary aids the student has previously received (if any), and the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid being requested by the student from Touro.
Academic adjustments/auxiliary aids needed during certain phases of the program, classroom, laboratory, externships, rotations, and for classroom instruction, skills based instruction and skills practice may differ. Academic adjustments/auxiliary aids needed during certain phases of the program, classroom, laboratory, externships, rotations, and for classroom instruction, skills based instruction and skills practice may differ.

4.5 Decision of Academic Adjustment/Auxiliary Aids
The ODS will decide the appropriate academic adjustments/auxiliary aids to be provided to the student. They will consider any past academic adjustments/auxiliary aids that have been effective for the student. Alternate academic adjustments/auxiliary aids may be provided if there is an alternative that would be equally effective for the student.

Generally, within 30 days after receiving a complete set of required medical documentation and engaging in a dialogue, the ODS will list the approved academic adjustments/auxiliary aids in writing to the student. The ODS will then inform the appropriate professors and Touro staff in the same timeframe of the academic adjustments/auxiliary aids they are responsible for providing to the student, how to provide the academic adjustments/auxiliary aids, and when to provide the academic adjustments/auxiliary aids. The ODS Officer will also keep a written record of these contacts about the student’s academic adjustments/auxiliary aids. The student must inform the ODS when academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is not being fully implemented. The ODS will intervene with relevant staff members to ensure the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is provided to the student. The student must not delay in bringing implementation issues to the ODS’s attention.

A faculty member may not unilaterally make a determination as to whether the student has a disability, the extent of the student’s disability or the appropriateness of an approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid.

4.6 Denial of Academic Adjustments or Auxiliary Aids
A denial of an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid may be justified if the student fails to follow procedure and supply the appropriate requested documentation. Further, a denial of an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is warranted when Touro acts in good faith and when an attempt is made to assess the complainant’s limitations or explore possible academic adjustments/auxiliary aids. A denial of academic adjustments/auxiliary aids may take place when the complainant’s request is unreasonable for a variety of reasons, including, but not limited to: (a) a request for the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is based on a stale evaluation by an appropriate healthcare provider, and has not provided an updated evaluation upon Touro’s request, (b) the academic notified Touro of the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid requirement, (d) providing an 1Touro defines a stale evaluation as one that is 1) not applicable or related to the technical standards of the program; 2) is over three years old; or 3) has been previously provided to another school or program that is not Touro and is a course of study that is dissimilar to the current program to which the student is enrolled.

2The factors to be considered in determining whether an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid causes an undue burden to Touro include, but are not limited to: (a) the nature and cost of the requested academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, and (b) the overall financial resources of the School and the effect of the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid on expenses and resources of the School.
academic adjustment/auxiliary aid requested by a student with a disability would fundamentally alter the course or program requirements or (e) the aid sought is to be applied retroactively (e.g. when a student has not previously requested accommodations or otherwise self-identified, and seeks accommodations for exams previously taken or grades previously received) when a student did not self-identify. Where such determinations arise, regarding a requested academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, the School will work collaboratively with the student to identify whether any alternative academic adjustments/auxiliary aids may be provided (see below regarding “Disagreements and Complaints about Disability Accommodations Determinations”).

4.7 Retaliation
Retaliation is any kind of intimidation, harassment, reprisal, adverse action, or negative action. Retaliation is any kind of intimidation, harassment, reprisal, adverse action, or negative action taken against an individual that would not have occurred but for his or her: (1) filing or otherwise participation in the filing of or investigation of a complaint about alleged discrimination, (2) participation as a party or witness in an investigation relating to such allegations, or (3) participation as a party or witness in a court proceeding or administrative investigation regarding such allegations. Retaliation does not exist in the absence of an adverse action. An individual is protected from retaliation even when the complaint at issue is ultimately found to lack merit, as long as the complaint was made in good faith.

Touro prohibits any conduct by any Touro community member that may be regarded as retaliatory. Retaliation against any individual, whether said person submitted a complaint through the method described in section 6.4 below, or for any other reason will not be tolerated. A student may also file a Complaint if the student feels that he or she has been retaliated against based on disability. Any individual who believes he/she has been subjected to retaliation may file a separate complaint under this procedure.

5.0 Confidentiality
Touro has independent obligations to report or investigate potential misconduct, even if a complainant does not wish to initiate an official process. Therefore, absolute confidentiality cannot be promised with respect to a complaint that is received by the Compliance Officer or their designee.

Touro wishes, however, to create an environment in which legitimate complaints are encouraged, while also protecting the privacy of all involved in an investigation. Complaints about violations of these policies will therefore be handled in strict confidence, with facts made available only to those who need to know in order for Touro to promptly and thoroughly investigate and resolve the matter.

The factors to be considered in determining whether an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid is a fundamental alteration include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) the purpose or objective of the course, requirement, standard, testing practice, procedures or rule in question, (b) the purpose or objective related to the requirements for the student’s program or degree, (c) the mastery of skills and knowledge required by a student in the course, (d) the minimum level of mastery that must be demonstrated by students, (e) the purpose of the chosen instructional methods, evaluation methods, and evaluation requirements, and (f) whether the evaluations to (a) through (e) above are generally consistent between all instructors of a course, or in a program.
6.0 Complaint Procedures & Implementation

6.1 Types of Complaints Covered Under This Procedure
The purpose of this procedure is to provide the resolution of student complaints and is not limited to any of the following: (a) complaints by individuals with disabilities when the complainant believes that he or she has been retaliated or discriminated against on the basis of disability, (b) refusal to engage in the interactive process, (c) unreasonable denial of a requested reasonable academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, or (d) refusal to implement approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid by a member of the community (including faculty and staff) whether the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid has been denied or if a previously approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid has not been implemented. If the complainant does not wish to resolve the complaint informally, the receiving school authority must promptly forward the complaint to the Compliance Officer or their designee who will initiate an investigation, generally, no later than twenty (20) days after receipt of a complaint.

6.2 Duty to Cooperate and Facilitate
All members of the Touro community are required to cooperate fully with any investigation of discrimination, including harassment occurring in relation to any campus activity. A faculty member, staff member, or student who has relevant information and refuses to cooperate with an ongoing investigation will be subject to disciplinary action for, among other things, insubordination. Likewise, all Touro employees are required to ensure that complaints about discrimination, including harassment and retaliation are directed to the appropriate administrative office for investigation and evaluation. Touro is committed to conducting an inquiry that is thorough and impartial.

6.3 Compliance Officer
The Compliance Officer, or his or her designee, shall coordinate the enforcement, compliance, communication and implementation of Touro’s policy.

The Compliance Officer shall communicate the policy via the following, without limitation: student orientations and catalogues, campus websites and publications, Student Affairs, Disabled Student Affairs, and Academic Affairs.

The Compliance Officer’s designee in Nevada is:

6.4 Duty to Report Violations
Any member of the Touro community including faculty, employees, or vendors have a duty to report violations of this policy where individuals know, or should know, of accusations or actions which violate Touro Policy and will notify the Compliance Officer or their designee or the anonymous compliance hotline at 646-565-6000 Ext. 55330.

The Complaint procedure provides students the opportunity to file a complaint when they feel they have been discriminated against or retaliated against on the basis of disability. Touro then has the responsibility to objectively investigate the allegations in the complaint and determine whether the student has been discriminated or retaliated against. If Touro determines that discrimination or retaliation occurred, Touro must take appropriate steps to correct the discrimination or retaliation and prevent it from reoccurring.

6.4(a) Reporting Procedure
Complaints should be filed as soon as possible after the date of the alleged misconduct, and a written complaint is preferable but not absolutely required.

A complaint, which must be submitted within the earlier of the following two dates: (a) 180 days after the alleged misconduct; or, (b) the end of the semester in which the alleged incident occurred. A complaint should include the following information:

a. Complainant’s full name, home address, email, telephone number, and Touro Student/Employee ID number.
b. Name of the person against whom the complaint was made, including job title or student status, if known.
c. A clear statement of the facts that constitute the alleged discrimination or retaliation, including dates on which the acts were committed and any information to identify witnesses.
d. The term and year of his/her most recent active student status within the university.
e. A student who is seeking admission to Touro should include the term and year in which he/she sought admission to the university.
f. The specific harm that resulted from the alleged act and the remedy sought.
g. The complainant’s signature and the date on which the complaint was submitted.

6.4(b) Intake Interview After Reporting
After receipt of a complaint, the Compliance Officer or their designee will meet with the complainant as soon as possible, but generally, not later than thirty (30) days after receipt. The complainant must make himself/herself available to meet.

The meeting will be an intake interview where the Compliance Officer or their designee must inform the complainant about the investigation procedure and timeline. The student may sign a formal complaint form at that time (under the above guidelines) if he/she has not already done so.

A thorough and impartial investigation of complaints will occur, which includes documented interviews of the complainant, the accused, and witnesses with relevant knowledge. Also, a review of relevant documents, if any, and other evidence also occurs.
6.5 Disagreements and Complaints about Academic Adjustment/Auxiliary Aid Determinations

A student, who disagrees with a decision made by the ODS concerning the outcome of the academic adjustment/auxiliary aid review process, including whether the student is a qualified individual with a disability or the adequacy of the student’s documentation regarding the student’s disability, the functional limitations of the disability, or approved academic adjustments/auxiliary aids, a denial of the student’s request for disability-related services such as a request for academic adjustments/auxiliary aids, delay in the provision of an approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, or non-implementation of an approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid by faculty or staff may take the following steps:

a. Promptly make an appointment with the Compliance Officer after the decision has been made. Within 10 days of receiving the student’s complaint, the Compliance Officer will discuss the disputed decision with the student, while providing necessary information. A student must make this appointment within 180 days of the date the discriminatory act occurred. The Compliance Officer will forward the relevant information to a Fact Finder who will inform the student in writing, generally, within ten (10) calendar days whether they decide to change or uphold the original decision. This decision may take longer to process and investigate depending on the nature of the allegations. If the decision is to change the original determination, the Compliance Officer will ensure that the changes to the original determination are implemented based on the Fact Finder’s determination (If an instructor does not implement an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, see below regarding procedure for how to address that.)

b. If the student disagrees with the Fact Finder’s decision, the student may file a written appeal to the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee within ten (10) days of the Fact Finder’s decision. The appeal must contain the decision that the student disagreed with, and the reasons for the disagreement, including any relevant documentation. The Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee will contact the student and Compliance Officer to gather relevant information, will liaise with the complainant, and will provide a written determination response to the appeal, generally, within ten (10) calendar days of the date the appeal was received or longer if additional investigating or processing is necessary. The written determination will include the reasons for the determination and what remedial action that will be taken (if any). This determination is final.

6.6 Procedure if Instructor Does Not Implement an Academic Adjustment/Auxiliary Aid

If an instructor fails to implement an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid for a student that has been approved, the student should promptly notify the student’s Learning Specialist or Compliance Officer. The University encourages students to first discuss the issue with the instructor; however, this step is not required. When the Learning Specialist or Compliance Officer receives information from a student that an instructor is not implementing an approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, the University will take the following steps:

1. Attempt to resolve the matter with the instructor. Any proposed resolution may include
Appendix M: Policies and Procedures Concerning Requests to Accommodate Disabilities and Complaints Regarding Allegations of Failure to Accommodate and Disability-Based Discrimination discussions with the student, if appropriate.

2. The Compliance Officer will ensure that the student’s approved academic adjustments/auxiliary aids are implemented during resolution and pending a final decision on the matter.
3. The Compliance Officer will refer the matter to a Fact Finder within ten (10) days, who will consider the Learning Specialist or Compliance Officer’s basis for the approved academic adjustment/auxiliary aid, the instructor’s objections, and reasons therefore. After reviewing all the evidence gathered, the Fact Finder will determine whether the student was treated differently from other students based on disability; whether the student was harassed based on disability; whether the student was retaliated against, or whether the student was denied an academic adjustment/auxiliary aid that Touro should have provided to the student; or whether the academic adjustment/auxiliary aids that were offered or provided were adequate and appropriate. A final decision will be issued, generally, within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the referral from the Learning Specialist or Compliance Officer. If the instructor raises the issue of undue burden or fundamental alteration, the University will follow the procedure set forth.
4. If the student disagrees with this disposition, the student can appeal the decision per section 6.5(b).

Faculty and Staff Compliance

6.7 Complaints about Faculty or Other Employees
Complaints against faculty or other employees shall be submitted according to the procedures set forth above. Upon receipt of a complaint against a faculty member or an employee of the Touro, the Compliance Officer shall conduct a thorough and impartial investigation regarding the circumstances surrounding the complaint. This investigation shall include documented interviews of the complainant, the person against whom the complaint is written, and witnesses with relevant knowledge, if any; as well as a review of relevant documents and any other evidence. A determination will be made by an impartial Fact Finder.

6.8 Preponderance of the Evidence and Written Determination
This standard weighs the evidence in an investigation. One party’s evidence outweighs the evidence of the other. All investigations conducted at any of Touro’s schools rely on the preponderance of the evidence standard. A written decision will be provided to the Complainant that includes the outcome of the investigation, reasons for the decision, and whether corrective actions must be taken, if any. Consistent with the Fact Finder’s decision, Touro will take prompt, effective, remedial action to resolve any identified discrimination and to ensure that the effects are remedied and to ensure that it will not recur again.

6.8 Discipline
Employees, faculty, staff and students who violate Touro’s policies may be subject to disciplinary action. All disciplinary actions shall comply with applicable local, state and federal laws. Individuals who retaliate against someone who files a complaint, or against a witness, representative, or advocate for a complainant, will be subject to further disciplinary action.

Consistent with this Policy, Touro will take prompt effective action to resolve any identified retaliatory acts, and take steps to avoid a reoccurrence.
